PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. HAGGERTY asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Mrs. COYLE, Mrs. VARALLO, Messrs. HAGGERTY, MULDOWNEY, HOGGARD, DOUGHERTY, PETTIGREW and GANVILLE E. JONES offered a resolution which was read considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 15, 1951.

Fifty years—a half century—of useful, placid living has been the allotment thus far to George A. Penglase.

Born on August 15, 1901, Mr. Penglase has throughout the succeeding years been a shining knight of civic reform and rehabilitation. His gregarious instinct and fundamental love of people have found expression in a burning desire to convert the shabby and disreputable backyards of North Philadelphia into colorful and blooming gardens, to advocate and to implement well constructed and located highways throughout the State on which safety is the controlling theme, to purify the water supply available to human consumption, to legislate constructively and generously in behalf of labor, and to safeguard the mental health and equanimity of all of the people of Pennsylvania.

His interests in public life and welfare are broad and deversified and have always been sighted to bring relief and comfort and advantage to a target of all groups, irrespective of their partisan zeal or motives.

Recently, Mr. Penglase has become an ardent proponent for civil defense and was appointed as the warden of the zone in which he resides. Although a stationary engineer by profession and a politician by avocation, yet his professional activities and his political interests have always been subordinated to his unquestionable ambition to dedicate his energy and thought to the common weal; therefore be it

Resolved, that the House of Representatives congratulate a worthy public servant, a distinguished fellow member, and a true friend of the people—the Honorable George A. Penglase—on his successful completion of the first fifty years of an active, helpful and happy life and extend to him its sincerest wishes that the next fifty years will reveal a further unfolding of his interests and a widening of the scope of his beneficent social services; and be it further

Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Honorable George A. Penglase.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Penglase.

Mr. PENGLASE. Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank the Philadelphia delegation and all the Members of the House for their kindness.

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Cambria Mr. Andrews rise?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, to inquire whether the Majority Leader is in the House?

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, in the Hall of the House?

Mr. SMITH. I appear to be, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. I would like to exchange a bit of comment with the Majority Leader if approved.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, as the Majority Leader well knows, and as all the Members of the House know, this session is making a head on collision with various commitments as to time made by Members months ago, in some instances commitments that are binding, in other instances commitments that merely have to do with the usual annual vacation for family groups.

While I know the difficulties under which the Majority Leader labors and the difficult position into which events have manoeuvred the wise and all powerful majority party represented in this General Assembly, it is getting to be about time when we should have some vague notion as to how many more days we will be required to devote to the services of the Commonwealth and how soon, approximately, at least, it will be possible for the Members of this House once again to return to a consideration of their own business.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, the Minority Leader in his questions is not helping any of my problems.

About five or six weeks ago he was kind enough to ask me when we thought we would get out, but he put it then on a matter of weeks. Now he is pinning me down to a matter of days. At that time I said I sincerely hope that by the middle of August we would have accomplished everything that we need to accomplish and go home and go on vacation.

But when he asks me as a matter of days I do not know. I can say to him that he is not any more anxious to go home than every one on this side. I can also say to him that we are doing our level best to bring this session to a successful close.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, once again of course I am disappointed, as I asked for information not for sympathy.

Another matter, Mr. Speaker, I see that the Members of this House are gradually being surrounded on all sides with proposed meritorious increases in salaries for various people in the public service. I view some of these measures with approval, but I am beginning to wonder as to what disposition the Majority Leader, as trustee, has made of the proposal to increase the salaries of the Members of this General Assembly.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I thoroughly respected the gentleman's trusteeship of the bill that he gave me. It has not gone as far as the Mausoleum Committee. I just have been a little bit too busy to actually give it very much consideration, but I am still hoping and I am still for it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the Majority Leader if he has been as potent in his counsels with his caucus as he has been diligent in his conversations with me.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would never divulge a caucus secret.

Mr. ANDREWS. Then I would gather from that, Mr. Speaker, that the disposition the Majority Leader is making of the bill entrusted into his keeping is a secret?

Mr. SMITH. No I would not say so, Mr. Speaker. My personal feelings and hopes are that the bill will come out with joint signatures.

Mr. ANDREWS. I once again, as I did months ago, thank the Majority Leader for his continuing hope, and I hope that ultimately he will be invested with the authority that will enable him to go before his caucus and force a salary increase down the throats of a reluctant membership.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I can assure the Minority Leader that no matter how hard my caucus fights against it I will do my very best for him.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I move that his House do now adjourn until Monday, August 20, at 3:30 p. m. E. S. T.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 12:43 p. m. E. S. T.) the House adjourned.

SENATE

MONDAY, August 20, 1951.

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. ALFRED L. TAXIS, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Port Carbon, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

O God, as we come blundering into Thy Divine Presence, we are haunted by the memories of unperformed duties and promptings unheeded. If Thou art drawing close to us now, wilt Thou draw closer so that selfishness and pride and avarice may be burned out of us, and the weakness of our wills vanish by union with Thy Holy Will. Make us strong and God fearing. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. WADE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. Haluska asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. DENT.

An Act to further amend Section 1 of the act, approved the eighteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 136), entitled "An act authorizing certain officers on active duty with the armed forces of the United States to act as notaries public, and requiring certification of their authority," changing the provisions of said act in order to make it conform in certain respects to certain Acts of Congress.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, last Monday I rose in place to discuss the deficiency appropriation pertaining to Schuylkill County, Northumberland County and other counties of the Commonwealth. Again I rose in place on Wednesday of last week, discussing issues along the same line. During our discourse that afternoon, certain remarks were made and I made a remark for which I was censured, I could say more, but I was fearful I may be wrong. I told the truth; I was not fortified at that time to make statements that I wanted to make. Since that time I have fortified myself with information so that I can make those statements today or later.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mr. President, the gentleman from Schuylkill County, my colleague, Senator Wagner, rose in place and stated very definitely that I remarked that the County Commissioners and Judges of Schuylkill County should be sent to jail for failure to do their duty. I argued that I did not make that remark. I argued that I did say, however, that the County Commissioners and the Judges of Schuylkill County should be surcharged for negligence in performing their duties properly. The gentleman from Schuylkill County disagreed with me and insisted that I made the other remark. I then asked that a transcript be made of my speech, to be given each Member of the Senate. The gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Walker, then replied that he would see to it that I received a copy of my remarks and, likewise, would the gentleman from Schuylkill County. I received my copy by mail, Mr. President, and I am thankful for it, and I want to compliment the stenographic help in the Senate for doing an accurate job. The words that I spoke on the Senate floor appear in this transcript, and I want the gentleman from Schuylkill County now to show me where I made the remark during my discourse that the Judges or County commissioners should go to jail because they have failed to do their duty. It does not appear in the record. I made no such remark, and it goes to prove once again what loose talk will do, how innocent people have suffered, broken up families, people sent to jail, paid the death penalty and created chaos in many families because of propaganda and loose talk.

Mr. President, I have always tried to refrain from talking loosely. I try to be accurate, and I am sincere in what I said. The gentleman from Schuylkill County either spoke in the heat of anger, because I do not think he practices loose talk. I have a lot of respect for him, but that one day it was very loose, and again I say I would like to have him point out to me where I made that statement. I remarked that if I did, I would apologize to him and to the Senate at large. What he cares to do is up to him. I am not asking for an apology, but I do want him to clarify his statement now as to the remark I made and what he finds in the official record.

Mr. WAGNER. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALUSKA. I will, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WAGNER. Will the gentleman point out where I said that he said the Judges of Schuylkill County should go to jail?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, if the gentleman will give me enough time, I will do just that.

I am ready, Mr. President. I am sorry for the delay, Mr. President. I am a little slow in picking out these pages here, but I want to read from the record where he so stated, Mr. President: "I think the gentleman implied, at least, that not only should the Commissioners be put in jail, but he said something about the Judges and the improper actions that they take in regard to some of the coal situations."

I think that answers your question.

Mr. WAGNER. I think not.

Mr. HALUSKA. You think not?

Mr. WAGNER. No, Mr. President, there is no quote in there, there is no statement in there that I said such a thing. I said, "I think the gentleman implied, at least, that not only should the Commissioners be put in jail, but he said something about the Judges and the improper actions that they take in regard to some of these coal situations."

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, may I interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill County now?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Wagner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I would prefer, if the gentleman has no objection—now that he has answered my question as closely as he could come to an answer—that I might be permitted to make a statement, and if he wants to interrogate me after that, I shall be willing to be interrogated.

Mr. HALUSKA. Well, just one question.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cambria may proceed.

Mr. HALUSKA. Will you kindly interpret the word "imply"? Just what does it mean that I am implying? In what manner did I imply they should go to jail? Senator Wagner?

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, when I was a columnist for the Tamaqua Courier back in the 1920's, I always used the word "implied" in the sense that it meant to give out an impression. Now, to a lay mind, when you talk about Commissioners being hauled before a court for not doing their duty and Judges falling down in their duty, there are a lot of us not practiced in the law, Mr. President, who immediately think, By golly, those fellows ought to go to jail. They don't belong on the bench, they don't belong in the Commissioners' office."

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, that certainly is going far afield in the answer. A layman or no lay person can be led to believe that the word "surcharge" of any public official implies in any manner whatsoever that he should go to jail. I did remark on a number of occasions that the County Commissioners and the Judges of Schuylkill County should be surcharged, but show me where or how you could possibly imply that I said they should go to jail. He certainly stretches his imagination I should think.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, if I may use you as legal counsel for a moment, what if you are surcharged and refused to pay the surcharge or cannot pay it? What do they do with you?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the Majority Floor Leader, Mr. Walker.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object to the Chair giving legal advice at this time.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is like a married woman. He cannot be surety for a daughter.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in all fairness, I am not trying to be captious, but I would appreciate it very much if the difference of opinion as to what was said was said has been resolved. The record speaks for itself. I am wondering if the gentlemen have satisfied each other that both either did or did not say what they said.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, do I still have the floor?

The PRESIDENT. You still have the floor.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, in deference not only to the Majority Floor Leader but to all of the Senators here and the people at the desk who have been held up a long time before we started this evening, I will not pursue any further this matter of debate. The record shows that Mr. Haluska did not say that the Judges ought to go to jail. The record shows that I did not say he said it.

I did not even say he implied it, except in so far as the County Commissioners were concerned.

Now, Mr. President, I got the implication from the fact that he said the County of Schuylkill is not distressed, and the County Commissioners and Judges, if you please, should be surcharged for negligence in not performing their duties, and then he said further that when the Commissioners tried to do their duty, the Judges would not go along and they are definitely derelict in what they do. Now, let us not concern ourselves too much about the record. I am saying this for Senator Haluska's benefit, because I do not think I should apologize for saying something I did not say, and I do not want him to think what I said was in the heat of anger. Certainly I was not angry at him. He very definitely spread upon the record his complete distrust of Schuylkill County, and I very indignantly resented that and justified the position in which Schuylkill County was placed regarding that legislation, and, of course, he was talking about a county and I was defending the county against an individual which made it necessary, of course, to indulge in some personalities, but as I told Senator Haluska after the Session, when he bought me my lunch, I said, "We should both be very careful that we do not let the Senate nor the spectators get the idea that this is a running fight between Cambria and Schuylkill Counties," because, as a matter of fact, Senator Haluska has stated repeatedly that he will vote for money to help distressed teachers, which is what I had been carrying the ball for at that particular time, and I think Senator Haluska knows very well that certainly I am in favor of good government and clean government and honest government in Cambria County, in Schuylkill County, in Pennsylvania and in the United States. When the day comes that I think there is not much hope in having that, then I want to get out of public life.

Mr. President, I only want to say further that there is no serious difference between us. Apparently that word "implied", if the Chair will accept my definition of it, the implication must have gone out, because I have here from the Evening Courier of Tamaqua an editorial about these distressed districts and how it could not be avoided, and some of the steps that were taken by specific districts to remedy their trouble, and I have an editorial from the Pottsville Journal, both of them of August 16, in which the Journal goes at considerable length to set forth the inevitability of these distresses in coal counties where the supply is being depleted, and I would suggest or request that these editorials be made a part of the record.

EVENING COURIER

"Unfair Attack

"The Democratic attack upon State Senator Paul L. Wagner when he reported the $750,000 appropriation bill to the floor of the Senate for action is indeed an unfair one.

"Senator Wagner has consistently shown his interest in the educational program in general and while it is true that the Schuylkill and Northumberland areas are the ones who will principally benefit from the emergency appropriation, we who know Mr. Wagner know that he would work every bit as hard for any other distressed district.

"We ourselves agree that districts should be made to put their houses in order and so said in a recent editorial. However, we must also agree with Mr. Wagner that some action must be taken immediately to pay those teachers who have gone as long as 10 months without a paycheck.

"It is important too that the schools be opened on schedule so that the children will not lose their opportunity to attend school (much as some of them might enjoy it) and their education thus hampered. If relief is not given to guarantee the payment of the teachers' salaries there is every likelihood that the teachers would justifiably refuse to return to their classrooms.

"There are some districts which have been making consistent cut-backs in order to keep their budgets in balance. Just this year the Coaldale District has closed one building and failed to replace three teachers who resigned as a means of keeping themselves adjusted. Deceased inrollments which bring decreases in appropriations and higher costs made this action advisable and the district was prompt to take the necessary action.

"Let the appropriation be passed and the teachers be paid. Then should the Department of Public Instruction begin an earnest effort to bring about an adjustment in the budgets of the distressed districts to place them on a sound footing which they will be able to operate themselves.

POTTSVILLE JOURNAL

"THE FACTS ABOUT THE UNPAID TEACHER PROBLEM

"First of all, there can be no question about this: the unpaid school teachers of distressed districts in Schuylkill and Northumberland Counties have not been given a fair shake.

"It is neither fair nor equitable that teachers of 14 school districts in Schuylkill County should be owed $391,700 in salaries, some for as long as 10 months.

"Everybody likes to get his pay on payday and more than often the one who doesn't is faced with real inconvenience if not distress, until he is paid. To stretch out the payless period into weeks and months is aggravating an already acute condition and certainly not at all conducive to the esprit de corps or morale of the teachers.

"Now, let's look at the facts and the underlying reasons for these wholesale failures to pay salaries.

"It must be said in all fairness that school directors of the distressed districts share sincerely the dilemma of the teachers. The directors of most school districts are honorable, well-meaning people who are guided by sincere motives in guiding the administration of the schools.

"But they simply don't have the money to pay the teachers and one can't squeeze blood out of a stone.

"The underlying reasons for the distress of school districts are manifold.

"Some districts in the heyday of public school expansion built physical plants not commensurate with the needs of the districts—especially in view of the decline of the anthracite industry. It should be noted that practically all districts unable to pay teachers' salaries are in coal-producing areas. When the coal business declined, veins and mines were worked out and anthracite plants were abandoned, revenues to the school districts fell.

"But too many districts didn't retrench. The human element, always present, blocked any thought of reducing teaching staffs to make payrolls easier to meet. Some districts bluntly refused to reduced staffs until the state conditioned special appropriations on such reductions.

"Per capita taxes were not levied in sufficient amounts and when levied they were difficult to collect.

"Yellowed newspaper clippings spread out before us tell the same story—school districts were distressed years ago and they'll be distressed again. One district is reported to have received $250,000 alone in special state grants over the year.

"Some districts were distressed when the legal minimum for school teachers' salaries was half what it is now. Is it any wonder they are distressed today?

"We're glad Senator Paul Wagner is spearheading the bill to restore a deficiency appropriation to pay the teachers' salaries. The bill should be passed and the teachers should be paid.

But it comes with ill grace and bad taste for Senate Democrats from Western Pennsylvania, who can know nothing of the underlying reasons for school districts' distress, to heap unmerited criticism on county officials and the courts.

"The breast-beaters who cry 'political steal' don't know—or perhaps choose not to know—the full story. They are the one who are trying to make a political issue out of something largely economic.

"When the state which mandates minimum salaries, and dictates 90 per cent of policy and operation of school districts, decides to undertake to support the schools more fully, then all districts will be better off.

Mr. President, so far as I am concerned, Senator Haluska and I join forces to get the money wherever it needs to be gotten to pay any teachers who have to be paid, because they need it, and to see to it that there is no money wasted in any part of the Commonwealth. If that is agreeable to the gentleman from Cambria, there is no occasion for any further debate.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, on this side of the House we are quite fortunate because we have men who will prompt us and help us while the opponent is debating. In this case my good friend from Lawrence County, Senator Neff, said that my integrity is being questioned by the gentleman from Schuylkill County. I am not asking for any apology, of course, since the gentleman from Schuylkill County definitely stated I did not make that remark and that is all I wish to clarify. I did not get up and make that remark and the implication of the remark is another thing and I am satisfied to bring the case to rest temporarily, because I went to a lot of work, Mr. President, and received a lot of mail from Schuylkill County, telegrams and mail, telling me that they have finally found a hero in the State Senate. I feel very much complimented that I must come to their rescue. I give credit to the Senator from Schuylkill County for trying to defend a weak case. He did a marvelous job as a lawyer will in court—a man who is condemned to die or steals, a lawyer will argue that the man is innocent. In this case, Senator Wagner did a good job defending his county and rightfully so, but down in his heart he knows he has a weak case, and, Mr. President, I have a lot of information—I hope you can all see it across the Senate floor—coming from Schuylkill County. Did you read it, Mr. President? It is called "The Big Steal." I did not print it. I hate to put this in the record. I dislike it very much, because it involves the names of persons in this Chamber, Mr. President. If I should place in the record the letter that I have here pertaining to Schuylkill County, it will rock this Chamber. So, naturally, there is something wrong in Schuylkill County. I am not modest, really modest, but there is plenty wrong. That county has received up in the millions of dollars of deficiency appropriations due to the lack of improper administration by the County Commissioners and the powers that be.

Mr. President, as I said last week, if the balance of the Commonwealth would do likewise, a twenty per cent income tax would not pay the bill. I hope, if I have the opportunity before the Session is over, unless we adjourn tomorrow sine die, to bring to light the discrepancies in Schuylkill County, and the information that I have was sent to me by residents of Schuylkill County, good citizens who are alarmed over the situation. So, I am very happy that while I realize some of the money goes to my county and districts, that I am very happy, Senator Wagner, if I can defend my county, I would have a stronger case. You have my sympathy. You did a good job for your county. It is not your fault, but the fault of your County Commissioners and your Judges.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I think that we might just as well, since we have taken this much time, settle that other matter that was considered last Wednesday. If you will recall, I was most indignant about the statement purportedly made by former Governor Duff that he would go into Schuylkill County and investigate conditions, and some people there would go to jail. I challenged the gentleman, too, as I put it, I think, to name any person from Schuylkill County who Governor Duff ever said should go to jail or any person from Schuylkill County who might be qualified to go to jail at the present time. The Senator said he did not say Schuylkill County. He said Schuylkill-Northumberland Counties. Now, I would like to read from the transcript in the Senate on Wednesday, August 15, page 1 of the transcript, in which Senator Haluska said, "Schuylkill County is a county by itself, and just going back to the statement made by Senator Duff when he was Governor, of the remarks he made about a certain individual in Schuylkill County, and then Governor Duff said"—this does not make complete sense, but that is the way it is here—"and then Governor Duff said, 'I shall conduct an investigation and certain people shall go to jail.'" Now, Schuylkill County is the only county mentioned in that sentence, and that is why I was particularly indignant at the implication that Governor Duff missed some game in open season in my county.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, if the gentleman reads on further, I said the following. I said, "The Governor of the Commonwealth, at that time Duff, made certain charges about officials in Schuylkill County and Northumberland County." That happens to appear in the record, and I hope your copy is the same as mine.

Mr. WAGNER. Is that page 1?

Mr. HALUSKA. No, I am on another page now.

Mr. WAGNER. What page are you on, Senator?

Mr. HALUSKA. My book is not numbered, is yours?

Mr. WAGNER. Yes, it is.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise to a point of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, will state his point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, what is before the Senate?

The PRESIDENT. Petitions and Remonstrances.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to inquire if it would be possible, and I say this in all kindness, for the gentlemen to terminate their interrogatory discussion and file briefs. I say, in all fairness, I think in order to same time we should read the Journals at length hereafter and then we will find out what everybody said. I think both gentlemen have established their point. The jury has gone out to consider the case, and can't we recess the matter there and file briefs? I would like to get on with the long Calendar.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, we have sat here for eight months and done nothing, and another eight months will make very little difference in my life. I have listened to the gentleman from Allegheny County for hours; I was not interested, but I listened. I think he can do likewise.

I am trying to prove my point, because it is very important in the coming biennium as to what we are going to do, and I think it is our duty now to thrash this out. I want to answer the gentleman from Schuylkill County and then I will be through. On the page that he read from that is true. I said Schuylkill County, but then later on amended my remarks by saying Northumberland County, and if the gentleman wishes me to quote the name—I have tried to refrain from quoting names—but if he wants me to quote the name of the person who Governor Duff promised to put in jail, at his request and his request only shall I quote the name from the Senate floor.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I have no desire to have the name quoted, if the gentleman will concede, as he apparently does, that the gentleman or the person involved is not from Schuylkill County. The transcript which I read from Wednesday was Senator Haluska's original statement. I know it is amended two pages later, but it was amended after I protested and the Senator said, he said Schuylkill and Northumberland. Senator Walker reminded Senator Haluska that the Senator's original statement was just Schuylkill County, Period, and then Senator Haluska said he would amend it to include Northumberland, which about clears the air as far as I am concerned.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, may I make a suggestion as one of the jurors here? When I first came into the Senate, I thought I was a young kid in the hands of wolves, and when a brilliant lawyer would get up and say he said that the other fellow said that I said that he said, I could not understand good English so I went to Temple Law School and I learned all about what I said that he should say.

Mr. President, I suggest that anyone of our good Senators who is an ordinary layman, if he would like to go to Law School I will give him a scholarship to learn all the rules of hearsay and evidence under that brilliant professor of law, Senator Lord, who flunked me, not because I was a Democrat but because I did not have the answers, and I took a re-exam and passed it. So, when any body says he said, like the Philadelphia Inquirer said that I was waivering, I should have gotten angry and I should have hit the sky, because they said I was waivering, but that is all hearsay. Whatever is in the newspapers is hearsay until it is proven in court.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong this discussion, but I do want to read a letter that I sent to Governor Fine last Friday, and it deals with this subject.

Mr. President, when I left here last week and got home, I began to analyze some of the reports that were made available to me on this question of allocations to so-called distressed school districts, and, frankly, after making my analysis, I came to the conclusion, whether it is the right conclusion or not, but I came to the conclusion that this whole thing has reached the proportions of a racket, and although I am in sympathy with the school teachers that have not been paid in the counties that might be involved, I thought it was my duty to request the Governor to withhold allocations from the $750,000 appropriation that was made to distressed school districts until this whole matter was investigated. So, I sent the Governor a telegram and I asked him to withhold the payments, and I told him I would send him a follow-up letter in which I would request that he direct the Attorney General to make an investigation, through a grand jury or otherwise, and this is my letter, addressed to the Governor:

"Dear Governor Fine:

"Supplementing my telegram of today requesting that payments to alleged distressed school districts be withheld pending investigation by your Attorney General through a special grand jury or otherwise, please be advised that I was prompted to make this request after making an analysis of allocations made by the Department of Public Instruction to so-called distressed school districts over a period of years.

"This analysis indicates that some school districts have been receiving these allocations year after year which raises the suspicion that state funds are being loosely administered by the Department of Public Instruction and that collusion, conspiracy, fraud, mismanagement, misfeasance or malfeasance may exist.

"For example, in Northumberland County, Coal Township repudiatedly one of the wealthiest in the state with a population of between 18,000 and 19,000, a pupil enrollment of 2350 and 90 school teachers received allocations totaling $1,148,971.00 during the school years from 1943-44 to 1950-51 as follows:

"1943-44	$157,886.00
1944-45	156,250.00
1945-46	163,821.00
1946-47	167,187.00
1947-48	200,932.00
1949-50	252,895.00
1950-51	50,000.00

"Coal Township is an applicant for another allocation from the $750,000.00 deficiency appropriation approved by the Legislature this week.

"Kulpmont Boro with a population of 5,176, a pupil enrollment of 769 and 30 school teachers received allocations totaling $502,689.00 during the following years.

1945-46	49,143.00

1950-51	37,800.00

"Kulpmont Boro is an applicant for another allocation from the $750,000.00 deficiency appropriation approved by the Legislature this week.

"Mt. Carmel Boro with a population of 14,240, a pupil enrollment of 1500 and 61 school teachers received allocations totaling $569,010.00 during the following years.

1944-45	99,845.00
1945-46	89,945.00
1946-47	132,765.00
1947-48	149,318.00

"Mt. Carmel Township with a population of 4500, a pupil enrollment of 590 and 22 teachers received allocations totaling $356,304.00 during the following years.

1944-45	86,100.00
1945-46	55,691.00
1946-47	58,149.00
1947-48	68,524.00

"Mt. Carmel Township is an applicant for another allocation from the $750,000.00 deficiency appropriation approved by the Legislature this week.

"Other school districts in Northumberland County were paid sums as follows: East Cameron Township received $37,280.00 for school years 1943-44 to 1945-46 (3 years);

West Cameron Township received $46,375.00 from 1943-44 to 1946-47 (4 years); Zerbe Township received $57,785.00 from 1943-44 to 1944-45 (2 years); and Snyderstown Boro received $5,947.00 in 1948-49 and 1950-51 (2 years).

"The total paid to so-called distressed school districts in Northumberland County for the years indicated herein was $2,724,361.00.

"In Schuylkill County funds were allocated to alleged distressed school districts as follows:

"East Union Township

$18,657.00 for the year 1943-44; Treemont Township received $11,433.00 for the year 1943-44; Tower City received $36,961.00 for the two-year period 1949-51; East Norwegian Township received $56,697.00 for the two-year period 1944-45 and 1949-50; Frackville Boro received $54,548.00 for the year 1944-45; New Castle Township received $19,663.00 for the year 1947-48; Butler Township received $56,496.00 for the year 1945-46; Blythe Township received $109,069.00 for the two-year period 1947-49; Cass Township received $166,719.00 for the two-year period 1948-50; New Philadelphia Boro received $28,838.00 for the two-year period 1948-49 and 1950-51; and Delano received $16,582.00 for the year 1949-50.

"The total paid to alleged distressed school districts in Schuylkill County for the years herein indicated was $2,835,055.14.

"All of the school districts in Schuylkill County listed above are applicants for a share of the $750,000.00 appropriated by the Legislature this week.

"Some school districts in other counties are in the same category and merit scrutiny and investigation.

"In addition to the sums indicated above, the school districts listed herein were paid the regular state school subsidy based on the reimbursement fraction formula.

"I might also call your attention to the fact that an analysis of payments made during the fiscal years ending May 31, 1950 and 1951 involving 148 of the 2531 school districts amount to $1,384,600.45. Very few of these 148 school districts, at least in my opinion, could be classified as being in distress based on their tax duplicates and the amount of the tax duplicates collected.

"I am not opposed to assistance to a school district which makes an honest effort to meet its financial obligations in accordance with law and Rules and Regulations which might be in effect. However, I am opposed to handouts in the form of political patronage to some school districts at the expense of others that make an honest effort to meet their obligations.

"For example, my home school district of Bethlehem experienced a shortage of between $60,000. and $80,000. for the current school year. It did not apply to the Department of Public Instruction for a hand-out. Instead, it borrowed the amount needed from a local bank, turned over its delinquent accounts to a delinquent tax collector and is paying off the loan from collections made by the delinquent tax collector. From my analysis, many of the school districts having received a hand-out from the Department of Public Instruction could have done the same thing.

"I realize that you inherited this and other situations from your predecessor which I am confident it is your desire to adjust and eliminate.

Accordingly, I herewith request that the further allocation of funds to so-called distressed school districts be withheld pending the outcome of an inquiry by the Attorney General of Pennsylvania through a special grand jury or otherwise to determine:

"A. Whether the Department of Public Instruction is careless or negligent in the allocation of funds to so-called distressed school districts.

"Note: The Department of Public Instruction appears to be a bee-hive for inefficiency. Two years ago the Legislature was compelled to approve $100,000. to adjust a mess in the school teachers retirement fund. The recent G. I. scandal is a matter of record and now this development. What next?

"B. Whether assessments of properties are made in accordance with law and the Rules and Regulations of the Tax Equalization Board.

"C. Whether an honest effort is made by the school districts involved to collect taxes assessed.

"D. Whether favoritism, collusion or conspiracy exists relative to the exoneration of persons from the payment of school taxes.

"E. Whether taxes collected are expended in accordance with law.

"F. Whether funds of any and all types allocated by the Department of Public Instruction are expended in accordance with law.

"G. Whether collusion or conspiracy exists between school, local or county officials and property owners relative to the non-payment of taxes, the sale of property for the non-payment of taxes bought in by local or county officials and then resold to the property owner at a price less than the amount of taxes due on said property as a subterfuge to evade the payment of taxes.

H. Whether the administrative policies of the school districts involved are in accordance with law and the Rules and Regulations of the Department of Public Instruction.

"I. Whether fraud, favoritism, collusion or coercion exists involving the department of Public Instruction and local officials in the allocation and expenditure of school funds and

"J. Whether there is misfeasance or malfeasance in office involving state, school or county officials.

"Further, that the Attorney General bring such prosecutions against guilty persons as the facts of the investigation may disclose; and that such remedial legislation be prepared and enacted to eliminate for all time the questionable allocation of funds to so-called distressed school districts.

"Your cooperation will be appreciated."

"Sincerely yours,

Joseph J. Yosko."

Mr. President, I do not want to go into a long speech on this, although I probably could, but I just want to say to the people in the counties that are involved that they ought to rise up, rise up in the interest of good government and form citizens' committees and insist that the Governor direct the Attorney General to conduct local grand jury investigations and break up these rackets. Here we are, we are in Session now for eight months and we are talking about taxes and tax programs, and yet this money has been handed out in the manner in which I indicated. I say to you, Mr. President, something has got to be done, and I hope Governor Fine, who inherited this mess, will do something to break up this and other inefficiencies that exist in the State Government.

SENATE RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING THE MEN WHO HAVE GIVEN THEIR TIME AND WORK AND THE BOYS WHO HAVE COMPETED IN LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL THROUGHOUT THE COMMONWEALTH

Mr. BERGER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, August 20, 1951.

Whereas, in 1939, a movement was begun in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, by Carl E. Stotz through which boys under 13 years of age in neighborhood and in small towns might play our national game of baseball under conditions which give them the advantage of competent supervision, league competition, and adequate and safe equipment, and

Whereas, Little League Baseball has enjoyed a growth in our State and Nation through its appeal to the sportsmanship of the young players and the people of the communities until it has become one of the outstanding and wholesome interests of our people, and

Whereas, the team which has won the right to represent the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the Little League World Series starting on Tuesday, August 21, 1951, at Williamsport, Pennsylvania is the Potter-McKean team which won the final State championship game on Saturday, August 18, 1951

Now therefore be it resolved, that the Senate of Pennsylvania congratulates the men who have given their time and work, and the boys who have competed in Little League Baseball throughout the Commonwealth, and especially the Players, Coaches, and Managers of the Championship Potter-McKean team, and

Be it further resolved that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate to Tommy Bergholts, Mike Gamble, Fred Howell, Bobby Chitester, Bill Norton, Dave Cornelius, Gerald Baker, Tommy Depp, Louis Baker, Terry Shields, Joe Marzo, Van Campbell, Paul Faris, and Bert Tucher, members of the team; and to Joseph Walcott, Gerald Carley, Burton Shirey, and Cecil Gamble, managers and coaches of the Potter-McKean Championship team; and to Carl E. Stotz, the founder of Little League Baseball.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

RECALLING SENATE BILL No. 739, FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. WALKER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, August 20, 1951.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), that Senate Bill No. 739, Printer's No. 442, entitled "An act creating Mercy-Douglass State Hospital in Philadelphia County and authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to sublease said Hospital to Mercy-Douglass Hospital and providing for the management thereof by the Board of Trustees of Mercy-Douglass Hospital" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

HOUSE BILL No. 757 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call from the table House Bill No. 757, entitled:

An Act to add Article XVII to the act, approved the seventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred one (P. L. 20), entitled "Second Class City Law," by providing for the establishment of a traffic court in cities of the second class.

and move that the Senate do insist on its non-concurrence in the amendments placed in the bill by the House and that a committee of conference on the part of the Senate be appointed.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE APPOINTED ON HOUSE BILL No. 757

The PRESIDENT. The Chair announces on behalf of the President pro tempore the appointment of Messrs. FLEMING, WALKER and BARR as a committee of conference on the part of the Senate to confer with a similar committee of the House (already appointed) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to House Bill No. 757.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representative accordingly.

HOUSE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 1293

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, August 20, 1951.

Resolved, (If the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1293, Printer's No. 594, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1340), entitled "Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Act," by clarifying and extending the provisions of the act to include certain vehicles of the tractor type; and making editorial changes.

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

SENATE RESOLUTION

ATTORNEY GENERAL TO PROSECUTE PROMPTLY ALL INDIVIDUALS ACCUSED IN THE G. I. SCHOOL SCANDAL

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. YOSKO, offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, August 20, 1951.

The recent report of the "House Select Committee to Investigate the Educational, Training and Loan Guaranty Programs under the G. I. Bill on Hearings Held in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, June 4, 5 and 6, 1951" reveals many gross irregularities that are indicative of negligence, fraud, and malfeasance on the part of the State Board of Private Trade Schools, its predecessor—The State Board for Vocational Education—and the inspectors of the Department of Public Instruction.

The aforesaid report sets forth the following inclusions:

1. P. L. 346, 78th Congress, as amended, gives the State total authority to approve and disapprove schools for veterans' training under any standards and regulations the State may establish.

2. Authority to approve schools for veterans' training in the State of Pennsylvania was vested in the Department of Public Instruction. All inspections and recommendations were made by fulltime staff members of the Department of Public Instruction and passed on initially by the State Board for Vocational Education and later by the State Board of Private Trade Schools.

3. School operators testified that it was common knowledge that "gifts" or "money" was required to secure action by the inspectors of the Department of Public Instruction.

4. An inspector for the Department of Public Instruction admitted receiving $100 from a prospective school operator.

5. The Chief of the Division of Private Trade School Registration admitted that:

a. He received gifts from school operators such as porch furniture, brief case, portable radio, liquor, meat block, lamp, picture, chair, etc.

b. His wife solicited private school operators in the name of a church organ fund and received $4,000 in contributions from private school operators.

c. He purchased two new automobiles from an operator of a chain of private trade schools who also owned an automobile agency. These purchases were made at a time when new automobiles were scarce. These purchases of new automobiles were made under conditions unusually favorable to the State official.

6. The Chief of the Division of Private Trade School Registration invested in a private trade school in Wheeling, West Virginia which was approved to train veterans. This school was initially owned in partnership with three professors of the University of Pittsburgh. The school was organized later as a corporation and one-fifth interest in the school was transferred to an operator of several large private trade schools in the Pittsburgh area. The private school operator undertook the management of the school and increased its enrollment from 69 to approximately 400 students, practically all being veteran students. The Chief of the Division of Private Trade School Registration was directed by his superior to dispose of his interest in the school and he placed his stock in his wife's name and continued to attend board meetings.

Two contracts were negotiated by the school with the Veterans Administration based on "cost data" which included salaries for the three university professors allocated to "teaching." Evidence was developed to indicate that these persons were full-time employed by the University of Pittsburgh and made no significant contribution to instruction in the school.

A contract officer in the Veterans Administration Regional Office, Pittsburgh, objected to allowing instructional salaries for the three university professors and was overruled by his supervisor and the Chief, Training Facilities Unit. The Contract Supervisor and the Chief, Training Facilities, were later hired by the private school operator at substantial increases of salary.

7. A review of the records of the school indicates that on an initial investment of $4,000 the Chief of the Division of Private Trade School Registration, the three University of Pittsburgh professors and the private school operator who was associated with them received payments for salaries, dividends and expenses of approximately $136,871.06 from the school.

8. An investigation of the school indicated that serious deficiencies existed in the operation of the school.

9. As a result of involvement with operators of private schools and resulting from a lack of action on the part of responsible State officials, a large number of the private trade schools of Pennsylvania, many of which apparently should not have been approved in the first instance, have become seriously involved in criminal and administrative difficulties.

Twenty-one (21) persons have been indicted, sixty-three (63) legal cases are pending, one hundred and thirty-three (133) audits have been made by the General Accounting Office and the Veterans Administration and exception has been taken to approximately $2,625,232 in payments to these schools.

The violation of a public trust is always a serious impairment of a relationship between the State and its agencies that—ordinarily—should never be impugned. Nevertheless, whenever breaches of this ethical and legal association have been exposed, drastic and punitive measures must be invoked to correct conditions repugnant to the political conscience of all citizens. Therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate urgently request the Governor to dismiss summarily from office those individuals who have contributed to the shocking incidents of dereliction and fraudulent conduct in connection with educational, training, and loan guaranty programs under the G. I. Bill, and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate advise the Attorney General to prosecute promptly and diligently all individuals against whom the facts warrant decisive legal action.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object to the immediate consideration of the resolution.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Rules.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. LETZLER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. LETZLER read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 835, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the twelfth day of April, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. 90), entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors, alcohol and male and brewed beverages; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto; regulating and restricting the manufacture, purchase, sale, possession, consumption, importation, transportation, furnishing, holding in bond, holding in storage, traffic in and use of alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages and the persons engaged or employed therein; defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores, for the payment of certain licenses fees to the respective municipalities and townships, for the abatement of certain nuisances and, in certain cases, for search and seizure without warrant; prescribing penalties and forfeitures; providing for local option, and repealing existing laws," by increasing license and filing fees.

Which was committed to the Committee on Law and Order.

HOUSE BILL No. 1449 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call from the table House Bill No. 1449. For the information of the gentlemen of the Senate, last week we passed House Bill No. 1449, and I find that there is an error in the title, and rather than send it over to the House and have the bill recalled, I would like to recall it at this point in order to get the amendments in it.

RECONSIDERATION OF HOUSE BILL No. 1449

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 1449, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Act Number 141), entitled "The Mental Health Act of 1951," by further defining "qualified physician" and "medical examiner," passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I voted with the majority.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I voted with the majority. The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I voted with the majority.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I voted with the majority. The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to have the bill appear on tomorrow's Third Reading Calendar.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 7:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

Section 13 Paragraph C of Section seven hundred eight of said act as added by the act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1773) is hereby further amended to read as follows

C The statement shall be delivered to the Department of State within thirty days after the adoption of the resolution aforesaid. If the Department of State finds that the statement conforms to law it shall endorse its approval thereon [shall file the statement and] shall issue to the corporation or its representative [a copy of] the approved statement and shall make and retain a copy thereof. If the resolution aforesaid provided for a reduction in the number of shares which the corporation is authorized to issue the [filing] approval of such statement shall operate as an amendment to the articles of the corporation and shall reduce the number of shares of the class so cancelled which the corporation is authorized to issue by the number of shares so cancelled otherwise the shares so cancelled shall upon such [filing] approval have the status of authorized but unissued shares. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit a reduction of authorized capital stock or a reduction of stated capital in any other manner permitted by this act.

Section 14 Section eight hundred eight of said act as last amended by the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 139) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 808 Filing of Articles of Amendment. The articles of amendment proof of the advertisement heretofore required in this article shall be delivered by the corporation or its representative to the Department of State. If the Department of State finds that such articles conform to law it shall upon payment of the filing fee forthwith but not prior to the day specified in the advertisement required by the preceding section endorse its approval thereon [and] shall [file the articles and] issue to the corporation or its representative a certificate of amendment to which shall be attached [a copy of] the approved articles and shall make and retain a copy thereof.

Section 15 Article eight of said act is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new section to read as follows:

Section 810 Rights of Dissenting Shareholders. A If any amendment to the articles of a corporation shall limit or deny any preemptive right of any outstanding shares the holder of any outstanding shares affected adversely by such amendment who shall have filed with the corporation prior to or at the meeting of shareholders at which the proposed amendment was submitted to a vote written objection to such proposed amendment and shall not have voted in favor thereof and who within twenty days after the effective date of the amendment shall also make written demand on the corporation for the payment of the fair value of his shares as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the amendment without regard to any depreciation or appreciation thereof in consequence of the amendment shall be paid by the corporation the fair value of his shares upon surrender of the share certificate or certificates representing his shares. The demand of the shareholder shall state the number and class of the shares owned by him. Unless a shareholder files such written objection and also makes such demand within the twenty-day period he shall be conclusively presumed to have consented to the amendment and shall be bound by the terms thereof. If within thirty days after the date on which such amendment became effective the value of such shares shall be agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the corporation payment thereof shall be made in cash within ninety days after the date on which such amendment became effective upon the surrender of the share certificate or certificates representing his shares. Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation.

B If within such period of thirty days the shareholder and the corporation do not so agree then the dissenting shareholder may within sixty days after the expiration of the thirty-day period apply by petition to the court of common pleas in equity within the county in which the registered office of the corporation is situated for the appointment by the court of three disinterested persons to appraise the fair value of his shares without regard to any depreciation or appreciation thereof in consequence of the amendment. The award of the appraisers or of a majority of them shall be submitted to the court for determination and the judgment of the court thereon shall be final and conclusive. The costs of such appraisal including a reasonable fee to the appraisers shall be fixed by the court and shall be borne by the corporation unless in the opinion of the court the action of any shareholder in refusing the offer of the corporation has been arbitrary, vexatious or in bad faith in which case the costs shall be assessed in the discretion of the court. The award shall be payable only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the share certificate or certificates representing the shares of the dissenting shareholder. If the award shall not be paid by the corporation within thirty days after the order of the court thereon the amount of the award shall be a judgment against the corporation and may be collected as other judgments in such court are by law collectible. Upon the payment of the award or judgment the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation. Such shares may be held and disposed of by the corporation as it may see fit. Unless the dissenting shareholder shall file a petition within the time herein limited such shareholder and all persons claiming under him shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the amendment and shall be bound by the terms thereof.

C The rights and remedies at law or in equity of any shareholder who desires to object to or to dissent from any such amendment shall be limited to those prescribed under this section and such rights and remedies under this section shall be exclusive.

D Whenever any such amendment is proposed a copy of this Section 810 shall be enclosed with the written notice mentioned in Section 803 of this act and said written notice shall state that Section 810 sets forth the exclusive rights and remedies of shareholders who would be affected adversely by the proposed amendment and who object thereto.

E The provisions of this section shall apply only to those business corporations which are or may become subject to the provisions of this act but which were not incorporated hereunder.

Section 16 Paragraph B of Section nine hundred two of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1773) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

B The board of directors of each domestic corporation upon approving such plan of merger or plan of consolidation shall by resolution direct that the plan be submitted to a vote of the shareholders of such corporation entitled to vote thereon at an annual or special meeting of the shareholders. Written notice shall not less than ten days before such annual or special meeting be given to each shareholder of record of such corporation whether or not entitled to vote on such plan unless the plan of merger or plan of consolidation contemplates [an increase in the aggregate of the authorized capital stock of the constituent corporations] that the aggregate par value or aggregate authorized number of shares of the surviving or new corporation shall be so increased over the aggregate par value or aggregate authorized number of shares of a domestic corporation party to such plan that the increase if effectuated by amendment to the articles of incorporation of such corporation would necessitate a meeting of shareholders called on sixty days' notice under Section 8 E of this act in which event sixty days' notice of such meeting shall be given to each shareholder of each such domestic corporation. The notice shall state the place, day, hour and purpose of the meeting and a copy or a summary of the plan of merger or plan of consolidation as the case may be shall be included in or enclosed with such notice.

Section 17 Sections nine hundred four and nine hundred five of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1773) are hereby further amended to read as follows

THIRD READING CALENDAR

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 134, as follows:

An Act to amend further Section 5 of the act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six (P. L. 551) entitled "An act relating to roads highways and bridges" as amended by extending the width of a public road in the instance of multiple lane highways to increase the maximum width by the additional footage that shall be necessary in the judgment of the Secretary of Highways for center or dividing strips

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section 5 of the act approved the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six (P. L. 551) entitled "An act relating to roads highways and bridges" as last amended by the act approved the sixth day of August one thousand nine hundred and forty-one (P. L. 890) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 5 The breadth of a private road shall not in any case exceed twenty-five feet and the width of a public road shall not be less than thirty-three feet nor more than one hundred and twenty feet except that whenever the right of way for a public highway has been acquired solely by the Federal government the maximum width thereof may be two hundred feet and except in the instance of multiple lane highways the maximum width shall be one hundred and twenty feet plus any additional footage that shall be necessary in the judgment of the Secretary of Highways for center or dividing strips between the multiple roadways Provided That the limits of width shall not be construed to include the width required for necessary slopes in cuts or fills when the limits of the road and the extra width required for such slopes exceed the limits of width herein specified but no appropriation of property as width required only for slopes shall be construed to prevent the owner from making any use of his property which is not inconsistent with the necessary support or protection of the highway all viewers shall hereafter be required to take into consideration the qualified nature of the easement in proceedings to assess damages for the taking of land for highway purposes And provided further That when the public road desired to be opened is in a built up section of any township of the second class of the type commonly known as an alley and is not an integral part of a through route the minimum width shall be fifteen feet And provided further That where the breadth of a public road shall hereafter be fixed at more than one hundred and twenty feet and the right of way of such public highway has been acquired solely by the Federal government and it shall become necessary to move or relocate any public service facilities the cost and expenses incident to such removal or relocation shall be paid by the Federal Government

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Such tolls shall not be subject to supervision or regulation by any other State commission board bureau or agency. The tolls and all other revenues derived from the turnpike except such part thereof as may be required to pay the cost of maintaining repairing and operating the turnpike and to provide such reserves therefor as may be provided for in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds notes or other obligations or in the trust indenture shall be set aside at such regular intervals as may be provided in such resolution or such trust indenture in a sinking fund which is hereby pledged to and charged with the payment of (1) the interest upon such bonds notes or other obligations as such interest shall fall due (2) the principal of the bonds notes or other obligations as the same shall fall due (3) the necessary fiscal agency charges for paying principal and interest and (4) any premium upon bonds retired by call or purchase as herein provided. The use and disposition of such sinking fund shall be subject to such regulations as may be provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds notes or other obligations or in the trust indenture but except as may otherwise be provided in such resolution or trust indenture such sinking fund shall be a fund for the benefit of all bonds notes or other obligations issued hereunder without distinction or priority of one over another. Subject to the provisions of the resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds notes or other obligations or of the trust indenture any moneys in such sinking fund in excess of an amount equal to one year's interest on all bonds notes or other obligations then outstanding may be applied to the purchase or redemption of bonds notes or other obligations. All bonds notes or other obligations so purchased or redeemed shall forthwith be cancelled and shall not again be issued.

Section 16 The Commission is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of turnpike revenue refunding bonds of the Commonwealth for the purpose of refunding any turnpike revenue bonds notes or other obligations issued under the provisions of this act and then outstanding. The issuance of such turnpike revenue refunding bonds the maturities and other details thereof the rights of the holders thereof and the duties of the Commonwealth and of the Commission in respect to the same shall be governed by the foregoing provisions of this act in so far as the same may be applicable and by the following provisions:

(a) No turnpike revenue refunding bonds shall be delivered unless delivered in exchange for turnpike revenue bonds notes or other obligations to be refunded thereby except in the amount necessary to provide for the payment of matured or redeemable turnpike revenue bonds notes or other obligations or turnpike revenue bonds notes or other obligations maturing or redeemable within three months including any redemption premium thereon.

(b) No turnpike revenue refunding bonds shall be issued unless issued to refund turnpike revenue bonds notes or other obligations which have matured or will mature within three months or unless the interest rate of the turnpike revenue refunding bonds shall be at least one-fourth of one per centum less than the interest rate borne by the turnpike revenue bonds notes or other obligations to be refunded.

Section 17 Any holder of bonds notes or other obligations issued under the provisions of this act or any of the coupons attached thereto and the trustee under the trust indenture if any except to the extent the rights herein given may be restricted by resolution passed before the issuance of the bonds notes or other obligations or by the trust indenture may either at law or in equity by suit action mandamus or other proceedings protect and enforce any and all rights granted hereunder or under such resolution or trust indenture and may enforce and compel performance of all duties required by this act or by such resolution or trust indenture to be performed by the commission or any officer thereof including the fixing charging and collecting of tolls for the use of the turnpike.

Section 18 When all bonds notes or other obligations and the interest thereon shall have been paid or sufficient amount for the payment of all bonds notes or other obligations and the interest to maturity thereon shall have been set aside in trust for the benefit of the holders of such bonds notes or other obligations and shall continue to be held for that purpose the turnpike and the connecting roads tunnels and bridges shall become a part of the system of State highways and shall be maintained by the Department of Highways free of tolls and thereupon the Commission shall be dissolved and all funds of the Commission not required for the payment of the bonds notes or other obligations and all machinery equipment and other property belonging to the Commission shall be vested in the Department of Highways.

Section 19 The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing. Such sections being necessary for the welfare of the Commonwealth and its inhabitants shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof.

Section 20 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction the decision of such court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein.

Section 21 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Section 22 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

(f) The turnpike when completed and opened to traffic shall be maintained and repaired by and under the control of the Commission through the Department of Highways of the Commonwealth and all charges and costs for such maintenance and repairs actually expended by said Department of Highways shall be paid to it by the Commission upon certification thereof out of tolls Such turnpike shall also be policed and operated by such force of police tolltakers and other operating employees as the Commission may in its discretion employ

(g) The Commission shall have authority at its own cost to provide grade separations with respect to all public roads and State highways intersected by the turnpike and to change and adjust the lines and grades thereof so as to accommodate the same to the design of such grade separation. Provided however That the damages incurred in changing and adjusting the lines and grades of such public roads and State highways shall be ascertained and paid by the Commission in the same manner as is provided for by this act in regard to the location and construction of the turnpike.

(h) If the Commission shall find it necessary to provide a grade separation or change the site of any portion of any State highway or public road or vacate the same it shall cause it to be reconstructed and restored forthwith at the Commission's own proper expense on the most favorable location and in as satisfactory a manner as the original road or vacate it as the case may be. Provided That the method of acquiring the right-of-way and determining damages incurred in changing the location of or vacating such road or State highway shall be ascertained and paid for by the Commission in the same manner as is provided for by this act in regard to the location and construction of the turnpike. In such cases the plan of such reconstruction and restoration or vacation shall be submitted to the supervisors of the proper township for approval and in the event of failure of the supervisors to approve the plan then it shall be submitted to the Department of Highways for final approval. In the case of State highways the plan shall be submitted to the Department of Highways for its approval.

(i) The Commission shall also have authority to petition the court of quarter sessions of the county wherein is situate any public road or part thereof affected by the location therein of the turnpike for the vacation, relocation or supply of the same or any part thereof with the same force and effect as is now given by existing laws to the inhabitants of any township of such county and the proceedings upon such petition whether it be for the appointment of viewers or otherwise shall be the same as provided by existing law for similar proceedings upon such petitions.

(j) The Commission shall also have authority to petition and perform all of the duties prescribed by the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 774) and any supplements or amendments thereto.

(k) Adequate compensation shall be made by the Commission out of funds provided under the authority of this act for damages to all public or private property taken injured or destroyed in carrying out the powers granted by this act or such property may be restored or repaired and placed in its original condition as nearly as practicable as the Commission may deem it expedient in any particular case.

Section 7 (a) Each member of the Commission shall be reimbursed for the necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the duties performed under the provisions of this act.

(b) All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid solely from funds provided under the authority of this act and sufficient funds shall be provided under the authority of this act to meet any liability or obligation incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act.

(c) Before the issuance of any turnpike revenue bonds notes or other obligations under the provisions of this act each appointed member of the commission shall execute a bond in the penalty of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) and the secretary and treasurer shall execute a bond in the penalty of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) each such bond to be approved by the Governor and to be conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office under the provisions of this act which bonds shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth. Provided however That if the turnpike as defined in this act shall be designated by the commission as part of the Pennsylvania Turnpike System as provided in the act approved the ..... day of ..... one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one (Act No. ....) the bonds provided for under this section shall no longer be required and if previously delivered may be cancelled.

Section 8 (a) The Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to condemn by resolution any lands interest in lands property rights rights of way franchises easements and other property deemed necessary or convenient for the construction and efficient operation of the turnpike or necessary in the restoration or relocation of public or private property damaged or destroyed and the date of such resolution shall be the effective date of condemnation.

(b) The Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire by purchase whenever it shall deem such purchase expedient any lands interests in lands property right rights of way franchises easements and other property deemed necessary or convenient for the construction and efficient operation of the turnpike or necessary in the restoration or relocation of public or private property damaged or destroyed whether the same had theretofore been condemned or otherwise upon such terms and at such price as may be considered by it to be reasonable and can be agreed upon between the Commission and the owner thereof and to take title thereto in the name of the Commission.

Section 9 (a) Whenever a reasonable sum representing the damages cannot be agreed upon or whenever the owner is legally incapacitated or unable to convey valid title or is absent or unknown either the Commission acting through the Department of Justice or any owner or owners shall apply to the court of common pleas of the county in which the property is located or in the case of property located in two or more counties then in any one of such counties for the appointment of viewers to determine as hereinafter provided the amount of damages resulting from the taking. Whereupon said court or any law judge thereof shall appoint three disinterested freeholders to view such property and estimate the value thereof. None of the freeholders shall be a resident of the county wherein such application shall be made. The court shall fix a time not less than twenty nor more than thirty days thereafter when the viewers shall meet upon the property and view the same. The viewers shall cause at least ten days' personal notice of the time and place of such meeting to be given to the Attorney General to the Commission and to the owner or owners if resident within said county. If the owner is a corporation such notice shall be given to the president secretary or treasurer thereof if such officer resides within said county. If neither owner nor any of such officers reside within the county or cannot be found therein or is unknown notice of such first meeting shall be given as the court may direct. The viewers having been duly sworn or affirmed faithfully and impartially to perform the duties required of them under the provisions of this act shall at the time fixed for the first meeting proceed to ascertain as accurately as may be the value of such land property rights rights of way easements or franchises and to that end may require the attendance of any person whose testimony may be pertinent thereto and production of any such books or papers as the viewers may deem necessary if any person shall refuse to appear and testify before such viewers or refuse to produce such books and papers when they are required then the court or any judge thereof shall on application of the viewers or a quorum thereof make such order therein as may be necessary. Whenever the viewers shall have ascertained the value of the lands property rights right of way easements or franchise they shall prepare a full report of their labors. Upon the completion of the report the viewers shall fix a time when they shall meet and exhibit same. Ten days written notice of the time and place of such meeting together with a copy of said report shall be given to the Commission to the Attorney General and to the owner or owners of the property condemned. At the time and place mentioned in such notice the viewers shall meet and publicly exhibit the report and hear all exceptions thereto. After making any changes in such report as they may deem necessary the same shall be filed in the court. Within thirty days after the filing of the report in the court the Commission acting through the Department of Justice or any person interested may file exceptions thereto Whereupon the court shall either confirm the report absolutely or modify it or refer it back to the same or to any viewers with like powers and duties of the former viewers Within thirty days after the final action on the report by the court the Commission acting through the Department of Justice or any person interested may demand a trial by jury From the action of the court on exceptions or from any judgment after a jury trial an appeal may be taken by any party to the Supreme or Superior Court Each of the viewers shall receive a sum not exceeding ten dollars for each day actually and necessarily employed in the performance of the duties herein prescribed and all necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of his duties Title to any property condemned by the Commission shall be taken in the name of the Commission Prior to physical entry upon the land the Commission shall be under no obligation to accept and pay for any property condemned or any costs incidental to any condemnation proceedings Provided, however That in any condemnation proceedings the court having jurisdiction of the suit action or proceeding may make such orders as may be just to the commission and to the owners of the property to be condemned and may require an undertaking or other security to secure such owners against any loss or damage by reason of the failure of the Commission to enter upon accept and pay for the property but neither such undertaking or security nor any act or obligation of the Commission shall impose any liability upon the Commonwealth except such as may be paid from the funds provided under the authority of this act

The Commission in its discretion may vacate any portion or all of the land condemned either prior to or after physical entry upon the land or any part thereof and prior to final determination of damages In such cases the Commission shall be under no obligation to accept and pay for any property condemned and subsequently vacated Provided however That in any case the court having jurisdiction of the suit action or proceeding may make such orders as may be just to the Commission and to the owners of the property and may require an undertaking or other security to secure such owners against any and all loss or damages occasioned to the owner from the time of the original condemnation to the time of the modification thereof but neither such undertaking or security nor any act or obligation of the Commission shall impose any liability upon the Commonwealth except such as may be paid from the funds provided under the authority of this act

(b) In addition to the foregoing powers the Commission and its authorized agents and employes may enter upon any lands waters and premises in the State for the purpose of making surveys soundings drillings and examinations as it may deem necessary or convenient for the purpose of this act and such entry shall not be deemed a trespass nor shall an entry for such purposes be deemed an entry under any condemnation proceedings which may be then pending Provided however That the Commission shall make reimbursement for any actual damages resulting to such lands waters and premises as a result of such activities

(c) All counties cities boroughs townships and other political subdivisions and municipalities and all public agencies and commissions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania notwithstanding any contrary provision of law are hereby authorized and empowered to lease lend grant or convey to the Commission upon its request upon such terms and conditions as the proper authorities of such counties cities boroughs townships other political subdivisions and municipalities or public agencies and commissions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania may deem reasonable and fair and without the necessity for any advertisement order of court or other action or formality other than the regular and formal action of the authorities concerned any real property which may be necessary or convenient to the effectuation of the authorized purposes of the Commission including public roads and other real property already devoted to public use

Section 10 Whenever the Commission has condemned any lands rights of way easements and franchises or interests therein as hereinbefore provided and has tendered a bond or other security to secure the owner or owners for damages and the same has been accepted or if the acceptance of said bond has been refused and the same has been filed in and approved by the court of common pleas of the county in which the property is located or in the case of property located in two or more counties then in any one of such counties the Commission shall have the right to immediate possession of the property covered by the bond and may enter thereon in the name of the Commission If the owner lessee or occupier of any of said premises or any building or structure thereon shall refuse to remove his personal property therefrom or give up possession thereof the Commission may proceed to obtain possession in the manner now provided by law for the obtaining possession by the Secretary of Highways of occupied structures

Section 11 (a) The Commission is hereby authorized to provide by resolution at one time or from time to time for the issuance of turnpike revenue bonds of the Commonwealth for the purpose of paying the cost as hereinabove defined of the turnpike which resolution shall recite an estimate of such cost. The principal and interest of such bonds shall be payable solely from revenues of the Commission including tolls or from such funds as may be available to the Commission for that purpose The bonds shall be dated shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding six per centum per annum payable semi-annually shall mature at such time or times not exceeding forty years from their date or dates as may be determined by the Commission and may be made redeemable before maturity at the option of the Commission at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the Commission prior to the issuance of the bonds Provided however That the amount of premium on any bonds shall not cause the yield to be more than six per centum per annum from the date of such bonds to the date of their redemption The bonds may be issued in series with varying provisions as to rates of interest maturity and other provisions not inconsistent with this act but all bonds of whatever series shall share ratably in the tolls hereinafter pledged as security thereof The principal and interest of such bonds may be made payable in any lawful medium The Commission shall determine the form of bonds including any interest coupons to be attached thereto and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest thereof which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the Commonwealth The bonds shall bear the facsimile signatures of the Governor and of the chairman of the Commission and the facsimile of the official seal of the Commission shall be affixed thereto and attested by the secretary and treasurer of the Commission and any coupons attached thereto shall bear the facsimile signature of the chairman of the Commission In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery All turnpike revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall have and are hereby declared to have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the negotiable instruments law of the Commonwealth The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form or both as the Commission may determine and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bond as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest and registered and coupon bonds shall be interchangeable The Commission may sell such bonds in such manner and for such price as it may determine to be for the best interest of the Commonwealth but no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than six per centum per annum computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values. The proceeds of such bonds shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the turnpike and shall be disbursed upon requisition of the chairman of the Commission under such restrictions if any as the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the trust indenture hereinafter mentioned may provide. If the proceeds of such bonds by error of calculation or otherwise shall be less than the cost of the turnpike additional bonds may in like manner be issued to provide the amount of such deficit and unless otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or in the trust indenture shall be deemed to be of the same issue and shall be entitled to payment from the same fund without preference or priority of the bonds first issued. If the proceeds of the bonds shall exceed the cost of the turnpike the surplus shall be paid into the fund hereinafter provided for the payment of principal and interest of such bonds. Prior to the preparation of definite bonds the Commission may under like restrictions issue temporary bonds with or without coupons exchangeable for definitive bonds upon the issuance of the latter. The Commission may also provide for the replacement of any bond which shall become mutilated or be destroyed or lost. Such turnpike revenue bonds may be issued without any other proceedings or the happening of any other conditions or things than those proceedings conditions and things which are specified and required by this act.

Such bonds are hereby made securities in which all State and municipal officers and administrative departments boards and commissions of the Commonwealth all banks bankers savings banks trust companies saving and loan associations investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business all insurance companies insurance associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business and all administrators executors guardians trustees and other fiduciaries and all other persons whatsoever who now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in bonds or other obligations of the Commonwealth may properly and legally invest any funds including capital belonging to them or within their control and said bonds are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any State or municipal officers or agency of the Commonwealth for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds or other obligations of the Commonwealth is now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

(b) The Commission is hereby authorized to borrow money from time to time at an interest rate not exceeding six per centum per annum to provide for preliminary or interim financing up to but not exceeding the estimated total cost of the turnpike and to evidence such borrowing by the issuance of turnpike revenue notes or other revenue obligations of the Commonwealth and in its discretion to pledge as collateral for such notes or other obligations turnpike revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this act and to renew any such notes or other obligations from time to time and the payment or retirement of such notes or other obligations shall be considered to be payment of the cost of such project. All such notes or other obligations shall be executed by the same persons in the same manner and with the same effect as provided herein for the execution of revenue bonds. All such notes or other obligations shall contain a statement on their face that the Commonwealth is not obligated to pay the same or interest thereon except from revenues of the Commission including tolls or from such funds as may be available to the Commission for that purpose and that the faith and credit of the Commonwealth is not pledged to the payment of the principal or interest of such notes or other obligations. The issuance of turnpike notes or other obligations under the provisions of this act shall not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the Commonwealth to levy or to pledge any form of taxation therefor or make any appropriation for their payment.

All state and municipal officers and administrative departments boards and commissions of the Commonwealth all banks bankers savings banks trust companies saving and loan associations investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business all insurance companies insurance associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business may properly and legally invest any funds including capital belonging to them or within their control in such notes or other obligations or loan any such funds and accept as evidence of the same such notes or other obligations.

All such notes or other obligations shall have and are hereby declared to have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the negotiable instruments law of the Commonwealth.

Section 12 All moneys received from any bonds notes or other obligations issued pursuant to this act shall be applied solely to the payment of the cost of the turnpike or to the appurtenant fund and there shall be and hereby is created and granted a lien upon such moneys until so applied in favor of holders of such bonds notes or other obligations or the trustee hereinafter provided for in respect of such bonds notes or other obligations.

Section 13 In the discretion of the Commission such bonds notes or other obligations may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the Commission and a corporate trustee which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or outside of the Commonwealth. Such trust indenture may pledge or assign tolls and revenue to be received but shall not convey or mortgage the turnpike or any part thereof. Either the resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds notes or other obligations or such trust indenture may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders or holders of notes or other obligations as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law including covenants setting forth the duties of the Commission in relation to the acquisition of properties and the construction maintenance operation and repair and insurance of the turnpike and the custody safeguarding and application of all moneys. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth to act as depository of the proceeds of bonds notes or other obligations or revenues and to furnish such indemnity bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the Commission. Such indenture may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders or holders of notes or other obligations and of the trustee and may restrict the individual right of action of bondholders or holders of notes or other obligations as is customary in trust indentures securing bonds debentures of corporation notes or other obligations. In addition to the foregoing such trust indenture may contain such other provisions as the Commission may deem reasonable and proper for the security of bondholders or holders of notes or other obligations. All expenses incurred in carrying out such trust indenture may be treated as part of the cost of maintenance operation and repair of the turnpike.

Section 14 The accomplishment by the Commission of the authorized purposes stated in this act being for the benefit of the people of the Commonwealth and for the improvement of their commerce and prosperity in which accomplishment the Commission will be performing essential governmental functions the Commission shall not be required to pay any taxes or assessments on any property acquired or used by it for the purposes provided in this act and the bonds notes or other obligations issued by the Commission their transfer and the income therefrom including any profits made on the sale thereof shall at all times be free from taxation within the Commonwealth.

Section 15 The Commission is hereby authorized to fix and to revise from time to time tolls for the use of the turnpike and the different parts or sections thereof and to charge and collect the same and to contract with any person partnership association or corporation desiring the use of any part thereof including the right of way adjoining the paved portion for placing thereon telephone telegraph electric light or power lines gas stations garages stores hotels restaurants and advertising signs or for any other purpose except for tracks for railroad or railway use and to fix the terms conditions rents and rates of charges for such use Such tolls shall be so fixed and adjusted as to provide a fund at least sufficient with other revenues of the turnpike if any to pay (a) the cost of maintaining repairing and operating the turnpike and (b) the bonds notes or other obligations and the interest thereon and all sinking fund requirements and other requirements provided by the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds notes or other obligations or by the trust indenture as the same shall become due Such tolls shall not be subject to supervision or regulation by any other State commission board bureau or agency The tolls and all other revenues derived from the turnpike except such part thereof as may be required to pay the cost of maintaining repairing and operating the turnpike and to provide such reserves therefor as may be provided for in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds notes or other obligations or in the trust indenture shall be set aside at such regular intervals as may be provided in such resolution or such trust indenture in a sinking fund which is hereby pledged to and charged with the payment of (1) the interest upon such bonds notes or other obligations as such interest shall fall due (2) the principal of the bonds notes or other obligations as the same shall fall due (3) the necessary fiscal agency charges for paying principal and interest and (4) any premium upon bonds retired by call or purchase as herein provided The use and disposition of such sinking fund shall be subject to such regulations as may be provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds notes or other obligations or in the trust indenture but except as may otherwise be provided in such resolution or trust indenture such sinking fund shall be a fund for the benefit of all bonds notes or other obligations issued hereunder without distinction or priority of one over another Subject to the provisions of the resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds notes or other obligations or of the trust indenture any moneys in such sinking fund in excess of an amount equal to one year's interest on all bonds notes or other obligations then outstanding may be applied to the purchase or redemption of bonds notes or other obligations All bonds notes or other obligations so purchased or redeemed shall forthwith be cancelled and shall not again be issued

Section 16 The Commission is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of turnpike revenue refunding bonds of the Commonwealth for the purpose of refunding any turnpike revenue bonds notes or other obligations issued under the provisions of this act and then outstanding The issuance of such turnpike revenue refunding bonds the maturities and other details thereof the rights of the holders thereof and the duties of the Commonwealth and of the Commission in respect to the same shall be governed by the foregoing provisions of this act in so far as the same may be applicable

Section 17 Any holder of bonds notes or other obligations issued under the provisions of this act or any of the coupons attached thereto and the trustee under the trust indenture if any except to the extent he rights herein given may be restricted by resolution passed before the issuance of the bonds notes or other obligations or by the trust indenture may either at law or in equity by suit action mandamus or other proceedings protect and enforce any and all rights granted hereunder or under such resolution or trust indenture and may enforce and compel performance of all duties required by this act or by such resolution or trust indenture to be performed by the commission or any officer thereof including the fixing charging and collecting of tolls for the use of the turnpike

Section 18 When all bonds notes or other obligations and the interest thereon shall have been paid or a sufficient amount for the payment of all bonds notes or other obligations and the interest to maturity thereon shall have been set aside in trust for the benefit of the holders of such bonds notes or other obligations and shall continue to be held for that purpose the turnpike and the connecting roads tunnels and bridges shall become a part of the system of State highways and shall be maintained by the Department of Highways free of tolls and thereupon the

Commission shall be dissolved and all funds of the Commission not required for the payment of the bonds notes or other obligations and all machinery equipment and other property belonging to the Commission shall be vested in the Department of Highways

Section 19 The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing Such sections being necessary for the welfare of the Commonwealth and its inhabitants shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof

Section 20 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction the decision of such court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein

Section 21 The act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1050) and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

Section 22 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. COOPER and MIHM. HOUSE BILL No. 1680.

An Act to further amend the act, approved the fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 198), entitled "An act to establish a county court for the county of Allegheny and prescribing its powers and duties; regulating the procedure therein, and providing for the expenses thereof," by conferring exclusive jurisdiction on the county court of Allegheny County in cases of appeals from decisions of the collector of mercantile taxes imposed by political subdivisions within the territorial limits of its jurisdiction.

Referred to the Committee on Cities and County—Second Class.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 28, entitled:

An Act to further amend section 703 of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 1206), entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class; amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by changing the compensation paid to township commissioners.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 240, entitled:

An Act to amend section two thousand five hundred nine of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial school amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by increasing reimbursement on account of courses for handicapped children

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know what this bill in its present form will cost.

Mr. BEECH. Mr. Speaker, this bill merely increases the amount appropriated by the state to the various school districts for handicapped children.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know what the overall cost of the appropriations in the two categories would be?

Mr. BEECH. I cannot answer that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Then I would suggest Mr. Speaker, that when the bill has passed second reading it be placed upon the postponed calendar until the gentleman can answer.

Mr. BEECH. That is O. K., Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section and title were separately read and agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, after this bill passes second reading it goes to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am of the opinion that there should be some definite information as to the size of the bill that we are sending to the Committee on Appropriations, so that we can have something with which to guide ourselves when the Committee reports as to how much it has cut the figures, what the figure is. So I would still suggest that until it is known what the bill in its present form would cost, we do not send it to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Cambria that was the agreement in the Committee on Education when it was put on the floor of the House. I am only living up to the agreement.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would suggest that it is a bit unusual for such a diligent Committee to report to the House a bill without any idea as to the overall cost.

Irrespective of the Committee's wishes this House should know how much money it is asking the Appropriations Committee to appropriate. Are we standing by the $150 figure, are we raising it from $30 to $400 per pupil without knowing what it is going to cost or how many pupils there are?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, it was in the minds of some of the Members that they work in conjunction with the Committee on Appropriations if there could be an amount arrived at so that the bill might be passed.

We do not have the exact amount of money. Under the bill, it will be a considerable sum. But there was a discussion, of course, as to trying to find a common ground upon which we might be able to procure money for this bill, for those districts that are doing a good work for the physically and mentally handicapped children.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is not the gentleman of the opinion that the Appropriations Committee needs the advice of the Committee on Education and that the Committee on Education in turn should take this House into its confidence as to whether it is proposing an expenditure of $500,000, a million or a million and a half, or just $300,000?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, I think I would agree with the gentleman that the House definitely should know the amount, and I am quite certain that we will have the amount that is estimated for this bill in this form, or possibly several amounts, that is, the costs proposed to be reduced by amendment. We will have that by the time we come back.

I think the gentleman is correct that the House should know the exact amount whether one hundred fifty, four hundred, seventy-five, or two hundred, or whatever amount is arrived at if the bill is to be passed.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, upon what basis does the gentleman propose reaching a decision?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, by getting the data from the Department of Public Instruction. They have, of course, at the present time the number of physically and mentally handicapped children who are now being trained. They know the amount that it costs or has cost in the past biennium. Therefore, they will be able to give us in a short time the set amount that we might put in where it is now $150 and $400 in the bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

I am again suggesting to the House that until the outlines of the Commonwealth's fiscal program have been determined, until there is some motion as to the amount of money the majority party intends making available, that the place for all bills of this kind is on the postponed calendar. We cannot establish priorities in proper sequence until we know how much money there is available. To send these bills to the Appropriations Committee when in all probability the Appropriations Committee does not know any more about the amount of money available than we do is simply the reverse of sensible legislative process.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I again suggest and move, even though mine be the only vote, that until we know more about how much money we have to spend, this bill be placed on the third reading postponed calendar

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 274, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 1001 of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 1206), entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class; amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by increasing the compensation of the township auditors.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1567, entitled:

An Act to amend subsection (b) of Section 672 of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by authorizing financially handicapped or distressed school districts to levy additional taxes with certain limitations

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Lancaster Mr. Wood vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Cambria Mr. Andrews vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the motion?
It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
Mr. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.
The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 1, by striking out the figure "6872" and inserting in lieu thereof "672".

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, lines 7, 8 and 9, by striking out "and the act approved" in line 7 of all of lines 8 and 9.

and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not exceeding twenty (20) years or fined not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or both

Any and all personal real property or funds employed in the advancement of the Communist revolutionary movement by force and violence in Pennsylvania by any such Communist or other revolutionary organization is hereby declared to be contraband and forfeit to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, there was a famous old French philosopher who was accounted one of the great libertarians of history who once made a statement which went something like this: 'I disagree with everything you say but I'll fight to the death for your right to say it.'

This I believe used to be a part of the American doctrine and I hope it still is, because I find myself somewhat in the position of the great philosopher today.

I venture to debate this bill, not so much in the hope of defeating it in the present state of affairs, and not because I look upon it as a means of political popularity, because I realize it gives an opportunity to anyone who wants to throw some mud or a stone to do so.

I would like to say that I am opposed to Communism and the Communists. I have no sympathy for them nor for any other ism—Nazism, Facism or any other ism which is totalitarian or authoritarian. I am against these precisely because they deprive man of his freedom and make him a creature of the state. In other words, I have a great desire to defend political democracy, the democratic way of life and the American way of life, and in that I believe my motives are similar to the sponsors of this bill.

However, it is possible to differ as to method. I hope that the democratic way of life will always remain the American way of life. I hope that the basic freedoms which democracy stands for—freedom of speech, freedom of press, freedom of association, freedom of religion and so on will always continue to be a part of the democratic way of life and the American way of life.

I disagree with the sponsors of this bill in method. I believe that to defend democracy it is necessary to use democratic means. I do not believe that it is possible to defend democratic ends by using un-democratic and un-American means. Freedom to me is a weapon—a weapon that should be used to preserve democracy and has been used for that purpose through our history. We have been made a strong, united nation, not because we were afraid to trust to freedom, but precisely because we used it as a weapon of our unity and integrity.

What Justice Holmes called "the free market of ideas" has prevailed in America, and we have always had the basic conviction that if there is freedom for any way of thought to make itself heard, democracy will win. I hope we have not lost that basic belief, because to me it is the basic underlying faith of democracy.

Dangerous error such as Communism is cannot be defeated by suppression. New ideas cannot be defeated by suppression, but rather by the free clash of ideas, by giving them an opportunity to be heard. I believe that the American people are an intelligent people; they are an educated people. They do not spring from a background which is foreign to democracy, but they have a background of long experience in democracy. The American people are not push-overs to autocratic or authoritarian ideas. They will never be deceived by the error of Communism as long as the "free market of ideas" of which Justice Holmes spoke continues to exist. It is precisely because I believe this bill infringes upon that "free market of ideas" that I oppose it.

Now, totalitarian methods are much different. They believe in suppression of unpopular ideas. They do not exist on the basis or the belief that liberty is a weapon. Where their party has been made illegal—although they were illegal in Nazi Germany—one party was legal and the rest were illegal. They were illegal in Mussolini's Italy and they are illegal today in the Soviet Union.

I know there are some people who say: "Why should we grant democracy to people who stand for a system which does not have democracy?" And I say, that is precisely the difference between Russia and America, and I want to keep it that way. If we are different in allowing freedom for people who disagree with our ideas, then I say that is the very basis of democracy. If we want to make this country like Russia, then I am opposed to it. And because I believe this bill makes a start in that direction I must in all conscience oppose this bill.

Now the Germans began—to go back in history to the story of Nazi Germany—with the Communist party precisely as this bill does. But I ask you, did they stop there? History shows that they did not. Soon that was not the only organization that was proscribed. It soon came about that labor unions were also subversive. It also came about that various religious groups were subversive, and they finally got to the point that Jehovah's Witnesses and Christian Scientists were ruled out—not as religions, but as organizations which were dangerous to the state.

There is a road, gentlemen, that Americans cannot afford to start on. Just because I believe this bill takes the first step along that road, I must oppose this bill.

Some will say that Communism is not just a political party—it is a conspiracy; the Communists are a bunch of traitors. I am not going to argue against that point. However, we have laws in our country which guard us against the action of traitors. We have laws against treason—it is a capital crime. We have laws against conspiracy, and Communists are being convicted every day on the basis of the laws of treason and the laws against conspiracy.

I do not pretend to be an expert on Communism and Communists. Perhaps the sponsors of this bill are—I do not know. But I think that if there is one man in America who can be said to be an expert on Communism and Communist activities it is J. Edgar Hoover, the head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I believe that the Federal Bureau of Investigation is doing a job. I am informed that Mr. J. Edgar Hoover on the matter of suppressing, or making illegal the Communist party, is opposed. And I can see reasons why he would be because there is no doubt that the result of a bill making the Communist party illegal will drive the Communists underground. It will make it impossible to combat Communism in the present efficient manner the FBI is doing if it is made into an underground movement.

Ask yourself the question: will the Communist be more easily found, be more easy to combat? Will we be more able to fight against the Communist idea and prevent the growth of sympathizers or members if we drive them out of existence legally and condemn them to a course of underground action? Apparently this is not the opinion of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and of the Attorney General's Office of the United States because so far they have resisted and opposed all efforts at the legal suppression of the Communist party, and instead have proceeded on the basis of prosecuting individuals and groups within the Communist party who are guilty either of traitorous acts or of conspiracy. I say our FBI is doing a good job. I have no desire to hamper them. I want to help them.

Let us say that Communism is a danger. Let us all agree to that. But it is also a danger that the working people recognize. Labor recognizes it and has gone about the job of getting rid of Communism in their organizations very effectively. So let us say that Communism is a danger, but it is a danger that the American people know, and there is no danger, to my mind, that the American people are going to be fooled or misled by the Communists. I believe the American population is helping. It knows what it wants, it knows the democratic system, it knows its virtues and it is not going to yield to inferior systems.

On the other hand, let us also recognize that there is a danger in the destruction of American liberties. There is also a danger in the loss of national unity. There is also danger in the spread of the present wave of fear and hysteria and suspicion which is now sweeping across our nation.

There are two dangers to America. An external danger and that is being taken care of in a military way, I think very effectively, although many people may disagree with me on that. But to me that is an external danger with a military solution.

There is also an internal danger; there are a number of internal dangers. The two real dangers to my mind to the American way of life are first of all the possibility of an economic depression, because we know that it was in the depth of depression, when the American system was disorganized, that things began to look pretty hopeless and Communism flourished. More Communists voted in this country in 1932 than in any other election. Since that time the communist party has entirely disappeared from the ballot—at least so far as national elections are concerned. But if there should be a terrible economic depression where people are in want and in need, they begin to doubt the principles under which their government is run. Then I say we would be in danger—in internal danger.

The other possibility is the loss of liberty, and if the time ever comes when freedom of speech, freedom of press, freedom of association, freedom to assemble—when those great freedoms are taken away—then our country is in danger, because that is the road to dictatorship.

There is a possibility that in passing such measures as this which infringe upon the basic civil liberties of the citizen there may be a loss of the very democracy for which we are battling. It may be that a loss of confidence in our way of life would be the result, because after all, our strength—the strength of America does not only exist in armies, in weapons—great as they may be; but it exists in ideas—ideas for which people are willing to fight. Democracy will win that battle provided we ourselves do not destroy it in the throes of fear and panic.

Let us assume that there is a problem in our nation. Let us say there is a disease which needs to be met. In a disease there are various doctors to whom you can go and some people prefer the doctors from abroad—the big foreign names. In this matter of internal strength there have been some foreign doctors, Dr. Hitler, Dr. Mussolini and Dr. Stalin. We know what their prescription is—suppression of liberties—that is their way to national security. It is impossible to be an anti-Communist in Russia. You relate that the Communist party is suppressed. It would be possible for me to quote passages from "Mein Kampf" or the writings of Stalin or the writings of Mussolini which belabors this point.

However, there are also American doctors—Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, Justice Holmes and others. Their prescription for national security has been freedom—free market of ideas—let all the ideas be heard; the people will choose those which are best.

Benjamin Franklin said:

They that give up essential liberty to gain a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety.

Thomas Jefferson said:

If there be any among us who wish to dissolve this Union or to change its republican form, let them stand undisturbed as monuments of the safety with which error of opinion may be tolerated, where reason is left free to combat it. I know indeed that some honest men have feared the republican government cannot be strong; that this government is not strong enough. But would the honest patriot, in the full tide of successful experiment, abandon a government which has so far kept us free and firm on the theoretical and visionary fear that this government—the world's best hope, may, by possibility want energy preserve itself? I trust not. I believe this, on the contrary, the strongest government on earth.

Abraham Lincoln said:

I fear you do not fully comprehend the danger of abridging the liberties of the people. A government had better go to the very extreme of toleration than to do aught that can be construed into an interference with or to jeopardize in any degree the common rights of the citizen.

Chief Justice Holmes said:

But when men have realized that time has upset many fighting faiths, they may come to believe even more than they believe the very foundations of their own conduct that the ultimate good desired is better reached by free trade in ideas—that the best test of truth is the power of the thought to get itself accepted in the competition of the market, and that the truth is the only ground upon which their wishes can safely be carried out. That at any rate is the theory of our Constitution. It is an experiment, as all life is an experiment. Every year, if not every day we have to wager our salvation upon some prophecy based upon imperfect knowledge. While that experiment is part of our system I think that we should be externally vigilant against attempts to check the expression of opinions that we loath and believe to be fraught with death, unless they so imminently threaten immediate interference with the lawful and pressing purposes of the law that an immediate check is required to save the country. Only the emergency that makes it immediately dangerous to leave the correction of evil counsels to time warrants making an exception to the sweeping command, "Congress shall make no law abridging the freedom of speech."

Alfred E. Smith said:

Our faith in American democracy is confirmed not only by its results, but by its methods and organs of free expression. They are the safeguards against revolution. To discard the methods of representative government leads to the misdeeds of the very extremists we denounce . . . and serves to increase the number of the enemies of orderly free government.

One of the great students of this problem in America is Zechariah Chafee, Jr., Professor of Harvard University, who says the following:

The only way to preserve the existence of free American institutions is to make free institutions a living force. To ignore them in the very process of purporting to defend them, as frightened men now urge, will leave us little worth defending. We must choose, and choose very soon, between freedom and fear . . . we cannot have both. If the citizens of the United States persist much longer in being afraid, the real rulers of this country will be fanatics fired with a zeal to save grown men objectionable ideas by putting them under the care of official nursemaids. Freedom is not safety, but opportunity.

Just a few days ago Harry S. Truman, speaking appropriately at the American Legion Building dedication in Washington, said the following:

The keystone of our form of Government is the liberty of the individual. The Bill of Rights, which protects their individual liberties, is the most fundamental part of the constitution. Real Americanism means that we will protect freedom of speech—we will defend the right of the people to say what they think, regardless of how much we disagree with them. But Americanism—is being undermined by some people in this country loudly proclaiming they are its chief defenders. These people claim to be against communism. But they are chipping away our basic freedoms just as insidiously and far more effectively than the communists have ever been able to do.

Senator Borah, just before he died, had this to say.

The safeguards of our liberty are not so much in danger from those who openly oppose them, as from those who, professing to believe in them, are willing to ignore them when found inconvenient for their purposes; the former we can deal with but the latter, professing loyalty, either by precept or example, undermine the very first principles of our government and are far more dangerous."

These are the prescriptions offered by the democratic doctors, the good American doctors. Now Members, you can make your choice, you can listen to the foreign doctors, Doctor Hitler, Mussolini and Stalin. Their ideas have been tried, and to my mind they have not been very successful in achieving national security.

Or you can listen to the American Doctors, Franklin, Jefferson, Lincoln, Justice Holmes. For my part there is no choice. I am going to stick by the American way, and if Communism is a danger to be combatted, I want to fight it by American means. I believe that liberty is the greatest weapon for the preservation of America. And I am going to stand by it.

Remember it is bigger than the problem of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, it is bigger even to my mind than the problem of America. The problem is the survival of democracy in this world.

I hope that the words of the poet will never be applied to America when the poet said,

"Your countrymen who might have hurled
Their freedom like a brand
Have cupped it to a candle spaker
In a frightened hand."

Mr. LOUIS LEONARD. Mr. Speaker, I have no argument with the statement made by my good friend, Mr. Seyler, from York County. It is history that he quoted, and we all are more or less familiar with it.

I am going to support this bill, based on my actual experience in life as a representative of the American labor movement. I want to repeat that, as a representative of the American labor movement when you really had to stand up and be counted if you wanted to exercise the privileges that were guaranteed to the citizens of this country under the Constitution.

That condition has all been eliminated since 1933, and today the American working man is enjoying those privileges without interference from anyone.

Since 1890, then known as the IWW and later as the Bolsheviks; then came the Communists, all played the same game. Their aim was to take over and control the labor movement, and if they could not do that, break it up so they would not have any union at all.

They cooperated with the company against the union representative in trying to help and set up an organization for the protection of the workers in those days. At every turn the Communist was always against the principles that we believe in, the American principle.

You do not have two names for an office on the Russian ballot, everybody knows that. If anybody comes around and tries to tear the house down I am going to try to exterminate him, and I consider that to be our responsibility here, to exterminate these traitors to this country of ours. We are the people that made this country, good old fashioned hard working people who made it possible for us to be here today as free Americans. I do not believe in standing by and allowing these people to come in and befuddle the minds of the man who is more or less just existing in his job and is not able to keep up with what is going on from the public standpoint. That is about the only man he can reach at any stage of the game.

If we pass this bill and as one of these gentlemen says, instead he goes underground, that may be, but he has to come to some of us to gain ground. He cannot go any place standing by himself, so we as good Americans under this bill will see that that bird is put where he belongs.

I still contend that it is our responsibility to defend against it. What is this country doing today? Spending billions of dollars anticipating an attack from the Communists—we do not know what they are going to do; we cannot do anything across the conference table with them. Today we are trying to deal with them in Korea. Every day it is the same old song, over and over, you cannot do business with the Communist people. They believe in rule and follow the rule.

What are they doing with our newspapermen over in Czechoslovakia? They will not even let our Ambassador have a talk with him. And we stand here and quibble over a bill that is going to retaliate on that kind of an action? Not me; I am not hesitating a bit.

I do not want to take any more time of this Assembly but I am speaking not only on what I have heard today; I am speaking from the standpoint of my experience as a representative of organized labor.

I am going to vote for the bill.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, we are discussing House Bill 1644 which is a bill to outlaw the Communist party or any other party which seeks to overthrow the government of the United States by force and violence.

We have heard considerable debate in connection with the subject of ideas. This bill is not outlawing any man's right to stand up and say what he thinks. This bill is not outlawing any man's right to express his ideas. This bill is not outlawing any organization which, by peaceful means, might want to change the form of government under which we live.

But there is abroad in the land, and there has been abroad in the land for better than twenty years, an organization which has very subtly, has very determinedly, has very craftily and I might say by means of lies, propaganda, untruths, misstatements, distortions, terror, victimizing innocent people and what have you, to try and throw fear into the government of this nation, to overthrow it by means of force and violence.

This government of this United States and of the state of Pennsylvania was founded upon the principle that we welcome the distressed but we do not want the distrustful. We welcome with open arms those who need help, but we do not want any part of those who are seeking us out for the purpose of tearing us down. They are in our midst. They are working hard at that job. They have been working like termites on the pillar of a porch until eventually you see that pillar begin to rot and drop away.

I say to you that if the Communists are not good enough for the labor unions, they are not good enough for Pennsylvania and are not good enough for America and the quicker we put them in a position where they cannot do us harm the better off we are going to be.

We have no argument with those who want to proceed with the orderly process of government, no. But we have staring us in the face those who do not care to proceed with the orderly processes of government. And as I understand the American way, for the orderly processes of government, you do it out in the open and you do not have to do it in small cells; that you do it by truthful means and not by lies; that you do it open and above board with your neighbors and not have to run up the dark alley in order to do it. We have too many dark alley cats trying to upset this form of government of ours. The sooner we kill off these back alley cats the better off I think we are going to be.

Men who have fought in two wars for this country support the bill very vigorously. They have been out in the far reaches of the world and they know what this form of insidious propaganda and form of government is.

Sure, they dangle before you beautiful ideals but their operations are enslavement.

They have no respect for the American way of life. They have no respect for you and me. They have no respect for our government, and why we should let them keep running at large I do not know.

I am not casting any reflection upon the FBI, they have done a great and wonderful and grand job in this nation. They have protected us from a great deal of sabotage. They have protected our institutions from being overthrown although some of our institutions have been very seriously infiltrated with these people who want to preach this doctrine. Yet by the same token these people have no love for us and they have no love for our institutions. Why we should stand here and want to love them is more than I know.

As I started out to say about the FBI, they have done a grand job. Yet at the same time I must throw this note into it. Over the weekend there were a number of additional Communists pulled in. An editorial in the Pittsburgh Press, of which I do not have a copy before me, but the substance of it is that it is "about time".

I further read editorial comment recently in the papers regarding the statements that for years we have been lead to believe that fifty-four thousand Communists in the United States could be picked up in forty-eight hours notice, but four out of eleven who were convicted through all the democratic processes in the United States of America, through to the Supreme Court of the United States, have evaded the grasp of the FBI.

I think it is time that we come down into our local levels and start attacking this problem in the manner in which this bill is attacking it.

When we speak of liberty, I wonder if there are not a whole lot more things which perhaps are depriving us of our liberties, more than this bill is proposing to do.

This bill is not depriving anybody of their liberties, excepting those who want to overthrow the government by force and violence. We are not here for that purpose. Right today we are in the throes of having our liberties restricted by taxation and the probability of a bankrupt government. When we are talking about liberty, Mr. Speaker, and when we are talking about the opportunity for the Communist to move in in the days of depression, I am telling you that we have other factors much more deeply seated and much more fundamental to look at in connection with our American way of life.

I say that now is the time to start rooting them out. Let us start rooting them out with outlawing the Communist Party or any other organization which by similar means of force and violence wants to overthrow us and tell us that we dare not organize and sit together and assemble as American citizens to govern our own affairs.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I could wish that I had the fluency of the gentleman from York or the impassioned eloquence of the gentleman from Cameron.

Incidentally, I note his observation regarding the impending bankruptcy that confronts the nation! I just want to depart from the subject long enough to observe that at the rate we are proceeding with the tax legislation in Pennsylvania we are not very likely to very soon bankrupt this Commonwealth through taxes.

I approach discussion of this bill with considerable perturbation. I have a brief from a very eminent legal authority that gives some of the reasons why this bill is unconstitutional. Then we have what I might term testimony from the bench by the way of prospective Supreme Court rulings that the bill is constitutional. So, since the Supreme Court has the last guess, I will have to throw my great eminent legal authority aside and rely upon the verdict of the Supreme Court in prospect.

I think on this occasion I should say that inferentially I have been accused in my career of having said at one time or another that I believed in going easy with Communists, because they represented a section of American public opinion. I can assure the Members of this House, men who ml have face dfor many years, that I never said that, and I never said anything approaching that.

Years ago the groups now in control of the Communist movement and I arrived at an understanding. We have understood each other ever since. Years ago I announced my policy in my home town to the home group of Communists. I said I knew if they ever got to power they would shoot me, and they could rely upon the fact that if I ever got into power I would shoot them, and we have operated on that basis ever since.

In the last political campaign both political parties had something to say about Communists. The present majority party spoke at considerable length. The present minority party plan regarding Communism was a pledge of relentless war upon the communistic foe at home and abroad with every weapon that can be used within the framework of the Constitution. No party, in making a general declaration of policy, can go farther than that and no Legislature in framing a program can go farther than that. We must be governed within the framework of the Constitution.

I concede that the Communist Party as now organized in the United States and now functioning represent a criminal conspiracy. I believe that the conspirators should be punished. I believe if we do no thave laws to punish them—and I believe we do—we should enact laws to punish them. But I also believe that we are making a fundamental departure from correct practice and correct thinking, if we fail to differentiate between the Communist movement so called as now organized and Communism as a historic ideology. You are not going to wipe out of the thinking of men, an ideology which, under various names, has been current in written form for some twenty-four hundred years at least.

As far as I have read, a Greek by the name of Pythagoras outlined the first Communist social and economic organization. He did not happen to call it Communism.

As I read the Book of Acts, the early Christians held all things in common. They sold their possessions and placed the proceeds in a common pool. Even among the early Christians the experiment failed because it came about that—I have forgotten whether it was the Greek widows that complained they were not receiving as good treatment as the Hebrew widows or the other way around. But anyway even among the early Christians the communistic ideology went on the rocks. They did not call Communism.

Wat Tyler and Jack Cade marched into London in the days of the Henrys, one with two hundred thousand Kentishmen another with three hundred thousand Kentishmen. For what purpose? To declare that all goods would be held in common. Incidentally Jack Cade remarked, "Got wot, England will never be free until they hang all the lawyers."

Lollard and Wyclif outlined an ideology that was communistic. In the French revolution you found communistic ideology. The poets saw the outline of the communistic state. Robert Owen, the Englishman, established communistic colonies in this country.

The literary lights of the 1830's established the communistic Brooks Farm experiment.

Now I am saying that there has been in the current of thought an ideology that has a historic background of thousands of years. You cannot wipe that ideology out. It happens in our time that men of criminal mind, sinister purpose, for nationalistic imperialistic reasons, have used the historic ideology as you would imagine to cloak their activities. And they are no more basically communistic than you are or I am because by their very nature they can be devoted to no ideology and have no purpose other than to secure a type of political supremacy.

This bill would be a better bill if it simply condemned any organization without any name, no matter how named, committed to the overthrow of the federal, or state government by force and violence.

I submit to you that the bill as written is a matter of small moment. It is a magnificent political and publicity stunt. If in my town a group of people committed to the historic ideology of Communism by declaration separate themselves from what is known as the Communist Party of the United States, takes specific action, repudiates the national organization, name the leaders of the national organization they repudiate and want to preempt the name Communist party in any one of the counties, do you mean to say that you can by legislation forbid them to do so simply because there is such a thing as a communist group devoted to the propagation of force and violence?

I say you cannot do it practically and I say that the people who are committed to Communism in its historic phase will continue to be Communists. They will not threaten the stability of our institutions because historically over the years the great leaders of Communism have never been militant except in the case of Jack Cades, the Wat Tylers, the Stalins', there have been those three, but the leaders of thought that have kept the communist ideology present in the thinking of the people are not militant.

I say, Mr. Speaker, you cannot wipe them out, and I also say that you cannot ban a name; you can ban an act. You can ban the actions of those who take a name. You can try to ban a name but you do not do anything. You have not accomplished any end.

I would much prefer if this bill were to pass that we let them go until we have all leaders under one tent, use the communist party as a trap. Rather then, when we have the leaders, proceed to ban the party if you wanted to. What is the difference whether the men accused call themselves the Communist Party of the United States or the Friends of Freedom or the Lincoln Party, or the Liberty Party, or whether they form a cell in your party or whether they form a cell in my party. You cannot get anywhere by simply banning names, you have got to get hold of people. You either have got to hang them, shoot them or put them in jail. Where do you get it that you can put a name in jail when you ban a name?

I had almost made up my mind, when I took the floor, to vote for this bill. I have almost succeeded in talking myself out of that intention.

If my argument has been as telling on the membership of this House as it has been on me this bill will fall. I reach this conclusion: that as it stands, it is a tempest in a teapot. You will be criticized temporarily if you vote against it. You will be praised if you vote for it from some quarters, but if you vote for it you will not have accomplished anything, and if you vote against it you will not have accomplished anything. So, Mr. Speaker, my conclusion is that I think it is an ineffective bill and I desire to vote against it.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I am not going to take much of your time, but I have been listening to this debate. An awful lot of theory has been kicked around. I suspect that I am the only Member, as a Member of this House in this room today, who has ever worked for the Russians and the Communist party.

Following the last war I worked with the American Repatriation Commission, its chief, with the Russians in Austria. I saw them operate, Mr. Speaker, and I know to what lengths they will go to gain their ends.

I agree with some of the statements made here today by the speakers who preceded me and I frankly am not worried particularly about the real dyed in the wool Communist. But the thing that I am really worried about are the fellow travelers, those people who deal in the realm of the clouds above the horizon, who refuse to put their feet on solid ground and use comparative measures as actual, practical workings of the communist theory.

I agree with my friend from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, that the communist, or the communal theory has been known as long as the world has existed. But the communist government is not a communal government and anybody who says so either is an absolute prevaricator or they do not know what they are saying, or care less what they are saying.

The group with which I worked in the town of Linz in Austria and later in Melk in Austria—this one particular officer with whom I was thrown was in command of 12,000 Russian troops.

That officer could not make one move, could not take one order unless a major who was sitting beside him in every one of our conferences nodded his head. That major was a Commissar. He was the political leader in the Russian Army. He was the control and I saw that very same Commissar make a demand of the Mayor in the town of Linz for an unreasonable amount of supplies at 2 o'clock in the afternoon with the statement that they must be supplied at 4. They were not supplied at 4. The next day the town had a new mayor. The old mayor died of a heart attack during the night.

I will admit that this bill does not go as strongly as I from my own experience would like but it is a move. Maybe we will outlive, maybe we will overrule, maybe we will wipe out the name of Communism but I notice that the bill says "any other revolutionary organization."

If this bill were twice or ten times as strong and no one else in this House would vote for it, Mr. Speaker, I have seen enough that I would vote against it every time without any hesitation.

MR. WOOD IN THE CHAIR

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I did not expect to speak on this bill. I did not prepare for this speech, but after listening to my able colleague here, Mr. Seyler, and hearing him going back in the history and naming great names, I noted that none of our great leaders ever said that they would tolerate individuals who meant to overthrow the government by force knowingly, as this bill states.

They have spoken out that they would fight for the right of an individual to speak, but they would never have stood up for anything that is in this bill. My colleague on this side went back into history and let us know that the Greeks had a name for it. All the way down the line they had a name for it. But this is a thing of today, a very important thing. I, as sponsor of this bill, am proud to have my name on this bill.

I am amazed when organizations say that there are loop holes here that may interfere with people's right. That word "knowing" and "knowingly" to me is so emphatic and means so much that I cannot see how this bill can be distorted in any legal manner although I am not a lawyer. The bill is brief, short, right to the point. It varies, I will agree, with the men who spoke. It may be that in our great nation we should let people roam and be free, but I myself do not feel that any American, if you call him such, would be knowingly overthrowing the government of this state or nation.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, when I sat down, I understood that one of my last statements may have been misunderstood by the Members of this House.

I believe I stated that any time I was called on to I would vote against it. It there referring to the Communist movement. I am against it or anything else like it.

I am going to vote for this bill and do not let anybody worry about that.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, very briefly I would just like to make this statement, that I believe that it is not only pathetic, but it is regrettable when we have a Member in this House that would defend any group that would knowingly advocate the overthrow or tearing down of this government of ours.

This does not say Communists. It says Communists and any other subversive or party who would do that very thing. I have always had all the respect in the world for the gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, but I think he has been terribly misguided or did not read his speech before he gave it.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I thought I had made it perfectly clear in my opening remarks that I am one hundred percent opposed to Communism and Communists. I have read the bill. I do understand what is in it. I perhaps understand the bill and its implications, at least in my own opinion, better than some of the people who are in favor of the bill. At least that is my idea.

I believe that the central idea here is the question of just how good is democracy. Is it any good or is not it any good? A lot of people say it is a nice theory. Well, if it is only a nice theory, our country is in for some bad times, because our country is based on that theory. I say it will work, and I say it has worked. I do not believe that freedom is a handicap in America that we have to lay aside in a crisis. I do not believe that it is a luxury that we can only enjoy when things are going nicely. As I said before, I think that freedom is a weapon for democracy.

I was impressed by one speaker. Since I am on my feet I did not intend to debate it, but since the personal reference was made I felt I had to clarify even in the mind of that one Member who was not listening, just what my position on Communism was. I was reminded of a remark made by the late Senator Carter Glass, who some you may remember, when he was still alive and on this subject of Communism when a proposal was being made to do the sort of thing that this bill proposes to do. Carter Glass gave a little talk in which he pointed out the smallness of numbers of Communism, the soundness of our people, the firmness of our belief in democratic processes, the small likelihood of any of us being misled by false doctrines, and then he said this, "What's the use of wasting dynamite when insect powder will do?"

THE SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) IN THE CHAIR

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the art of smear involves the misrepresentation of statements that should be clearly understood.

Perhaps it is a defect in my presentation that what I said was not understood. My position was that we should punish the act of everybody guilty of advocating the overthrow of our form of government by force and violence. You punish the act, you punish the actors, but I say you do not put anybody in jail by outlawing a name. I repeat, you do not put anybody in jail by outlawing a name.

This bill lacks teeth. It outlaws the name and then anybody else guilty of certain advocacies are included. But the point of the thing is to outlaw a name. Your object is to punish subversive actions, and that is all you need. Whether it is Republican, Democrat, Communist or anybody else you punish subversive action. That is all that need be in any bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I listened with a great deal of attention to the debate on this bill. I listened more so to those who sponsored this piece of legislation. Now I say to you here today, let us be fair. You have a piece of legislation here that means nothing, other than to brand somebody for or against Communism.

Your bill repeals no acts that we now have on the statute books to deal with subversives, to deal with those who would overthrow the government by force. You complain today about the time that is spent trying to condemn or convict Communists. This bill repeals no acts that gives those same people the right to go into court.

Let us be fair, let us save America. Let us be men and stand up and be for what we think is right. And the almighty dollar that protects these people through your laws in this country; if we need to lose our freedom I am willing to sacrifice some freedoms if you will pin the Communists to the wall, but this bill does not. It is only a mockery, and we should not pass that kind of legislation.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, as one of the co-sponsors of this bill I am very happy to speak, and will speak briefly on its behalf.

I arise, not to defend the bill, because in my opinion it needs no defense, but to solicit the support of every Member of this House in its passage.

I agree that if the bill had been introduced many years ago, probably it would have been unnecessary, because at that time the communist party under whatever name it functioned perhaps was not revolutionary in nature. But in world, or geo-politics today I am sorry to say that our opponent, Communism, is not very sporting in the way it is attacking the problem.

We cannot abide by the rules of the game; we have to bring in every other means at our command. I think they hit and they kick below the belt. There is no doubt about that in my mind, so we have to be prepared.

I am not going to tarry long except that I would like to read part of the last paragraph from the opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Eugene Dennis et al,—the "et al" being the other communists who were convicted. I read as follows:

"Petitioners intended to overthrow the government of the United States as speedily as the circumstances would permit. Their conspiracy to organize the Communist party and to teach and advocate the overthrow of the government of the United States by force and violence created a, "clear and present danger" of an attempt to overthrow the government by force and violence.

I ask the support of every Member in this House in the passage of this bill.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I disagree very much with some of the opponents of this measure, and some of the thoughts and observations that they have made relative to the effectiveness of the proposal that is before us.

On page 3 of the bill, line 8, is one of the outstanding features of the bill that I am interested in, and one of the biggest reasons as to why I will support the bill.

Page 8 states,

"Whoever knowingly conspires, aids or abets any person or organization whose activities further the purpose of the communist party or any other revolutionary organization to bring about a revolution by force and violence within the Commonwealth, is guilty of a felony . . . .

I believe that the bill hits at the particular persons that do not belong to these organizations but do aid and abet them in a roundabout manner. I believe it is a good piece of legislation, it is highly essential at this particular time, and I will vote for it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1647, as follows:

An Act to add section three hundred twenty-seven to the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872) entitled "An act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth" by making it a crime to picket or parade in or near any building housing a court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with the intent of influencing any judge juror witness or court officer in the discharge of his duty and prescribing penalties. The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872) entitled "An act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth" is hereby amended by adding immediately after section three hundred twenty-six a new section to read as follows

Section 327 Whoever with the intent of interfering with obstructing or impeding the administration of justice or with the intent of influencing any judge juror witness or court officer in the discharge of his duty pickets or parades in or near any building housing a court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or in or near a building or residence occupied or used by such judge juror witness or court officer or with such intent uses any sound-truck or similar device or resorts to any other demonstration in or near any such building or residence shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5000) or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year or both

Nothing in this section shall interfere with or prevent the exercise by any court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of its power to punish for contempt

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cameron Mr. Tompkins.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cameron Mr. Tompkins permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. I desire to ask the gentleman whether under the present law of Pennsylvania, courts do not have the power to control picketing and other means of influencing or interfering with or obstructing justice during the trial of any kind of a case.

Mr. TOMPKINS. I do not think there is any question about it where it is committed in their presence in the open courtroom, but where it is committed otherwise there seems to be some question.

Mr. READINGER. Is the gentleman familiar with any cases in which an actual act which impeded the administration of justice or interfered with it outside of a court building has not been treated by the court as a contempt or has any court held it has no power to deal with it?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I am unable to state that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. What I am asking is whether or not any court in this Commonwealth has held that it does not have the power to stop any kind of an act in the courtroom or out of the courtroom or near the courthouse which is interfering with the administration of justice?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I am not familiar with any cases dealing with that particular phase of the subject, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Is the gentleman familiar with the fact that during certain trials there will be an outburst of enthusiasm of one kind or another on the part of the audience sitting in the courtroom, such as the clapping of hands or some gesture of that kind, when perhaps a defence attorney makes a certain statement or while the court makes a certain ruling, is the gentleman familiar with the fact that that happens?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Very frequently.

Mr. READINGER. Would the gentleman then say that such conduct interferes with or influences the administration of justice?

Mr. TOMPKINS. In that particular situation it is in the presence of the court and I believe the court has full power where those matters take place in its presence and it sees fit either to call their attention to it and tell them to have no recurrences of it, or if it is of a very offensive nature it has it within its power to deal with it accordingly.

Mr. READINGER. Would the gentleman say that under this bill a person who applauds a statement made by a defense counsel we will say in a murder case, perhaps it is a relative or a friend of the defendant, would the gentleman say that that person could not be indicted under this amendment?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I would not say that he could not be, no.

Mr. READINGER. He could be.

Mr. TOMPKINS. He could be, yes. The court has that same power at the present time in connection with contempt.

Mr. READING. Under the present law, any person could be indicted and put on trial, the court would deal with him summarily as a contempt or not contempt?

Mr. TOMPKINS. That is right.

Mr. READINGER. Does the gentleman think that this amendment is actually necessary to allow the orderly administration of justice in the state of Pennsylvania?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I do.

Mr. READING. The gentleman does not think the present laws relating to contempt adequately take care of the situation.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Not in so far as it will protect the witness or a juror in their homes; not in so far as protecting them in connection with disturbances outside of the courtroom. It might be out on the street.

Mr. READINGER. Is there no law in Pennsylvania now which makes it illegal to try to influence a juror, for example, wherever he may be while he is sitting on a case or even ebofer he is called into a case while he is on the jury panel?

Mr. TOMPKINS. That is true we have laws against attempting to influence juror, that is right.

Mr. READINGER. Do we not have laws in the Commonwealth now which make it a crime to try to influence and attempting to disurb are two different things.

Mr. TOMPKINS. That is right. Attempting to influence and attempting to disurb are two different things.

Mr. READINGER. Disturb what? May I ask what you are speaking of when you say disturb?

Mr. TOMPKINS. There is a great deal of difference between a person trying to approach a juror or witness and trying to influence their decision or their testimony and that of making such raucous noises and disturbances that influence or disturb his attentiveness to the progress of the case or his peace and quiet at home at night time.

Mr. READINGER. Is that the manner in which this bill is trying to reach the disturbance of witnesses or jurors or judges?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Yes, Mr. Speaker, and such demonstrations as took place if you were familiar with the case before Judge Medina's court in New York City.

Mr. READINGER. Have we had any such instances in the state of Pennsylvania, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Not to my knowledge, but I do not know of any reason why we should not setup a defense in case we do.

Mr. READINGER. May I inquire what happened in the New York case? Did any thing follow from that disturbance that you are speaking of? Was there an arrest or was there a charge of contempt of any kind?

Mr. TOMPKINS. The only contempt order that I am aware of was that against defense counsel.

Mr. READINGER. But you are referring to a demonstration that took place outside of the courthouse?

Mr. TOMPKINS. That is right.

Mr. READINGER. You say there was no legal action taken as a result of that?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I have no recollection of it, I have not even read about it. It may have been, I do not know.

Mr. READINGER. I thank the gentleman.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1310.

An Act to improve local health administration throughout the Commonwealth by authorizing the creation establishment and administration of single-county or joint-county Departments of Health in all counties except counties of the first class exempting certain municipalities from the jurisdiction of single-county or joint-county Departments of Health permitting the dissolution of departments or boards of health in certain municipalities authorizing state grants to counties which establish departments of health and to certain municipalities if they meet prescribed requirements conferring powers and duties upon the State Department of Health in connection with the creation establishment and administration of single-county or joint-county departments of health and administration of the health laws in parts of certain municipalities not subject to the jurisdiction of single-county or joint-county departments of Health and the administration of state grants and repealing an act which confers health powers upon counties of the first class

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. RONALD L. THOMPSON from the Committee on Cities and Counties—Second Class, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1680, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 198), entitled "An act to establish a county court for the county of Allegheny and prescribing its powers and duties; regulating the procedure therein, and providing for the expenses thereof," by conferring exclusive jurisdiction on the county court of Allegheny County in cases of appeals from decisions of the collector of mercantile taxes imposed by political subdivisions within the territorial limits of its jurisdiction.

Mr. SCHMIDT from the Committee on Cities and Counties—Second Class, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 676, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1144) entitled "An act relating to the annual salaries of certain county officers of counties of the second class" by increasing the salaries of certain county officers.

Mr. LUTTY from the Committee on Cities and Counties—Second Class, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 658, entitled:

An Act authorizing council of cities of the second class to fix the salaries of the mayor and the council members of such cities and to provide for the assessment and retention of fines for absence of councilmen from meetings.

REQUEST TO READ BILL FIRST TIME

Mr. RONALD L. THOMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask that House Bill 1680 be read for the first time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to inform the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Thompson, that under the provisions of the Constitution bills cannot be read for the first time until they are in print.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, may a bill be read for the first time when reported from Committee with amendments?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inform the gentleman that a bill may not be read for the first time when reported from Committee as amended.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Even though they are correctional amendments rather than amendments to the text?

The SPEAKER. The nature of the amendments is immaterial.

BILL ON FIRST READING

Mr. LUTTY asked and obtained unanimous consent for Senate Bill No. 658 to be read for the first time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 658, entitled:

An Act authorizing council of cities of the second class to fix the salaries of the mayor and the council members of such cities and to provide for the assessment and retention of fines for absence of councilmen from meetings.

And said bill having been read at length the first time, Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections, the Chair will declare a recess to await communications from the Senate. The Members are requested to return to their seats immediately after the recess. There may be important communications. The Chair hears none, and a recess is declared for two hours.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. McKINNEY asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Judiciary to meet during the session of the House.

CONDOLENCE

Messrs. BEECH, DONALD L. THOMPSON and MORAN

offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 20, 1951.

On Friday, August 17, 1951 the late James R. Wylie, died at his home in Wilkinsburg, after a long and honorable career.

Mr. Wylie was a one time member of the Pennsylvania State Legislature, having been elected to that body in 1913 from the 10th district, and served therein till 1916. Mr. Wylie also served his community as a public official in the capacity of school director.

After having completed his education at Geneva College, Mr. Wylie came to Wilkinsburg before the turn of the century and distinguished himself in various community enterprises. He and his associates organized the Wilkinsburg Trust Company, which was later merged with the Central National Bank, and later became a vice president and director of the First National Bank of Wilkinsburg.

Mr. Wylie's main business interest, which was in the field of real estate and insurance, lent much to the development of the community and distinguished him as a leader in his community's business life.

Mr. Wylie's membership in the Second Presbyterian Church was distinguished by his service on the Board of Elders since 1922. His fraternal and social interests were noteworthy and exemplified by his Masonic membership, he having been a member of Betz Lodge F. and A. M., the Shrine and Knights Templar, and membership in the Wilkinsburg Rotary Club and Edgewood Country Club.

Mr. Wylie's passing leaves a feeling of profound sorrow in the hearts of his children and other surviving members of his family, as well as a feeling of great loss to his many friends and associates; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives extends its sincere sympathy to the surviving children of Mr. Wylie; and be it further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to James R. Wylie, Jr., John H. Wylie, Mrs. H. D. Megahan and Mrs. A. J. Wilson, of Wilkinsburg.

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

HOUSE BILL No. 1171.

An Act to further amend the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 299) entitled "An act requiring retail dealers in liquid fuels to state the rate of the liquid fuels tax separately from the price of such liquid fuels on liquid fuel price display signs and imposing a penalty" by requiring the posting of signs on liquid fuels dispensing devices stating the brand quality and price of liquid fuels prohibiting the posting of signs not conforming to prescribed standards and increasing penalties.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend the bill, Section 2, Page 4, Line 19, by inserting after "(twenty-five dollars ($25.00))" the words "not more than".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. JOHNSON. I request that the House concur in the amendments inserted by the Senate.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. KENT and DENNISON.
(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 76.

In the House of Representatives, August 20, 1951.

Whereas, The question of altering legal truck weights on the public roads and highways of this Commonwealth is a controversial legislative issue at each session of the General Assembly; and

Whereas, The General Assembly's debate of this important problem so far has produced no solution, but has unfortunately resulted only in the unfair labelling of each Member as a partisan either of the trucking industry or the railroad industry; and

Whereas, Various State and Federal agencies as well as private associations have been conducting exhaustive tests to establish proper weight limits, load distributions and speeds in order to avoid damage to public highways and danger to traffic; and

Whereas, The General Assembly can conscientiously do its duty in passing legislation relating to truck weights only when it receives advice and counsel from highway experts as to the facts; now therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to study the problem of the effects of weight on the public roads and highways of this Commonwealth to find what truck weights can be permitted commensurate with safety and economy, and in so doing to gather and compile all the available facts on the matter; and be it further

Resolved, That for such purpose the commission shall consult with experienced road builders, contractors, and engineers representing Federal, State and interested political subdivisions and any other builders, contractors and engineers with such experience as to qualify them as expert in the matters being investigated by the commission. It shall also make or cause to be made any and all necessary investigations to obtain actual evidence in corroboration and extension of such expert opinion, and obtain results of all tests and investigations made or being made to decide proper weights of trucks; and be it further

Resolved, That the Commission shall report its findings together with accompanying proposed legislation if any, to effectuate the same to the General Assembly by February 1, 1953.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. ROYER and ANDREWS.
(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 77.

In the House of Representatives, August 20, 1951.

Whereas, The General Assembly requires for its use comprehensive, factual information concerning the numerous problems before it;

Resolved (if the Senate concurs), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to:

1. Study and investigate
    - (a) State License Fees, Except Those Fixed by the Motor Vehicle Code
    - (b) Disability Benefit Laws
    - (c) Needs and Problems of the Aged and Aging
    - (d) State and Local Support of Public Education
    - (e) Instruction for the Deaf
    - (f) Public School Pupil Transportation Costs
    - (g) Available Information Relating to Underground Water Supply
    - (h) Un-American and Subversive Activities in the Commonwealth
    - (i) The Feasibility of Establishing School of Veterinary Medicine at Pennsylvania State College
    - (j) The Feasibility of Establishing a Free City College in Philadelphia
    - (k) The Feasibility of Establishing Medical and Dental Schools at Pennsylvania State College
    - (l) Laws Relating to Milk Control
    - (m) The Proposed Uniform Commercial Code
- and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission report to the next regular session of the General Assembly its findings and recommendations, with such drafts of legislation necessary to carry the recommendations into effect; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution shall constitute the complete directive to the Joint State Government Commission notwithstanding any resolutions heretofore adopted.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. ROYER and ANDREWS.
RESOLUTION No. 78.

In the House of Representatives, August 20, 1951.

Whereas, The General Assembly requires for its use comprehensive, factual information concerning the numerous problems before it;

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to:

1. Study and investigate
  - (a) State License Fees, Except Those Fixed by the Motor Vehicle Code

Resolved, That this resolution shall constitute the complete directive to the Joint State Government Commission notwithstanding any resolutions heretofore adopted.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

CONDOLENCE

Mr. BRETH offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 20, 1951.

The House of Representatives is in receipt of sad news in learning of the death of a former member of this House—John D. Walker, age 68, a prominent coal operator of Brisbin, who passed away at his residence, Saturday, August 4, after a heart attack.

The Honorable John D. Walker, was a Republican member of this House from Clearfield County during the 1927 and 1929 legislative sessions.

He is remembered here at the Capitol as being the "father" of legislation to benefit poor school districts. Through this legislation many distressed school districts have been able to maintain the high standards of public education and thereby many boys and girls were given educational opportunities which would have otherwise been substantially curtailed.

Mr. Walker was devoted to public education all of his adult life and was a member of the Brisbin borough School Board for many years and was in fact its treasurer at the time of his death; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby expresses its sincere sympathy to his widow, Mrs. John D. Walker and to the other members of his family; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Mrs. John D. Walker, the surviving widow of the Honorable John D. Walker.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. TOMPKINS from the Committee on Judiciary, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 188, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 1 and the fourth paragraph of Section 2 of the act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 711) entitled "An act establishing a court for the county of Philadelphia prescribing its jurisdiction and powers providing for the service of its writs process or warrants by the proper officers of the county or city of Philadelphia regulating the procedure therein and appeals therefrom and providing for the expenses thereof" by increasing the number of judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia

COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Cities—Third Class, Mr. Dalrymple, Chairman, Room 521, Tuesday, August 21, at 10:00 a. m.

Judiciary, Mr. McKinney, Chairman, Room 520, Tuesday, August 21, at 10:00 a. m.

All times are Eastern Standard Time.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Tuesday, August 21, 1951 at 12:00 noon EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 9:46 p. m.) EST) the House adjourned.

HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, AUGUST 21, 1951.

No. 80.

SENATE

TUESDAY, August 21, 1951.

The Senate met at 12:00 o'clock, m., Eastern Standard Time.

The MAJORITY LEADER (John M. Walker) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. ALFRED L. TAXIS, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Port Carbon, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

O God, we are ashamed when we feel Thy searching glance scanning our shortcomings. We have to acknowledge that we knew better than we have acted. We have desired Thy fellowship, but we chose rather to have comradeship with those who did not know Thee or honor Thee. We have sought to build reputations rather than character. May we find Thy forgiveness now.

Lift up our heads, put a new light in our eyes and a new song in our hearts. Amen.

The MAJORITY LEADER. Will the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Hare, come to the rostrum to preside?

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Fred P. Hare) in the Chair.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. CROWE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. Haluska asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. DENT.

NOMINATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Executive Nominations.

MEMBERS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA AERONAUTICS COMMISSION

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, August 21, 1951.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following persons for reappointment as Members of the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission:

Ralph C. Hutchison, Easton, Northampton County, to serve until June 2, 1955, and until his successor shall be duly appointed and shall have qualified.

NAYS—0

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call up from the table at this time, the Adjournment Resolution.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, August 20, 1951.

Resolved, That when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it re-convene on Monday, September 17, 1951 at 3:30 o'clock p. m., E. S. T., unless sooner re-convened at the call of the Speaker of the House of Representatives and when the Senate adjourns this week, it re-convene on Monday, September 17, 1951 at 2:00 o'clock p. m., E. S. T., unless sooner re-convened by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

SENATE CONCURS IN HOUSE RESOLUTION

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do concur in the House resolution.

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, with reference to the resolution just read, I would like to make a brief statement.

Mr. President, we have spent eight months here in this Senate chamber, and we have accomplished very little. Time in and time out our Floor Leader, Senator Dent, speaking for the Democratic Party, has offered our services. We have asked to sit down with the Majority Party to try to help solve the knotty problem confronting this Legislature. It seems that it has been a cry in the wild. As yet we have not been invited at any time into a conference to try to settle the tax problem.

Mr. President, we feel we have a responsibility. We are willing to help, but it is quite apparent, Mr. President, that our help is not wanted. It is our wish, it is our desire to stay in Session to complete the job. It must be met sooner or later, but again we have not been consulted in any manner whatsoever with regard to a recess. The Democratic Party goes on record: that we want to finish the job now, but if the Majority Party insists upon a recess, once again there is little we can do about it. So, Mr. President, our members are going on record as opposing the recess.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

REQUEST TO PRESENT RESOLUTION

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to present a resolution at this time.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I ask the gentleman if he would yield until we come to resolutions? We have quite a number of them to be presented, and I do not want to deprive—

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, this pertains to the subject matter at hand.

Mr. WALKER. I appreciate that. I have on my desk copies of resolutions that Members of the Senate are desirous of presenting that deal with the subject matter, and if I open the gate for one, I will have seven or eight resolutions, and I have four committees that would like to meet before we get into the Calendar and into resolutions. I would earnestly ask the gentleman if he would mind yielding until we come to resolutions. We have not come to that point in the agenda as yet.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, not wishing to tie up the work of this Senate, as I know that our time is limited, since we have been so awfully busy for the last eight months, I will agree to wait until the time of resolutions.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the Chair.

BILL SIGNED

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bill had passed both Houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 1628, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and certain sections of and to add new sections to the act approved the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1154), entitled "An act to prohibit the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine or butterine and other similar products when colored in imitation of yellow butter; to provide for license fees to be paid by manufacturers, wholesale and retail dealers, and by proprietors of hotels, restaurants, dining-rooms, and boarding-houses; for the manufacture or sale of oleomargarine, butterine or other similar products not colored in imitation of yellow butter; to regulate the manufacture, sale and advertising of oleomargarine, butterine or other similar products, not colored in imitation of yellow butter; and prevent and punish fraud and deception in such manufacture, sale, and advertising as an imitation butter; to prescribe penalties and punishment for violation of this act and the means and method of procedure for its enforcement; to regulate certain matters of evidence in such procedure; and to prescribe certain powers and duties of the Department of Agriculture," by permitting the manufacture and except in certain cases the sale of colored oleomargarine, butterine and similar products.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, to permit a meeting of the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Fred P. Hare) in the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

REPUBLICAN MAJORITY OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO STUDY WAYS AND MEANS TO CUT GOVERNMENT EXPENSES DURING RECESS

Mr. HOLLAND offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, August 21, 1951.

The General Assembly has been in session since January, and in that time the Republican Administration, as well as the Republican Majority have insisted on placing upon the people of Pennsylvania new taxes, instead of practicing economy.

With callous disregard to the wishes and demands of capital, management and labor, for economy in State Government, the Republican Administration have spent days, weeks and months trying to find ways and means to find new forms of taxes to place on the shoulders of every individual and enterprises in our Commonwealth. No honest effort was made by them to find ways and means to cut the cost of Government and blunt refusal was the answer to the Democratic Minority attempts to use the services of the Economy League, the Chamber of Commerce or have the experience and wisdom of Certified Public Accountants and Economists to assist the members of the General Assembly in compiling a State Budget in keeping with the wishes and demands of the times.

Therefore, Be It Resolved that the Democratic Minority of the General Assembly again reiterates their request that during the recess voted upon by the Republican Majority that they spend more time studying ways and means to cut expenses of Government, instead of spending the entire time of a recess finding ways and means to tax, and tax, and tax, and

Be It Further Resolved, that the Democratic Minority suggests to the Republican Majority that at any time the services and help of the Democratic Minority is requested to suggest ways and means to cut costs of government, we stand ready at all times to give our counsel and wisdom.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object to the immediate consideration of the resolution, and may I say to the gentleman from Allegheny, thanks very much. I enjoyed the last paragraph of the letter and the thump you heard was the people fainting in Washington.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I agree with the Majority Leader that what you hear is a thump of the Republican economists in Washington. Senator Duff—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, will state his point of order.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, there is nothing before the Senate at this time but the assignment of the resolution just offered by the gentleman. I must object at this time to the gentleman debating the resolution that is not before us.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There is nothing before the Senate because there has been objection to the immediate consideration of the resolution. The Chair has already referred the resolution to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a brief statement.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, if the gentleman will wait until we are finished with resolutions, I will have no objection to him making a statement. At this time, I must object until we complete resolutions.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the Senator yield until we have completed our resolutions?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, no I won't.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object to the gentleman making a statement. I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. WALKER, will state his point of order.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, there is nothing before the Senate but the introduction of resolutions.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The objection of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, is well taken.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I would like to suggest to the Majority Leader that if he had the same push and pull in the last eight months, we would be through with the Session by this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread upon the record.

INTERROGATIONS

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I wish to present a resolution and desire to make a brief statement before doing so.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I interrogate the gentleman from Northampton, Senator Yosko?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Yosko, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. YOSKO. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I ask the gentleman from Northampton if the remarks he is going to make are on the resolution which he proposes to offer?

Mr. YOSKO. Yes, sir.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I ask the gentleman to yield on his remarks until the resolution is read? Will the gentleman offer his resolution and make his remarks after?

Mr. YOSKO. In my opinion, Mr. President, I think the remarks ought to precede the introduction of the resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There has been objection to unanimous consent to making a statement prior to presenting the resolution.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I will bear with the gentleman's decision that in his opinion the remarks would sound better coming ahead of the resolution than behind, and I withdraw my objection and permit the gentleman to make his remarks, but may I ask him to please confine them to the resolution?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Northampton, Mr. YOSKO, has been granted unanimous consent to make a brief statement prior to presenting a resolution.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, before I make the statement, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. It is always a pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, will the distinguished Majority Leader tell me why he is objecting to anyone exercising his prerogatives in this chamber?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I have no objection to the gentleman speaking at length on any subject that might occur to him as soon as we finish the introduction of resolutions. I am merely trying to hold to that agenda until we have completed it. I have no objection at all to the gentleman speaking as long as he so desires on any subject he so desires as soon as we finish resolutions. We are merely in the introduction of resolutions, and I might say, Mr. President, for the information of or to remind the gentleman from Northampton, that he has presented me with three resolutions which he proposes to introduce at this time. I am perfectly willing to have him introduce them and discuss them, but I am asking the gentleman to please confine his discussion at this point to the resolution which he is offering. Now anything that is not germane to the resolution, I have no objection to him discussing that as soon as we have completed the resolutions. I think that is fair enough, Senator.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. May I proceed with my remarks, Mr. President?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Northampton will proceed with his remarks on the resolution he is about to offer.

Mr. YOSKO Mr. President, I want to talk about rackets and racketeers. That is the subject matter of my resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. YOSKO Mr. President, every once in awhile I like a little sport, and every once in awhile I go to the race tracks. I have been at race tracks in Jersey, New York, Maryland and Delaware, and each time I have been to the race track I went there by automobile, and if you have ever been at a race track you know that there is great space made available to those who drive to the track, and when the races were over and I went out to get my automobile, I naturally had a chance to see the license plates, and at each one of these tracks, to my amazement I found that a number of cars that were parked in the lots at these race tracks were Pennsylvania cars, Pennsylvania cars in the great majority, and that only told me one thing, that there were millions of dollars being poured into other States by Pennsylvanians, and that Pennsylvania was not getting one iota of benefit from it. So, I thought probably since every State surrounding Pennsylvania had legalized racing, that it might be a good idea to legalize racing in Pennsylvania, so that Pennsylvania could get the benefit of these tax dollars, as well as Pennsylvania business houses get the benefit of the business that would be brought into Pennsylvania as a result of legalized racing. So, I went to the Legislative Reference Bureau early in the Session and I asked them to prepare a bill for me that would authorize the General State Authority to build three race tracks, one in the Philadelphia area, one in the Pittsburgh area and one in the Wilkes-Barre-Scranton area, and the bill calls for these tracks to operate on a State monopoly basis; that is, whatever profit would be realized from the tracks would go to the State, and under the terms of the bill whatever profits were realized would be used to pay off the soldiers' bonus or as much as was taken in to be applied toward the payment of the soldiers' bonus.

Mr. President, I will not go into the other details of the bill, but since it was a revenue raising bill, I gave it to one of my colleagues in the House, Francis Bucchin, from the City of Bethlehem, and he introduced it here and, of course, like many progressive bills that have been introduced during this Session, it was referred to committee and there it lies, there it lies, in spite of the fact that the millions in tax dollars could be used to help finance the obligations of the Commonwealth just as the tax dollars realized at race tracks in every State neighboring Pennsylvania help to finance the obligations of those States.

Mr. President, for my information, and I am going to give it to you, I compiled some statistics from tracks surrounding Pennsylvania, and during the year 1950, tracks surrounding Pennsylvania, there were, in round figures, 16,000,000 people who went to the race tracks. There was $870,000,000 bet last year at those race tracks. There was approximately $60,000,000 paid to those States in taxes, and by the way, in the State of New York, in addition to the State getting this revenue, they now provide that a portion of the taxes collected be allocated to the local municipalities, and there was fifteen and one-half million dollars from the race tracks that was allocated to the local municipalities in the State of New York last year. There was paid to the owners about $50,000,000, in round figures, and paid to the betters, $566,000.00.

I repeat, Mr. President, of all these millions, of all these millions, Pennsylvania dollars are well represented, but yet Pennsylvania does not get a nickel of it. All of the Pennsylvania dollars pour into the neighboring States. I frankly see nothing wrong with legalizing racing. Some people will disagree with me, that is true. People disagree with a lot of things, but in one breath we refuse to legalize racing and in the next breath we permit the bookies and all sorts of other racketeers to function in Pennsylvania, and they all reap the harvest. If the bookies are permitted to function, then, of course, the Treasury lotteries, the Treasury balance lotteries say, if the bookies can function, we can function, and if the bookies and the Treasury balance lotteries function, then the slot machine racket says, we can function, and the result is we have a whole conglomeration of rackets functioning all over Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, you know and I know that the United States Senate Crimes Investigating Committee is now conducting an investigation on racketeering throughout the United States, and it made no exception of Pennsylvania. It has been in Pennsylvania, and just recently it held a hearing in Washington, and at that hearing a captain of the Pennsylvania State Police testified that about $30,000,000 is milked from Pennsylvania on the Treasury balance racket, and this same Pennsylvania State Police Captain, Captain McElroy, said that the head of this racket in Pennsylvania was a Louis Cohen, who divided his time between Pennsylvania, the Pocono Mountains, his home, and Florida. I do not know whether he said this or not, but this same Louis Cohen, I am reliably informed, has that summer home in the Pocono Mountains just a stone's throw from the State Police Barracks up there. The State Police seem to know all about what is going on. They seem to know how much money is coming in, they seem to know who operates these rackets, and yet the people who they name walk the streets just as free as those who participate in no rackets at all, and it is about time, Members of this Senate, that the Pennsylvania State Police, if it has all these facts, do something about these rackets.

Here a short time ago the head of the State Police came before the Senate Appropriations Committee to justify a $20,000,000 appropriation, and I asked him then what he was doing about these rackets, what he was doing about cleaning up these rackets, in particular the Treasury balance racket, and he asked me how I would go about stopping it, and I told him then, and I repeat now, that if I had the twenty-million that he was asking for, and I had the personnel of the State Police available to me, and all of the other things that he has available to him, I would do something about the rackets with direct positive action and not in words, and I repeat that now. I say to you, Mr. President, one of the things that is perhaps wrong with the State Police is that most of the personnel has been reduced to traffic cops. If anyone thinks that every Member of the State Police is at liberty to go out and break up rackets, all they have to do is ask them, and they will give you the answer. It is about time they organize a real honest aggressive racket busting division within the State Police, and give every State Policeman the right to break up a racket wherever he knows it to exist, and the sooner we do that the sooner we are going to break up these rackets here in Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, if we want to be lily white and we do not want to legalize racing, all right, let us be lilly white, but let us try to stop those who are reaping a harvest in millions, and if we do that, then we can with justification say we in Pennsylvania are not for legalized racing.

Mr. President, just a short time ago the State Authority had a picnic here in Harrisburg, and if anybody in Pennsylvania ought to be an example of being opposed to rackets, it ought to be every branch of the State Government, but yet, from the story I read in the papers, they held this picnic and what did they have but a lot of slot machines functioning, which is an indication to me, at least, that the slot machine racket is functioning in this area, with the main office of the State Police right here in its midst and yet nothing done about it. I say to you, Mr. President, we ought to do one or the other. We ought to fall in line with other States and get some of those tax dollars, or we ought to do something about stopping the racketeers from getting the millions of dollars from our citizens.

SENATE RESOLUTION

SENATE COMMITTEE ON RULES TO ACT ON CERTAIN RESOLUTION IN ITS POSSESSION DEALING WITH RACKETS OPERATING IN PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, August 21, 1951.

Whereas, Investigations conducted by the United States Crimes Committee relative to racketeering in Pennsylvania, particularly the Treasury Balance racket, established the need for a bi-partisan State Legislative Crime Committee, and

Whereas, Captain Harry E. McElroy of the Pennsylvania State Police, at a recent hearing of the United States Senate Crime Investigating Committee testified that the Treasury Balance racket milks more than $30,000,000 (30 million dollars) from Pennsylvania residents each year, and

Whereas, Captain McElroy further testified that the head of the Treasury Balance racket in Pennsylvania is Louis Cohen, who has a home in the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania and

Whereas, Captain McElroy also testified that in addition to the Treasury Balance syndicate operated by Louis Cohen, Pennsylvania has a half dozen "independents" who run Treasury Balance lotteries and take is "a couple of million" dollars a year, and

Whereas, Although this information is known to the Pennsylvania State Police, Louis Cohen and others operating the Treasury Balance racket have not been molested, apprehended, or arrested, but on the contrary apparently continue to operate this huge racket, and

Whereas, The Pennsylvania State Police have failed to organize an active, aggressive racket busting squad for the purpose of eliminating racketeering in Pennsylvania

Therefore Be It Resolved, That the Senate Committee on Rules be directed to act immediately and favorably on the resolutions in its possession calling for the establishment of a bi-partism crime committee to investigate all forms of rackets operating in Pennsylvania.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object to immediate consideration of the resolution.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HALUSKA asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. Haluska. Mr. President, in regard to the statement made by my colleague from Northampton County, I believe that every man has the right and the prerogative to introduce resolutions or introduce bills, but I want to go on record and state that the Democratic Party has not gone on record by his resolution advocating or sponsoring legislation to legalize horse racing in Pennsylvania. That has not been our position, and the gentleman purely spoke on his own behalf. He has a right to do so.

HOUSE MESSAGE

HOUSE NON-CONCURS IN SENATE AMENDMENTS
TO HOUSE BILL No. 718

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House has non-concurred in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 718, entitled:

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to aid certain school districts

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WAGNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I want to make a motion regarding this bill. In order to do so and keep my own position clear, it is absolutely necessary that I preface the motion with an introductory statement.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I do this for two reasons; one, because we have in the gallery this afternoon, or in the balcony, a very distinguished group of local leaders of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, who are engaged in workshop work at Chambersburg, and who have honored the Senate with their presence for a short time this afternoon. Some of them surely will be from districts that are involved in the appropriation which is covered by this House Bill. They may want to get the story straight and take it home to their teachers, who may not yet be paid up to date. Secondly, I want to say that this is the bill about which we had somewhat furious debate here on two different days. It is the bill over which Senator Haluska and I differed, not, however, about the desire to help distressed teachers. Because of the debate, I feel the House apparently concluded that they should non-concur in the amendment that the Senate put into House Bill No. 718, and possibly have a conference committee and adjust the figure somewhere reasonably satisfactory to everybody.

Unfortunately, Mr. President, developments over which some of us, at least, have no control have put us in the position where we are about to recess for practically a month. If we do not get this bill back to the House for signature in a matter of minutes, no teachers with back salaries will get any money earlier than sometime after the seventeenth of September when we return here. To me that would be tragic. I am terribly disappointed that the House non-concurred in the Senate amendment increasing the appropriation to $750,000. I was delighted that the Senate, two committees, the Education Committee, then the Appropriations Committee, and finally the Senate unanimously amended the bill to provide $750,000 to cover this distress. That was our intent. We are back where we started to $270,000, but in order that the most urgent need may be cared for, in order that the distressed teachers, from a salary standpoint, may have their situation and condition alleviated just a little bit, because of that, Mr. President, I want to make a motion that the Senate recede from its amendments to House Bill No. 718.

SENATE RECEDES FROM ITS AMENDMENTS NON-CONCURRED IN BY THE HOUSE TO HOUSE
BILL No. 718

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate recede from its amendments non-concurred in by the House to House Bill No. 718, entitled:

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to aid certain school districts.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill County, Senator Wagner.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Wagner, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WAGNER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Senator Wagner, if the Senate does not recede from its position to cut the appropriation from $750,000 to $270,000 will you tell me whether that money will be divided equally throughout distressed districts or whether the money will be allocated to Schuylkill and Northumberland Counties only?

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, the gentleman knows that there is no way I can answer that question. There are rules and regulations established which are very binding upon the Department of Public Instruction and upon the State Tax Equalization Board for the distribution of this money. The amount, the portion of the request that shall be made to a school district has to stand all the various tests of these two groups. There is not any possible way, by law or otherwise, that you can make a per capita distribution or anything approaching it. That is completely beyond my or his or our control.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I want to thank the gentleman for his answer. We did debate the issue a number of days, and this entire body in the Senate voted for a $750,000 appropriation because, while we disagreed with the reason for the appropriation, we all did agree, however, that the teachers must be paid, and I am not trying to put the Senator in a spot in any manner whatsoever. I am only interested in knowing that since the appropriation is being cut from $750,000 to $270,000, naturally it is quite a difference, and I am interested in other counties other than Schuylkill and Northumberland.

As the gentleman pointed out last week, we have a number of districts, Cambria County, Fayette County, Greene, Washington, etc., and I trust that they will receive some consideration out of the small sum appropriated. Now, just how they are going to arrive at the appropriation or per capita, I do not know, but I am somewhat alarmed since Schuylkill County is the greatest offender, that they receive only a portion of it and not all of it. Now I realize that the Senator from Schuylkill probably cannot answer that question, but I am also interested in knowing that my county will get what is coming to it.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, if the gentleman will yield for a minute, I would like to say that I presume what he meant to state was that since Schuylkill County was the greatest sufferer, not offender, and that they might get the most money. The only thing I can suggest to the gentleman, and I am not questioning his sincerity and fairness at the moment, the only thing I can suggest is that he has made it evident for the record that there is concern about some alleviation over the distressed areas of the State rather than any one or two places, and I certainly think that the Department, within the limits of the regulations which govern their determinations, will see to it that in so far as possible everybody who is distressed gets some aid to hold them over until the seventeenth, Senator, at which time some further approach can be taken.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, just to keep the record straight, at no time did I say otherwise than what I knew and felt, that the entire Commonwealth practically was involved in this situation of getting money for the teachers, and I do not want the implication that I only said Schuylkill County. I am fully aware of the fact that other counties in the Commonwealth are finding themselves in the same position, but I did say on a number of occasions that while Schuylkill County may be the greatest sufferer, I said offender, because of lack of proper administration. I said that a number of times, and I mean that. I believe that Schuylkill County has done little to help themselves. Other counties at least have made an effort, an honest effort to help themselves.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I just want to add this, and say that the objections that were made to the allocation of funds to distressed school districts were not so much objections to a particular school district, but as I pointed out yesterday, when the same school district comes in year after year, year after year, and gets a big chunk of this money, something must be wrong some place and it is about time this thing was brought to a head. It is about time the thing was investigated. I get stories from up in Northumberland and Schuylkill Counties to the effect that the big coal companies just do not pay their taxes. They let the property go by default. The County Commissioners buy it in and then they sell it back to a straw man, and the first thing you know the coal companies have the properties again and then the same procedure follows, and that is year after year, year after year, and it has got to be stopped because it is developing into a racket.

Mr. President, I could see where a school district periodically might get into financial trouble, but as I said before, when they come in year after year, then there is something wrong. They are either not obeying the instructions that they get from the Department of Public Instruction when they got the previous allocation, or there must be collusion, conspiracy some place, because if the Department of Public Instruction gives the money one year and tells them, gives them certain instructions to follow so that they will not be in the same mess next year, and they do not follow those instructions, then if they come back the next year and they are in the same state, I just do not have any pity for a school district of that kind. They ought to get rid of the school directors, they ought to get rid of somebody, because they are not fit to represent the people of the area that they do represent.

Mr. President, I fully realize that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is responsible for the educational system in Pennsylvania, and I think I have a right to say the school directors are the agents of the Commonwealth to carry out the educational program, and if the school directors do not carry out that program and if they do not conduct themselves in accordance with law, then there ought to be some sort of procedure to remove them and replace them, and I understand there is a bill that passed the House that would do that very thing. The bill is in the Senate Committee on Education, and it has not moved out. I talked with Senator Wagner this morning and he told me that there was another bill coming through the House that is on Third Reading that might take care of the situation, and I think he is holding it temporarily for that reason, but I repeat, we have got to do something about it. I told Senator Wagner this morning, and I want to say it to Senator Wolfe, too, my remarks, I hope they will not construe as directed at either one of the Senators, because I think they are doing a good job and they are trying to represent their constituents as best they can, but the fault lies right back home, and the sooner they clean up the mess back home the less time we are going to spend on debating it here in the Senate Chamber.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair would ask the cooperation of the Membership here. We have allowed wide latitude on the discussion of a motion.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I dislike very much to inject myself in this debate here this afternoon. However, I believe we are sort of gilding the lily, because we are re-hashing what has been said over and over again. Senator Wagner stated here it was a matter of minutes and unless we receded from our position, our schoolteachers would not receive any remuneration whatsoever, and, therefore, I believe that the way to end this debate and to go on with our business is to ask that the motion be called and in addition to that, Mr. President, I might add that the only way to correct this situation is to get at the source and we cannot do it by re-hashing the same subject day after day.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair sympathizes with the remarks of the gentleman from Washington.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I do not understand why we all have to be in a hurry all of a sudden after loafing here for eight months. We have had a very fine vacation for eight months, come down for the ride, and stay in the hotels, and eat good meals, and pay for them ourselves—

PREVIOUS QUESTION

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, two hundred and eight Members of the House are waiting for this bill. I move the previous question.

Mr. LANE. I second the motion, Mr. President.

Mr. TAYLOR. I second the motion, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. I second the motion, Mr. President.
And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—2

Holland,      Yosko,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

SENATE RESOLUTION

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS TO APPOINT A COMMISSION OR COMMITTEE WITH THE POWER TO RE-ALLOCATE REVENUES

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, August 21, 1951.

Any study of existing tax structure that attempts to delve beneath the politically expedient surface of conditions now menacing the independent status of the American citizen reveals a shocking lack of tax coordination among the several levels of government under which an American citizen lives, thrives, and dies.

In particular, the extent to which confusion and overlapping of federal, state and local taxes have developed is strikingly illustrated by the report for the fiscal year 1948—in which ninety per centum of the 39½ billions of federal tax collection and the 6½ billions of state revenue was accounted for by dual taxation on the part of both governmental agencies.

Even a brief survey of the duplication and the triplication of taxes in the major fields of tax revenue—personal income, corporate earnings, inheritance, tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, gasoline, amusements, etc.—leads to the inescapable conclusion that a major overhauling of tax structures is imperative to provide relief to the harassed American taxpayer, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate memorialize Congress to appoint a commission or a committee with the power to reallocate revenues in order that government services which can be more effectively performed at state and local levels be returned to state and local governments along with a restoration to them of the taxes and the tax-raising functions now supporting these services at the federal level, and be it further

Resolved, That the Senate memorialize Congress to invest said commission with the powers to examine every phase of national, state, and local governments with respect to their interlocking fiscal problems.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, this resolution calls for the establishment of a committee on expenditures in the Senate. We have been here for eight months, as was said time and time again. We have been talking about spending money, allocating money and talking about taxes. It is about time we started to scrutinize expenditures, it is about time we set up a Senate Committee for that purpose, and I am sure that if this committee is set up and if it is permitted to function while the Legislature is not in Session, we can probably curtail some of the expenditures, and in that way reduce the amount of the budget which, of course, will follow by the need for less taxes.

SENATE RESOLUTION

PROVIDING FOR AN ADDITIONAL STANDING COMMITTEE IN THE SENATE TO BE KNOWN AS THE COMMITTEE ON EXPENDITURES

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, August 21, 1951.

Resolved, That there is hereby created an additional standing committee to consist of twenty members, to be known as the Committee on Expenditures, and whose duty shall be to meet during the session of the General Assembly and during the interim between sessions, at the call of the chairman, to inspect and analyze the expenditures made from the appropriations to all departments, boards and commissions of the executive and legislative branches of the State Government, and to make recommendations to the Committee on Appropriations, which its findings warrant.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object.

AUTHORIZING THE SUSPENSION OF CERTAIN PER DIEM EMPLOYEES DURING RECESS

Mr. WALKER offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, August 21, 1951.

Resolved, That the President pro tempore is hereby granted the authority to temporarily suspend certain per diem Senate employees as he deems necessary during the recess already agreed to by the Senate and the House.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolution be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, with regard to the resolution just read whereby the President pro tempore is granted the authority to dismiss from the pay roll as of tonight all the per diem Senate employees, may, I say, Mr. President, that I believe in economy. We all do, but certainly if a patient is sick, you would not cut off his arm to try to make him well, and that is just what you are trying to do now with this resolution.

Mr. President, the mere pittance that we receive for serving in the Senate is only a pittance. We do have, by virtue of a resolution, the right to hire the services of a stenographer, and I think every person in the Commonwealth will agree that at no time in the history of Pennsylvania was there more need for that service than now. Right now we are tussling and grappling with the tax problem. I am receiving more mail now from my constituents, pro and con, on the tax measure, more than I ever received in all the years I served in this chamber. I want to do my duty properly. Every person is entitled to an answer, whether I agree or disagree with his or her opinion, and now we are in recess for a few weeks, and if this resolution is passed, Mr. President, we must go out and hire our own stenographers, if they are available, and pay for it to conduct the business of the Commonwealth. Now, I think that is false economy. I think it is unfair for any man in this body, for the meager salary of fifteen hundred dollars per year, to be called upon to go out and hire and pay for the services of a stenographer. If there are persons in this chamber who have nothing to do during the interim, I find no fault in granting that authority to the President pro tempore. They could be dismissed. Even for them, it would be unfair, because they must earn their livelihood, they must give up their jobs, seek new employment or wait and wait until we come back. In the meantime, they go in debt. For the little amount you save, it means nothing.

Now, Mr. President, I am told that one of the newspapers will blast us. Well, if any newspaper has the audacity to attack any Member in this chamber on such a trifling matter, in my opinion, Mr. President, he is very low. I think most of the papers are fair. They have been fair throughout this Session. They have given this chamber proper publicity, and I am proud of the newspaper reporters, but if one of them now can stoop to the low level and attack this, I think he is hitting below the belt.

Now, Mr. President, speaking very frankly and very sincerely, I say again, Mr. President, that if ever we needed the services of our secretaries, not myself only but every man in this chamber, this is the time we need them. I would like to amend the resolution to exclude the secretaries of the Senators.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am sorry, I did not get the last statement from the gentleman from Cambria. Would the gentleman mind repeating the last statement he made?

Mr. HALUSKA. I would like to have your permission, Mr. President, to amend the resolution to exclude the dismissal of the Senators' secretaries.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I interrogate the gentleman from Cambria?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HALUSKA. Certainly, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to ask the gentleman from Cambria, do I understand he is offering, as an amendment to the resolution which I just presented, the amendment that we exclude from consideration in the amendment the secretaries employed by the individual Members of the Senate?

Mr. HALUSKA. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Is there a second, Mr. President?

Mr. LANE. I second the motion, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, has offered an amendment to the resolution offered by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, which has been properly seconded by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Lane. Are there any remarks?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to keep the very high fraternal spirit among the gentlemen of the Senate. I will not object to the amendment to the resolution offered by the gentleman from Cambria, and seconded by my good friend from Washington.

(The Senate was at ease.)

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There has been a motion to amend the resolution presented. It has been moved by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, and seconded by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Lane, that the resolution be amended to exclude secretaries to Senators.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Clerk will read the resolution as amended.

The Clerk read the resolution, as amended, as follows:

In the Senate, August 21, 1951.

Resolved, That the President pro tempore is hereby granted the authority to temporarily suspend certain per diem Senate employees as he deems necessary during the recess already agreed to by the Senate and the House, excepting, however, the Secretaries of the Members of the Senate.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution, as amended?

The resolution was agreed to, as amended.

SENATE BILL No. 172 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 172, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1388), entitled "An act relating to the practice, procedure, regulations and adjudications of departments, departmental administrative boards and commissions, independent administrative boards and commissions, officers and other administrative agencies of this Commonwealth, and judicial review thereof; and preserving equitable jurisdiction in certain cases," by redefining "regulation"; changing provisions governing promulgation of regulations; imposing duties on the Department of State; providing for judicial review of regulations; requiring all appeals to be taken to the Superior Court; and enumerating appeals to be taken to the Superior Court; and enumerating the agencies affected and the extent to which they are affected.

with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which concurrence of the Senate is requested.

RULE 21 SUSPENDED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 172, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1388), entitled "An act relating to the practice, procedure, regulations and adjudications of departments, departmental administrative boards and commissions, independent administrative boards and commissions, officers and other administrative agencies of this Commonwealth, and judicial review thereof; and preserving equitable jurisdiction in certain cases," by redefining "regulation"; changing provisions governing promulgation of regulations; imposing duties on the Department of State; providing for judicial review of regulations; requiring all appeals to be taken to the Superior Court; and enumerating the agencies affected and the extent to which they are affected.

which was returned from the House of Representatives with amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATION

Mr. WATSON, asked and obtained unanimous consent for immediate consideration of the nomination of Mrs. Hazel B. Bacon as Sheriff in and for the County of Carbon.

The nomination was read as follows:

SHERIFF, CARBON COUNTY

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, August 20, 1951.
To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate Mrs. Hazel B. Bacon, 153 West Abbott Street, Lansford, Carbon County, for appointment as Sheriff in and for the County of Carbon, until the first Monday of January 1952, vice Robert Bacon, Jr., deceased.

JOHN S. FINE.

EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

STATEMENT BY THE MAJORITY FLOOR LEADER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, before we take up today's Calendar, I would like to ask if any of the gentlemen of the Senate, who previously felt a speech moving them, have any remarks they would like to make before we take up the Calendar. I will certainly raise no objection to any comments that might be made for the good of the order. I do not want to shut off any debate at any time. If any gentleman feels the spirit moving him, now is the time.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HOLLAND asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, since he is coaxing me to say a few words, Mr. President, what I wanted to answer the gentleman from Allegheny was that he spoke about hearing a great thud in Washington by the Democrats talking about economy. Now, I believe the shoe is on the other foot. I just read in the paper the other day where both Senator Martin—Senator Duff I believe, Congressman Fulton, who is in the house today, made great attempts in Washington to stand out as the party of economy in government. They were trying to cut everything, and I just noticed the next day that Senator Martin put $200,000,000 back on for one of his pet projects without very much fanfare, but I do think that the Republican Party should make up their minds whether or not the Republican Party in Pennsylvania is the same party as the Republican Party in the Nation. We just saw a great example of great spending in the last four years under Governor Duff. I have been informed that the $100,000,000 balance he was supposed to leave as a surplus, the present Governor is still hunting for the $100,000,000, but has found a lot of deficits rather than the $100,000,000 surplus, and I think it is about time that the Republican Party in Pennsylvania quits posing as the party of economy and should accept their rightful role as the party who wants to tax and tax and tax, who do not want to get any assistance from any outside interest to try to put economy in government, cut the expense of government, or in any way go over the budget which to them seems to be very sacred, and I should like the gentleman from Pennsylvania, the Majority Leader of the Senate, to at least, in the four weeks of recess, sit down with the Republican Party of the Nation, and maybe he will catch this economy feeling they have, and we can economize in this government of our State and do away with taxes.

Mr. President, I certainly appreciate him condescending to give me a chance to get my few cents worth in, and I wish him a lot of luck in the four weeks recess, and I know I will see him around Allegheny County campaigning very very vigorously.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I thank my volunteer campaign manager for those kind remarks. I appreciate his offer of support. It is very welcome. I am very glad to have it. Any kind word he can say for me and the rest of the Republican Ticket in Allegheny County will be very deeply appreciated.

Now, Mr. President, that we have disposed of the November Election, and reunited the Republican Party and Democratic Party is for thrift and economy, too—that has two meanings also—may we revert to the Calendar in the hope that we will get through it without serious delay and without hurting anyone's feelings.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WALKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I explain to the gentlemen of the Senate, the House bills and the bills that are for concurrence will be put over in order so that it will not be embarrassing to lay them on the Governor's desk during the recess. In case further amendments may be necessary, we would be unable to recall them, and we would have placed on the Governor's shoulder the responsibility of vetoing the bills in order to save the proposed amendments. Therefore, Mr. President, I am going to put certain bills over in order merely to keep them in place so that we can constructively act on them after the recess.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 74

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, August 17, 1951.
To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 74, Printer's No. 669, entitled "An Act to amend section two thousand five hundred five of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled 'An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto' by changing the basis for payments on account of school nurses."

This bill proposes to amend Section 2505 of the Public School Code by changing the basis for payment to the School District by the Commonwealth on account of the employment of school nurses.

The bill proposes to decrease the ratio of pupils to the number of nurses employed. The effect of it will be to increase the number of nurses employed by the school districts. The reimbursement for these additional nurses is to be made to the various school districts by the Department of Health. This is estimated to cost the Commonwealth one million dollars in excess of the amount recommended in the budget for that Department.

The Legislature has provided insufficient revenues to meet even the requirements of the budget. There are no funds available to increase the payments to the school districts for nurses in the amount of one million dollars.

Furthermore, it is doubtful whether during this biennium it would be possible for the various districts to find sufficient nurses to comply with the provisions of the bill.

An increased number of school nurses might be desirable, and is a matter which might well receive further study by the Department of Health and receive further consideration at the next regular session of the Legislature.

For the reasons set forth above, the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FINE.

COMMUNICATION AND BILL LAID ON TABLE

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication from the Governor together with the bill be laid on the table.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 1372

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, August 17, 1951.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1372, Printer's No. 683, entitled "An Act to amend Section 308 of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 289) entitled 'An act relating to nonprofit corporations defining and providing for the organization merger consolidation and dissolution of such corporations conferring certain rights powers duties and immunities upon them and their officers and members prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers providing for the inclusion of certain existing corporations of the first class within the provisions of this act prescribing the terms and conditions upon which foreign nonprofit corporations may be admitted or may continue to do business within the Commonwealth conferring powers and imposing duties on the courts of common pleas prothonotaries of such courts recorders of deeds and certain State departments commissions and officers authorizing certain local public officers and State departments to collect fees for services required to be rendered by this act imposing penalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to corporations' by further regulating the method of approval of the borrowing of money and disposition of real estate by nonprofit corporations by the members thereof."

This bill amends Section 308 of the "Nonprofit Corporation Law" of May 5, 1933, P. L. 289, by further regulating the method of approval of the borrowing of money and disposition of real estate by nonprofit corporations by the members thereof.

Prior to this amendment a nonprofit corporation was empowered to borrow money, or purchase or dispose of real estate, only upon the passage of a resolution authorizing the same approved by a majority of the members of a corporation at a regular or special meeting. This amendment provides that the authorizing resolution need be approved only by a majority of the members of the corporation who are then present in person or by proxy.

In the respect that this bill amends Section 308 of the Act of May 5, 1933, P. L. 289, it duplicates an almost identical amendment which, together with other amendments, is proposed by Senate Bill No. 418, Printer's No. 469, approved this day.

Duplication of enactment is to be avoided, making this bill unnecessary.

For this reason, the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FINE.

COMMUNICATION AND BILL LAID ON TABLE

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication from the Governor together with the bill be laid on the table.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 1238.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, August 17, 1951.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1238, Printer's No. 564, entitled "An Act to amend the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled 'An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto' by further regulating reimbursement by the Commonwealth to certain school districts on account of public transportation."

This bill proposes to amend Section 2541 of the Public School Code of 1949, P. L. 30, as amended, by deleting the provisions relating to contracts for public transportation and providing that such payment shall be approved by the Department of Public Instruction, and where such payment is approved to a district owning and operating its own vehicles such approval shall include the same items of expense for operation and maintenance as those allowed for vehicles under contract. In no case shall depreciation allowance be paid for any vehicles which are more than ten years old. Such payments for pupil transportation as now provided for by law are hereby amended to include school districts for a joint board operation.

This bill would necessitate an expenditure of at least $400,000.00 in excess of the amount set forth in the budget to the Department of Public Instruction.

Moreover, the purpose of this bill which in essence is an appropriation item was not included in the budget and the State revenues will not permit its approval at this time.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FINE.

BILLS SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL NO. 1578.

An Act to further amend Section 4 of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1019) entitled "An act relating to statutory laws prescribing an enacting clause for statutes fixing the effective date and time of statutes hereafter enacted providing for notice of application for local and special legislation for the correction of errors in statutes and for the printing and publication of statutes prescribing rules for the interpretation of statutes defining certain words and phrases when used in statutes and prescribing rules for the construction and operation of amendments reenactments and repeals of statutes' by changing the effective date of laws in certain cases

HOUSE BILL No. 1628.

An Act to amend the title and certain sections of and to add new sections to the act approved the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1154) entitled "An act to prohibit the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine or butterine and other similar products when colored in imitation of yellow butter to provide for license fees to be paid by manufacturer wholesale and retail dealers and by proprietors of hotels restaurants dining-rooms and boarding-houses for the manufacture of sale of oleomargarine butterine or other similar products not colored in imitation of yellow butter to regulate the manufacture sale and advertising of oleomargarine butterine or other similar products not colored in imitation of yellow butter and prevent and punish fraud and deception in such manufacture sale and advertising as an imitation butter to prescribe penalties and punishment for violation of this act and the means and method of procedure for its enforcement to regulate certain matters of evidence in such procedure and to prescribe certain powers and duties of the Department of Agriculture" by permitting the manufacture and except in certain cases the sale of colored oleomargarine butterine and similar products

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. ANDREWS. I rise to a question of personal privilege. The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if I did not rise to a question of personal privilege on my own behalf I would certainly rise in behalf of the gentleman from York,

Mr. Seyler, and the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

In the course of the debate yesterday the gentleman from Erie was moved to say: "It is not only pathetic but regrettable that we have a Member in this House who would defend Communism."

I have no way of knowing whether the gentleman from Erie referred to myself, whether he referred to the gentleman from Westmoreland or whether he referred to the gentleman from York, but I do know, Mr. Speaker, that whatever I may have deserved at the hands of the gentleman from Erie, most certainly the gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, and the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, did not deserve that comment.

It was not a comment uttered in the heat of debate as a result of conflict personal in its nature. It was a cruel, deliberate stab with the dagger of untruth.

I cannot endow the gentleman from Erie with either understanding or magnanimity of spirit, but I can, as a Member of this House, demand that there be some semblance of fair play in debate.

It did not require much attention to what the gentleman from Westmoreland said, or what the gentleman from York said, to realize that they did not in any sense by implication, direct or indirect, defend Communism or any similar philosophy.

I would say, Mr. Speaker, that it required far more courage, moral courage, for the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, and the gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, to rise in their places and say what they said than it required upon the part of the gentleman from Erie to say what he said.

It is easy to ride the wave of hysteria and point an accusing finger at everyone who does not accept your particular view concerning the problems which face the people in this Commonwealth, and I protect, not only at the semblance of smear but at its real substance in appearance.

I am sure, Mr. Speaker, that no other Member of this House would have thought of rising in his place and intimating that the gentleman from Westmoreland, who has been a Member of this House these many years, was pleading the cause of Communism and neither, I believe, would any other Member of this House have risen in his place to point an accusing finger at the gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, because of his intellectual convictions to rise and question not only his good faith but his very integrity.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WATERHOUSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, yesterday I made the statement that the gentleman from Cambria refers to. I made it without any reservation. I made it without malice. I made it with humility. There was no indication that my statement, as I said and remember it, referred to anyone except the gentleman from York; but by that statement I intend now to include anyone who would defend any group which would preach the overthrow of our government by force or violence.

I want to further state that it was very deliberate and I think it was fair. One thing that I have learned in this world is to be fair in a fight, and if you get licked to take it. Further I think it is very pathetic, indeed, that the floor of this House has to be the battle ground for two individuals.

There is not any question about Communism or any other ism as to whether it is good for us. If they intend to tear down our government by force or violence or even preach it, there is no place in these United States or this Commonwealth for those groups. I do not think it takes courage to get up and defend someone if you have reason for doing so. Lots of times there are selfish interests. I do not happen to have a selfish interest in this. I am interested in all the people and I have no feud with any one individual.

The vote of the House yesterday, I believe, was a clear indication of how the Members of this House felt about this very issue, and I certainly am willing to stand on anything that I said yesterday or say today. I have never been accused at any time of being unfair with anyone when it could be definitely proven. I have a lot of respect for the gentleman from Cambria. I have enjoyed his eloquence many times. There have been times that I have felt that possibly the gentleman was carried away by his own eloquence. I think in this case he is using his talents for a very, very sad thing and that is to even attempt to say that we should not pass legislation which will rule out—make it unlawful—for any person or group of persons to advocate the overthrow of your government and mine by force or violence.

INTERROGATION

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, just for the purpose of the record I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman say that as a matter of mature consideration he still desires the record to read that he accuses the gentleman from Westmoreland of defending Communism?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I did not say that. I said that I felt that it was regrettable that any Member should see fit to oppose legislation that would make it unlawful in this Commonwealth for anyone to advocate the overthrow of the Commonwealth by force or violence. That can apply to anyone.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, a further question. Can the gentleman produce from his notes what he actually said yesterday? It is not correct that he said: "It is regrettable that we have a Member of this House who would defend Communism?"

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, and I went further and said: "or any group which would advocate the overthrow." I will take Communism in that or any other ism.

Mr. ANDREWS. Will the gentleman please, Mr. Speaker, answer the question. Does he accuse the gentleman from Westmoreland and the gentleman from York of having defended Communism? That is the issue. That is the question.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will get yesterday's statements and repeat them as I said them—he is asking me half of what I said—if he will ask me all I said, then I will be very glad to answer the question.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am only quoting what the Press said the gentleman said. I am only objecting to the fact. Not that you criticized the gentleman for supporting or for opposing the bill; that, sir, was the gentleman's privilege. But it was not his privilege, in view of what they said, to spread broadcast over this Commonwealth the charge that they had risen in their places and defended Communism. No amount of subterfuge upon the part of the gentleman from Erie can obscure that basic fundamental issue, and the gentleman as yet has not answered.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, there is no subterfuge at all. I said yesterday it was regrettable, pathetic, that any Member of this House would take the floor in defense of Communism or any other subversive group which advocated the overthrow of this government by force or violence and I so state now. Does that answer the gentleman's question? I am not angry. I am sincere in my statement and I believe that the gentleman himself is too good an American to differ with that opinion if it were not for personal reasons.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the gentleman's statement is still evasive. We are not concerned with the merits of the measure in question. We are only concerned with the matter of whether the gentleman from Westmoreland and the gentleman from York defended Communism, and not whether Communism or any other group allied to it was the sort of group that ought to have been legislated against.

That is the basic issue and it would stand on the record that the gentleman specifically accuses the gentleman from Westmoreland and the gentleman from York of having defended Communism which is a deliberate untruth.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WATERHOUSE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

The gentleman from Cambria again is distorting the statement. I will stand on what I said yesterday or what I have said today and I think it is in the official record. I would suggest that the gentleman get the official record and see exactly what I did say.

If I said anything there which accuses anyone of anything then I will stand on that. I do not think I said a thing about the gentleman from Westmoreland nor did I say a thing about the Minority Leader. But I did say, and again I repeat, in mentioning the gentleman from York, that is was regrettable that anyone would take the stand that he did, and I still think it is.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SEYLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I regret that the incident that has occurred has occurred. I wish now to make a statement which will, I hope, clear beyond any doubt in any mind, including the mind of the gentleman from Erie.

My position is this. I am opposed to Communism. I am opposed to Communists. I want to preserve the democratic way of life, the American way of life. I differ from the sponsors of the bill in regard to the methods they wish to employ for that purpose.

In regard to the gentleman from Erie, I am now rather confused as to what he is intending to say or did intend to say. It was my impression yesterday that he had made a statement which certainly implied that I was rising in defense of Communism.

I wish to brand that statement if he made it, or if he still maintains it, as an untruth, and inasmuch as we have had considerable explanation I can put no other interpretation upon the statement than as a deliberate misunderstanding of my position.

I think the fact that the newspapers have quoted him indicates that there were others beside myself who received that implication.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. PETROSKY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in reference to a resolution that Mr. Mills and I introduced in the House on June 26, regarding flood conditions in Westmoreland County, I note that there has been no favorable action by the Rules Committee upon that resolution.

The condition that exists in Westmoreland County has been very trying to the people, and has been an undoubted hardship upon the industries located in the flood area. We believe that the State Department could aid those communities immensely with a very small amount of work if done by their skilled staff.

I again appeal to the majority in this House to take action on that resolution, and in that connection would like to spread upon the record a communication from the Greensburg Area Industrial Union Council, together with a resolution that was unanimously adopted at their last meeting.

The SPEAKER. Without objection the matter referred to by the gentleman will be noted in the record.

Greensburg Area Industrial Union Council
C. I. O., 4 N. Pennsylvania Ave.
Greensburg, Pennsylvania, July 27, 1951.

Hon. Anthony J. Petrosky
State Legislator
Slickville, Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. Petrosky:

Enclosed is a resolution adopted by the Greensburg Area Industrial Union Council which deems it necessary to bring to your attention the recent disastrous floods resulting in many thousands of dollars in property damage to Industrial Plants and homes in the Greensburg section of Westmoreland County. Plants were closed for weeks causing loss of production, people by the thousands were forced out of work for indefinite periods.

We feel that necessary action on your part will result in a thorough study and flood dams will be built to relieve the burden of disaster and hardship to the Industrial Plants and the people of Westmoreland County.

Trusting you will give this your immediate attention with thanks.

(Seal)

Respectively yours,

Louis Ewald, President
Raymond Hearn, Rec-Secretary

RESOLUTION

Whereas, the area of South Greensburg in Westmoreland County is a highly industrialized area engaged almost 100% in production vitally necessary for national defense; and

Whereas, in the last year by reason of heavy rains, floods have resulted causing extensive damage to these plants engaged in defense production causing shut-down of the plants and many days loss of work to the employees and great loss of production to the defense effort; and

Whereas, such floods have in prior years resulted in extensive damage to such industries by reason of the fact that facilities for taking care of the water from the water basin in the area are insufficient;

Now therefore be it resolved by the Greensburg Area Industrial Union Council, on behalf of its 30,000 members in Westmoreland County and on behalf of the employers by whom said employees are employed, that the federal, state, county and municipal authorities having jurisdiction over the area take such steps as are necessary to erect flood control dams so as to eliminate the danger of floods in the future; and

Be it further resolved that copies of this resolution be sent to the proper governmental officials with the request that they take such action as the resolution directs.

Unanimously adopted at Greensburg, Pennsylvania this 27th day of July, 1951.

Louis Ewald, President
Raymond Hearn, Recording-Secretary

SENATE

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1951.

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. WILLIAM D. McLEAN, Pastor of St. Peters Episcopal Church, Butler, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Who hast given us this good land for our heritage, we humbly beseech Thee to send Thy guiding spirit on the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania now assembled. Grant that all their deliberations will be settled according to Thy laws, without error and ignorance, without pride and prejudice, so that the safety, honor and welfare of Thy people may be advanced to Thy honor and glory, and for the benefit of all Thy people.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. CROWE, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

JOHN S. FINE.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

He also presented communications in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were read as follows:

APPROVED AND SIGNED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECALLING SENATE BILL No. 739, PRINTER'S No. 442.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, August 24, 1951.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Concurrent Resolution recalling from the Governor Senate Bill No. 739, Printer's No. 442, for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

JOHN S. FINE.

The PRESIDENT. The bill will be laid on the table.

SENATE BILL No. 110, PRINTER'S No. 381 RETURNED WITHOUT APPROVAL

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, August 25, 1951.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 110, Printer's No. 381, entitled "An Act to facilitate traffic in the northern section of the Commonwealth by providing for the construction operation and maintenance of a turnpike from a point on the Erie extension to a point on the Scranton extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike or to a point on the northeastern extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike at such points as the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission may decide are the most feasible and practicable for the further extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike from or near the City of Erie in Erie County or to or near the City of Scranton in Lackawanna County or to a point on the northeastern extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike conferring powers and imposing duties on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission authorizing the issuance of turnpike revenue bonds of the Commonwealth payable solely from tolls to pay the cost of such turnpike and to issue notes or other evidences of indebtedness providing that no debt of the Commonwealth shall be incurred in the exercise of any of the powers granted by this act providing for the collection of tolls for the payment of such bonds notes or other evidences of indebtedness and for the cost of maintenance operation and repair of the turnpike making such turnpike bonds notes or other evidences of indebtedness exempt from taxation constituting such bonds legal investments in certain instances requiring suits against the commission to be brought in Dauphin County prescribing conditions on which such turnpike shall become free providing for grade separations grade changes relocations restoration and vacation of public roads and State highways affected by the turnpike providing for the purchasing or condemnation of land and procedure for determining damages in condemnation granting certain powers and authority to municipal subdivisions and agencies of the Commonwealth to cooperate with the commission and authorizing the issuance of turnpike revenue refunding bonds."

This bill authorizes the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission to construct an extension of the Turnpike from a point on the proposed Erie Extension of the Turnpike near Erie to a point on the proposed Scranton Extension or Northeastern Extension of the Turnpike near Scranton.

The Erie Extension was authorized by the Act of May 9, 1949, P. L. 1037, and the Scranton Extension was authorized by the Act of May 9, 1949, P. L. 1050. The Northeastern Extension is authorized by House Bill No. 1484 which has been passed by both houses of the General Assembly, but has not been sent to me for approval as of this date. The Scranton Extension Act, supra, is expressly repealed by said House Bill No. 1484.

Construction of neither the Erie nor the Scranton Extensions has been commenced. This means that the bill is calling for an extension of the Turnpike to connect two presently non-existent extensions or to connect to an extension which has not yet been authorized by law. Such a situation is by no means an orderly method of bringing about the expansion of our excellent Turnpike System and would undoubtedly cause more harm than good.

Furthermore, the condemnation procedure and financing provisions of the bill are not the same as those set forth for the Delaware River Extension authorized by the Act of May 23, 1951 (Act No. 74) and the Northeastern Extension proposed by the aforesaid House Bill No. 1484, and this disparity could seriously hamper its workability in relation to the overall Turnpike System.

The sounder and more orderly approach to this matter would seem to be legislation passed at such time as the extensions, to which the proposed extension is to connect, are constructed or their construction is underway. At that time it will be possible to more accurately gauge the need for such an extension and to pass appropriate legislation if it then seems advisable.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FINE.

SENATE BILL No. 508, PRINTER'S No. 219 RETURNED WITHOUT APPROVAL

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, August 24, 1951.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 508, Printer's No. 219, entitled "An Act to amend Sections 1 and 2 of the act approved the eighteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 253 No. 114) entitled 'An act relating to suits by shareholders against officers or directors in a corporation domestic or foreign to enforce a secondary right because the corporation refuses to enforce rights which may be asserted by it requiring that plaintiff be a shareholder at the time of the transaction of which he complains or that his shares thereafter devolved upon him by operation of law requiring security for defendant's expenses including attorneys' fees and providing for the assessment and recovery of such expenses including attorneys' fees' by extending the provisions thereof to corporations having no capital stock and authorizing corporations to indemnify directors officers and other persons against certain expenses."

This bill would amend the Act of April 18, 1945, P. L. 253, which limited derivative suits by shareholders against officers or directors of a corporation to persons who were shareholders at the time of the transaction against which the complaint was filed, and authorized a corporation to require security for costs and attorneys' fees of the plaintiffs in such suits when they represent less than five per centum of the outstanding shares.

This bill would extend those provisions of the Act of 1945 to include not only suits by shareholders of a corporation, but also suits by owners of a proprietary interest in the corporation.

Section 3 of the Act of 1945 also provided that the reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in the successful defense of such a suit are to be assessed upon the corporation; and if the defense is only partially successful, the court is to determine and assess the extent of such costs to be paid by the corporation. Without regard to that section, this bill would add a new section to the act to authorize a corporation, with or without capital stock, to indemnify its directors or officers involved in such a suit against actual and necessary expenses incurred in the defense thereof, provided the defendant is not adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty.

Under the proposed amendment, the costs incurred by the officers or directors would be paid by the corporation irrespective of whether or not such officers or directors were successful in the defense of the suit, so long as there was not an affirmative finding of negligence or misconduct. This seems to be an unwarranted and unnecessary extension of the present provision of the law, which fully indemnify such officers or directors when they successfully defend the suit, and authorize the court to determine to what extent they shall be indemnified when their defense is only partially successful. The court having jurisdiction of the case is in a better position than the corporation to determine the merit and extent of such indemnities.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FINE, Governor.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

certain duties relating to the reporting, quarantining, and control of diseases declared communicable by law or regulation.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I regret very much that after this recess I have to be the first Member of the Senate to stand up and make a speech, and I regret, too, that the kind of a speech I am going to make is probably at least as distasteful to me as I am sure it will be to the other Members of the Senate.

Mr. President, I have to talk a little bit about our State mental institutions, and in particular the Allentown State Hospital. When I was an employee of the Auditor General's Department, the auditors used to come back and tell me weird stories about our State institutions, things that they saw, things they heard and things they learned during the course of making the audit in an institution, which took in some cases two, three and four weeks. Some of the things they said were almost unbelievable. So, a survey was made on the quiet to determine whether or not some of the conditions complained of were actually true, and when the report came back I am sorry to say that many of the things that were complained of were found to be true. I have reports on those institutions here in my files, but since this survey was made, back in, I think 1946, I have never referred to it because I was always under the impression that the conditions had been remedied.

You will remember Life Magazine portrayed the terrible conditions at Byberry and other State institutions. You will remember that we had scandals at White Hill, Pennhurst, Morganza and the Scranton Oral School for the Deaf I am not going to go into what happened at that time. It is all a matter of record. Each scandal was thoroughly publicized and because of that, as I said before, I sort of came to the conclusion that those things were corrected.

Then Mr. President, the State Authority came along and put on a building program, and millions and millions of dollars were spent for new construction and for improvements in our State institutions, but it seems to me that four walls do not make a mental health program. I remember Governor Duff when he campaigned last year for the United States Senate, that one of the things he boasted about was the Mental Health Program in Pennsylvania. He said it was second to none, and I am assuming that he said that because of the millions that were being spent for construction and improvements at the State institutions, but I say again, Mr. President, that buildings do not make good hospitals. If treatment for the sick people is not provided for, if you do not have a sufficient number of nurses, if you do not have a sufficient number of doctors, if you do not have a sufficient number of attendants, if the food is not good if the discipline is not the kind it ought to be and if the institution is not clean, if those things do not exist, then an institution is nothing more than four walls where people are sent to die. That is all it amounts to, and I repeat, Mr. President, that after hearing from Governor Duff and others talk, I assumed that the things I just mentioned existed in our State Hospitals.

Mr. President, last Wednesday Albert Prospero came to my office, and he told me that his brother was out at the Allentown State Hospital. He told me that he had died there and he told me that when his body was delivered to the undertaker it was found to be full of bruises and marks. I called the undertaker to verify the statements of Mr. Prospero and, sure enough, the undertaker told me that he had bruises about his face and neck, on his side from his hips to his shoulders, and his legs and his back, and then Mr. Prospero asked me if I would not request the proper State officials to conduct an investigation. So, I wrote a letter to the Secretary of Welfare, Mr. Brown, and sent copies to the Attorney General and to the Governor, and I gave them the facts and asked them to make an investigation. In the meantime, I suggested to Mr. Prospero that he have pictures taken of the body. He had those pictures taken and I want every Member of the Senate to take a look at these pictures. As a matter of fact, I am going to pass them around, and I want you to take a look at them and see for yourselves the marks on the body of this dead man.

Now, Mr. President, this man walked into the institution, of course with a defective mind, without any marks on his body, and three months later he was sent home on a slab in this condition. I do not know what to make of this, but there was a young fellow that worked down at the Allentown State Hospital as an attendant, who learned that pictures were going to be taken, and he said to Albert Prospero, "When you take these pictures," he said, "just look around the heart and see if there are any marks there." He said, "Don't ask me any more questions, just look," and, sure enough, when the photographer took the pictures—I was not over there myself—I asked him whether there were any marks around the heart, and, sure enough, there are three of them. How they got there, I do not know, but they are there. What effect they had on this man's death, I do not know, either. There was no autopsy performed because the coroner got down to the funeral parlor about fifteen minutes before the body was taken from the funeral parlor to the church. He approached the wife of this man and asked her whether or not she wanted to have an autopsy performed, and that if she did they would have to postpone the funeral until next week. Of course, she did not want to go through that. She did not want to delay the funeral. She was satisfied that the marks were there, she was satisfied that the evidence would be prevalent from the pictures that were taken. So, she signed the statement that they prepared for her to the effect that he had died from natural causes.

Mr. President, how could she know whether he died from natural causes? How could the doctor, or the coroner or anybody else determine that he died from natural causes unless there was an autopsy performed? It was not the job of the coroner to go to the wife of Mr. Prospero and ask her whether or not she wanted an autopsy performed. As a public official, as the coroner, it was his duty, with this evidence, to perform the autopsy and he would not have had to delay the funeral until next week either, because he could have performed that autopsy and it would not have taken him any more than four hours, at the most, and he could have determined the cause of death himself.

Mr. President, the Secretary of Welfare wrote me and told me there was an investigation being made by the State Police, and I am assuming that such an investigation is being made. There were statements made in the paper by the doctors at the Allentown State Hospital, and they attributed this man's death to two strokes and two heart attacks. I do not know whether that is true or not, but whether it was from strokes or whether it was from heart attacks, they did not explain how those bruises got on this man's body. I submit to you, Mr. President and Members of this Senate, that if this man was beaten, a sick man, sure it could have caused a stroke and it could have caused a heart attack, certainly it could have, but I know what is going to be in the report when it is ready. I have an idea just from what the statements that are being made, but I want somebody to explain to me, and I am sure the Members of the Senate want somebody to explain to them, how these marks got on this man's body. He did not have them when he went in the institution, but he had them when he was taken out.

Mr. President, his wife visited him last Wednesday, and while I am not going to go into even describing the things that he said to her, she made a statement here and I have it, and I may ask to introduce it in the record. Before she left,—I am a little ahead of my story—when she got into the institution there he was on a bed, covered with a white sheet, and she asked him why he held the sheet up as far as his neck and he said nothing. So, she took it off and there she found him naked in bed, and the bed all wet, and when she asked him why the bed was wet he said he had been asking for a uninal bottle, nobody brought it to him and he was forced to urinate in the bed. His lips were so dry he could hardly talk for want of water, and before she left he said to her, "Please take me home because after you leave here they are going to beat me again." There were some marks on his body at that time but not all of the marks that were on the body after it was delivered to the undertaker.

Mr. President, Mrs. Prospero went to the office of the doctor in charge, and she told him the story and he was supposed to have said, "I cannot help what the attendants do back there. My job is to treat these people medically, my job is not to look after the attendants." If that is the attitude he takes, he ought to be fired because he is not fit to take care of sick people. He should not only be fired, they ought to bring him in to show cause why his license should not be suspended. Anyway she said to the doctor, "I want to take my husband home." He said, "All right, you sign this furlough paper here." So, she signed the furlough paper to take him home. She left the hospital at four o'clock and at seven o'clock the hospital called her. This is all in the same day. At seven o'clock the hospital called her, and told her that her husband was dead. They sent the undertaker out to the hospital, brought him to the morgue and there they found these marks on his body.

Mr. President, if that was just one case, you could perhaps pass it by, but when these things happen and they are publicized you get all sorts of information. I have had telephone call after telephone call. Some identified themselves, others did not. Those that would not, I would not talk to. I have a lot of stories I am going to submit to Mr. Brown and to others here in authority in the State Government to follow through and investigate these stories that were submitted to me, but this is not the first case. Before I go on, I want to hand you these pictures and I wish you would pass them on so everybody gets a chance to look at them. This is not the first incident of this kind at the Allentown State Hospital. Just a short time ago a Lehigh County Jury gave a $20,000 verdict against the doctors there for the negligent manner in which they treated one of the patients that made him a cripple for life. I have a letter here from an attorney out in Pittsburgh complaining about a boy that was supposed to have been beaten to death over there at White Hill, asking me to see what I could find out about it. I understand that when the case was submitted to the Governor, the Governor submitted it to the Attorney General.

Mr. President, I talked to somebody that came to my office voluntarily right out of the hospital. I will not divulge his name, but he told me that just a short time ago, about three or four weeks ago, a Walter Rudolph was so severely beaten that they had to put him in a private room there and put three special nurses on duty so nobody could get in to see him. He died on September 10

Mr. President, just last Wednesday a William Yost received a terrible beating at the Allentown State Hospital; a Joseph Ferraro, an infantile paralysis case, a young boy, I think he is being buried today, fell out of bed, fell out of bed and laid there on the floor for hours before he was picked up. A Mrs. Trevena and her son came to my office on Saturday night and told me a story about Mr. Thomas Trevena, the husband of Mrs. Trevena and the father of the boy, and they told me that the father was a good Christian man all his life, that he worked at an Allentown plant for forty-three years as a master mechanic, that he worked at the Trojan Powder Company as a maintenance superintendent, and worked at the Oak Ridge Atomic Plant, and then his mind went bad. He was seventy-four years old, and since Mrs. Trevena was home alone she was afraid that he might get one of his spells and do her some harm. So, she inquired as to where they should put him, and she was told that the Allentown State Hospital would be all right. So, she took him there. He was there about three days and they came to visit him and there they found him with two black eyes. They came back several days later, and he was in bed with a cut under his arm and pain on his chest. They could not lift him, they could not touch him because he was so sore from his hips on up. A little bit later, scabs developed on his elbows, his nose and his ankles, because he was not given proper care while he was in bed. His buttocks were raw, Mr. President, because of the baths they give them in the tubs there. I was told by a person from right within the hospital that those tubs, the enamel is eaten from them and I suppose just a cast iron bottom remains. They said it was like a file and they put people in those tubs for a period of anywhere from twenty-four to seventy-two hours, and it just eats off the skin from the body. When I asked what they did about it, they said "What can you do about it?" They put them to bed and if it heals, it is all right and if it does not heal, it is all right, too. Those tubs were condemned by a State inspector one year ago and they were told to replace them. They are still there and they are still bathing poor unfortunate people in that hospital, still bathing them in those tubs. I cannot understand the kind of people that they are.

Mrs. Trevena and her son thought it was best, after one week's experience, to take their father out of there. So, they applied to the Darlington Sanitarium to have him transferred, with the consent of one of the doctors at the hospital, and when they came to the Allentown State Hospital with the ambulance the doctor in charge said, "I am sorry, you cannot remove him. You have got to get an approval from Harrisburg." They wrangled and wrangled, but he stuck to his word and said he would try to expedite the approval so that he could be transferred as soon as possible. Two weeks went by and the transfer never came through, and while they were waiting for the transfer, a doctor called the Trevena home and said, "Mr. Trevena is dying." So, they went to the hospital and there he was on his deathbed after a little more than two weeks. He, too, walked in except that his mind was affected, and in three weeks time they took him out on a slab with marks all over his body. While the Trevenas were in this room where the father lay dying, an orderly came in with the meal that was to be served to this dying man. A light diet was prescribed for him, and do you know what it consisted of? It consisted of a plate of cabbage, two boiled potatoes, a piece of bread, a piece of bologna and an apple. They brought this into a man that was dying. No orange juice or other things might be fed to a person in that condition.

Mr. President, what sort of a place is this anyway? Are we going to sit idly by here and permit these things to go on? When the wife and son of this man asked to use the phone to call a clergyman, the doctor said to them, "What do you want with a clergyman? He would not know him anyway when he got here. What good can he do for him?" When the father died, they forcibly ejected the son out of the room. They sent for the undertaker, and the thought was to have an autopsy performed, because they could not believe that he could die from natural causes so quickly, within a period of three weeks, that something must have been done to him, but the undertaker told them that if he were to perform an autopsy, there would be a lot of trouble getting the body out of the hospital, so they took him home. The clergyman saw the marks on him, the undertaker saw the marks on him and they will testify to it any time or any place or before anybody. When they opened his mouth, his lower plate was broken. It certainly was not from eating hard food. Let somebody else explain that.

Mr. President, if those are the conditions in our State institutions, we, the Members of this Senate, absolutely got to do something about it because those institutions, and the department that runs them, are creatures of this Legislature. Therefore, the policy and the practice and the procedure under which those institutions and the department involved function certainly is the business of this Legislature. That is why we are here, that is why we meet to represent all of the people and give them the best that is available, but one of the big faults at these mental institutions is the attendants. I said in the statement when I wrote the letter that the attendants are drunks and bums, and I mean that and I will prove it right down in the Allentown State Hospital. Some of the attendants come in drunk and when they are off duty, they are hanging around the Rittersville Fire House and another beer joint across the street from the Hospital, and I will prove that, too. We ought to find out how these people are selected. Are they properly trained, are there sufficient nurses in the hospitals? You probably would not believe this when I tell it to you, but just imagine in this institution there are no nurses on duty from four-thirty in the afternoon until seven-thirty the next morning. All of the responsibility is left to these attendants, some of them drunks and bums, and that is not all. Three attendants, three, are to take care, or are now assigned to take care, of one hundred seventy-five men in one ward and two men are taking care of two hundred twenty-five men in another ward at the Allentown State Hospital, at least on the night shift, and from what I am told—I do not know whether it is true or not, but I am going to look into it, there is to be one attendant for every twelve patients, and if that is true, certainly the law ought to be complied with.

Mr. President, I told this story, and I am passing these pictures around for you to take a look at them with the hope that this resolution that I am going to introduce tomorrow, calling upon the Legislature to appoint a bipartisan committee to make a survey and an investigation of the institutional situation in the entire State might be favorably considered, so that these conditions, if they are true, can be corrected, because they ought to be corrected. You never know, Mr. President or Members of this Senate, when some dear friend of yours may have to become a patient in one of these hospitals, or maybe some member of your immediate family. I am sure you would like to see them get the best care that is possible. If our institutions are places of torture, if they are concentration camps, let us change it, because we owe it to the public. Let us make our institutions not places of confinement where people are set to die, let us make our institutions places of cure.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I first want to apologize to the gentleman from Northampton. I have no way of checking, of course, because of the newness of the information that has been conveyed to the gentleman of the Senate in his remarks. Some of his remarks I assume are factual and some, as he admitted in his discussion, were conjectures on his part. I want to suggest, Mr. President, in all fairness to the Department of Welfare and to the Allentown State Hospital, that perhaps it would be of exceeding progress if the gentleman would consult with Secretary Brown as to the facts contained in the first case—I think Prospero was the name of the gentleman or the patient that was mentioned—because, Mr. President, in his remarks the gentleman first said that the attendants were all drunks and bums, and then he amended it by saying some of them were drunks and bums. Now, Mr. President, I do not want to just have a blanket indictment like that of the attendants at any of our State institutions. I would not want to have those attendants suggest that the Members of the General Assembly are drunks and bums because we merely happen to be loafing in the vicinity of a licensed establishment and, Mr. President I also am aware of the fact that according to the statistics that were preached by the former distinguished Governor of Pennsylvania, the present Junior Senator, Senator, Senator James Henderson Duff, two out of fifty are subject to become or are in danger of becoming inmates in a mental institution. I think that is the average he used, and that startled me when it dawned on me that there were fifty Members of the Senate here and, Mr. President, I certainly would not want to subject any Member of this Senate to the treatment suggested by the gentleman from Northampton.

Now, Mr. President, if memory serves me correctly, in the first case, if I might touch briefly on that, referred to by the gentleman from Northampton, Mr. Prospero was admitted to the hospital at Allentown in April of 1951. He was there about three months! At the time he was admitted he had been a patient elsewhere, if memory serves me correctly, and he was also in a very serious physical condition because of a syphilitic condition contracted during the First World War. I think a complete analysis, Senator Yosko, of the physical condition of this gentleman when he was admitted, as well as the fact that after the death of Mr. Prospero, the matter of the bruises, was taken up with the District Attorney of Lehigh County.

Now, Mr. President, I noticed in his discussion that Senator Yosko mentioned the fact that it was the coroner's duty to perform an autopsy. That is problematical, Mr. President. I would not want to engage in a collateral debate as to what are the duties of any county official in a matter of this type, but I am advised on reliable authority, Mr. President, and I am merely saying this in order to clarify any impression that might have been created, that the Coroner of Lehigh County, I am advised, is a Republican. The District Attorney of Lehigh County and the three Judges of Lehigh County are all Democrats. Now, I do not say that in order to stir up any partisan discussion. I merely want to clarify the impression I received during the gentleman's discussion. The coroner took the matter up with the District Attorney of Lehigh County, who made an investigation, and his office decided there was no further need for any further investigation or any prosecution of any type whatsoever. Now, Mr. President, if there is information that would prompt a district attorney to take an adverse position, I am certain that that information could be placed in the hands of the District Attorney of Lehigh County, who is a very capable public official and who, no doubt, will discharge his duties of office with swiftness and with fidelity.

Mr. President, with regard to the operation of the Allentown State Hospital, it is always difficult to take isolated cases because those cases, like the law, by their universality wreck hardships in individual cases, and that is what you have here. You have a situation where impliedly all of the trustees of the Allentown State Hospital are at fault because they do not pay more attention to what is going on.

Now, Mr. President, I want to say to you very frankly, that individually I do not know any of the trustees of that hospital, but I am confident that they are representative of the outstanding citizenry of that very fine county, and I know that they would not deliberately permit this to go on, and I think information of a factual nature should be placed before them. I think it should be placed before Mr. Brown and if investigation is warranted, I am certain that the Department and/or the trustees and/or the District Attorney, would make it.

Now, Mr. President, most of the discussion which Senator Yosko made here on the floor was conjectural on his part. Nobody is quarreling with the objective to be obtained. It is merely a matter of procedure that we are now discussing. I think he should place his facts before the officials that are charged with that responsibility, and permit them to do the things that they have been sworn to do under their oath of office.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, the facts that I gave here I got from responsible persons, and I will turn the names of those persons over to the Secretary of Welfare or to any other investigating body, and they can be interviewed and I am sure the same set of facts will be conveyed to them under oath.

Mr. President, when I spoke about the attendants, I am going to ask to see the record, because I am sure I said, "the attendants at least some of them;" I do not want to involve them all. There are some good attendants, but I say to you from what I have been told by somebody within the hospital, there are some sadists employed there right now, and I say they are drunks and bums. That is what they are because I know them personally, and I know something of their background and they are not fit to work in a hospital and take care of sick people.

Mr. President, so far as the District Attorney of Lehigh County is concerned, I talked with him, and the District Attorney of Lehigh County did order an investigation, and I think he took the right position. He said if that investigation discloses facts that indicate the commission of a crime, he will certainly take steps to see that those persons are punished, but so far as a Grand Jury investigation is concerned, he did not think that the facts, as he had them thus far, would warrant such an investigation. He did, however, order an investigation, and since my good friend, Senator Walker, talked about submitting facts to the proper officials for investigation, may I call his attention to the fact that when this scandal was in progress down at Pennhurst, I asked for a Grand Jury investigation then. I was told that the State Police were making an investigation, and within the first few weeks or months after this Legislature convened, I just do not know the exact time, I went to Colonel Wilhelm and I asked Colonel Wilhelm to let me read the copy of the investigation report made by the State Police at Pennhurst. After fiddling around a little bit he said he did not have it, that the Attorney General had it and that I would have to get permission from the Attorney General to see that report. So, I went to the Attorney General and I asked the Attorney General to see the report, and the Attorney General told me he would have to first determine whether the information in that report was confidential or whether it was of a public nature, and he would let me know. To this very date I have not heard from him, but since the gentleman brought it up, I am going to insist on seeing the report. I want to see that report not only of Pennhurst, but of every State institution that was involved in the scandal where the State Police made investigations.

Mr. President, if you are going to make an investigation, spend the taxpayers' money to make it, type it on paper and bury it in the file, what is the sense of making the investigation? It is worthless. I want somebody to tell me, since my good friend, Senator Walker, brought this up, how many people were arrested at Pennhurst, at Byberry, at White Hill, at Morganza, at the Scranton Oral School for the Deaf or any other State institution where violations of the law were committed. I will tell you what they do with them. They just fire them just like they fired this attendant at the Allentown State Hospital that beat Mr. Trevena, that beat Mr. Rudolph up. The only thing they did was fire them. They should have reported them to the District Attorney and had them arrested. If I walk down the street here and I attack somebody and beat them, I will be arrested for assault and battery, but that does not happen in the State. The only thing they do in the State Government is fire them.

Mr. President, there was a man, the head of this institution over here at White Hill—I do not want to attack him—but the record indicates what he was. They did not fire him. They just transferred him over to the Department of Welfare where today he holds a responsible position there, and when I talked to Mr. Brown about it, you know what he said to me? He said, "As long as he behaves himself on the job, I do not care what he does at night or I do not care what he does outside of working hours, and I do not want to discuss the type of acts involved." If we are going to have that kind of investigation, the Administration investigating itself, and after the investigation is made bury the report and treat it as confidential information, then they may as well not make it at all because it does not do any good. I hope Senator Walker and the rest of you would help me to get those reports and let's take a look at them before we adjourn, because we might be able to get something out of them to cure the situation that I am talking about and the situation that appears in the papers from time to time.

Mr. President, if you want to know something about the mental institutions, do not only take my word for it, but read the series of stories that are being published in the Philadelphia Inquirer and have been appearing in that paper for the last week, and it will tell you something about conditions at our mental institutions.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I have no desire to continue this horseback gallop over the entire Commonwealth, but may I suggest to the gentleman from Northampton that he obtain those reports and familiarize himself with the facts before he files the resolution that he has discussed.

Mr. FREED. Mr. President, I would like to rise in defense of some of our trustees in the Allentown State Hospital. It so happens that there were three new one put on to that trusteeship in the last few months. It also happens that I happen to come from Lehigh County where the Allentown State Hospital is located. I said to the people in Lehigh County in the past two weeks that I certainly will give everything that I possibly can to Senator Yosko to see that the Allentown State Hospital will be cleaned up, if it should be cleaned up.

Mr. President, I have had a number of requests coming to me regarding the Allentown State Hospital, and in every instance I said, "Let's go." The last one that I had happened to come from the Veterans' Bureau, and in that particular case they were showing me where the man was there with all kinds of sores and were telling me what the conditions of this particular fellow was in. They said right now there are rats and mice running around in that particular room, everything is filthy, you can hardly stand it in the room. I said, "Now is the time to go," and at the same time I had to call up my Mrs. and say "dinner is out." I grabbed this fellow, and we go over to the State Hospital. The head of the State Hospital wanted to refuse me admittance until I told him I thought it far better to allow me to get in to see this particular fellow, so he left me in then. We got the doctor in there, and I do not know where Yosko gets the information from as to being in there at four, five o'clock or a little after five, and that there were no attendants or no nurses because, after all, nurses were all around me when I was in there at five, and as far as the food was concerned, I could have eaten that food and thought I had a very good meal, because the food was good. I looked the food over because it was time to feed, and I looked over this particular room and I certainly did pay particular attention to see if there had been any rats or mice around the place, and I saw none. I then went further than that, and I took the covers off the gentleman and looked him over. I said, "Well, man, you have never seen spots in your life or you would not say this fellow has been abused because there are a few bed sores on him."

Mr. President, I have had the pleasure, if you want to call it that, to be in with and see lots of these people in my time, and I was very much surprised but certainly glad that I went in there unexpectedly. I don't tell them I am coming. I walk into the place and tell them I am here, and then I want to see who I want to see and I don't care which particular department they are in. I think any man who goes in an institution, he should go in and look at it.

Mr. President, I want to work with Senator Yosko. I want to help clean it up, but I do not want to come in with a bunch of people and tell me about this case and that case, and that this man has been abused or something of that type. I want to go in and see just what that particular thing is, and when I see it I form my opinion on that. My opinions at this time on what I investigated at the State Hospital are absolutely as good as I might want to expect them if I should be one of those two that our good Senator referred to out of the fifty. I do not think I could go to a finer place than that, as I have seen a lot of places a whole lot worse than that. I have seen county jails worse than that. I have seen them in city hospitals worse than that. So, I think that our Allentown State Hospital is doing a pretty good job as far as my investigation goes, but as I have said before I will certainly appreciate going along with Senator Yosko to check the institution further. Those particular trustees are reliable men, they are reliable all the way through, and if we go to them, they will certainly run it down and clean the works out. Thanks a lot.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I am not an investigator or I am not going to take it upon myself to investigate any hospital. The way to do that is the way my resolution is going to call for it to be done, appoint a bipartisan committee and go into these institutions and spend some time in them, and really get the facts and find out what is wrong, if anything. Before I sit down I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh, Senator Freed.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Freed, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FREED. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. YOSKO. Senator Freed, Doctor Hoffman resigned from the Allentown State Hospital just a short time ago while under fire because of conditions out there?

Mr. FREED. Mr. President, I do not know that, sir, as to the condition end of it. I know he did leave the hospital.

Mr. YOSKO. Thank you.

MAJOR GENERAL STRICKLER PRESENTED TO SENATE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair wishes to advise the Members of the Senate that my very distinguished predecessor in office is a visitor today, and I have taken the liberty to invite him to spend a few minutes with us, and at this time the Sergeant-at-Arms will escort Major General Daniel B. Strickler to the rostrum.

I could not think of letting him get away without inviting him to say a few words to us. It is no problem to present to the Senate a distinguished former Lieutenant-Governor who presided over most of the present Members of the Senate. I am, however, very proud to have the privilege and the honor of presenting to you one of Pennsylvania's outstanding statesmen and soldiers, General Strickler.

GENERAL STRICKLER, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, you have no idea how grand it is to be able to stand up here again at this rostrum and be able to say hello to you and to many of my friends of the Senate. Back in 1949, my last act in this very spot was to bring down the gavel and say, "This Senate will now adjourn sine die." Since that time, while Lieutenant-Governor, as you know, the 28th Infantry Division which I command has been called into Federal Service and has been out in Indiana for the past year. I know that you will want to know a few things about what has been going on out in Indiana, because we took about eleven thousand Pennsylvania boys out there under Federal call to train them as soldiers of the 28th Infantry Division. Our mission was to complete the program of training within ten months so that we could accept the mission to which the Department of the Army might assign us.

In October or November of last year, we got some eight thousand fillers, new men, who were brought in under Selective Service, to bring us up to war strength of some eighteen thousand. We were going along in fine shape heading toward finishing our program when in February and March the situation in Korea became so serious that the Federal Government decided they had to have men and men quickly. So, they took six thousand of our boys who had fourteen weeks training and sent them to Korea. As I told the Members of the House awhile ago, it was rather significant to me to see the value of military training displayed so vividly when within one month after those boys left, we had quite a number of them back in the Camp Atterbury Hospital as wounded patients. We got six thousand additional men immediately in February and March, along with three thousand over strength, and we had to train them along with our own group, which was trying to perfect its mission as an infantry division to enter the field of maneuvers for tests in August of this year. We completed the program and we went into maneuvers, and we are now pretty well finished with out schedule of training and have been tabbed by the Department of the Army, as you know, to become one of the six divisions in Europe as part of the North Atlantic Treaty Command. We will leave in November of this year as a full division, some eighteen thousand officers and men, and we go over there to take up a strategic position near the Iron Curtain for the purpose of warding off the enemy in the event he should make an attack or to take part in any kind of armed conflict if necessary. However, the real purpose behind it all is to create the impression, at least, that we are ready to do something and to prevent war if possible.

I suppose that a great many of the Senators know a great deal about the military, because I see quite a number here with whom I served. You might feel that the boys go away from home to learn soldiering, to go into the military, the navy or the air, and to learn to shoot and march and all those things, but I cannot help but tell you that today things have changed so much that life in the Army is a tremendous business. Today, under modern conditions, business enters into everything. In our division it is true we are trained as combat people to enter into conflict if necessary, but with it all we have to know so much more than just plain soldiering. The logistics of a command demand men of talent who know how to handle business, and we have many of them on our staff. When you stop to think of a division such as we have, which was reared here in Pennsylvania and which receives such marvelous support at the hands of the Senate and the House in a military way, of going into the field, we have the job, admittedly, of handling over two hundred twenty-five million dollars worth of property; that is what we have in the 28th Infantry Division today. That property is very valuable, and we have to learn to take care of it in a business way. We have the maintenance we have to repair it, we have to safeguard it and we have to keep it in shape constantly. The tanks of the division alone are a very valuable piece of equipment. The tanks cost $250,000, and we have over one hundred fifty in the division. So, you can just see how well we must take care of that tank as it rolls along, but the big job is not only to handle all this property but it is to take care of individuals, the men. They have to be fed, they have to be clothed, they have to have recreation, they have to have their morale kept high and they need constant attention. The matter of dollars and cents, of course, is important, but we today in the Army try to make the individual feel that he is important. I do not think there was ever a time when the average soldier, whether he carries a rifle or serves as a member of the artillery crew or whatever it is, must be made to feel that he is recognized as an important individual in the whole scheme of military affairs, because if we lose that, we lose the value of the team which we try to develop.

The boys from Pennsylvania make grand soldiers. We now have in the division men from every State in the Union, but the bulk of the whole business comes from the Keystone State. These boys are really a grand lot, and again I want to repeat, as I have said several times since I have come home, in all my experience I never had a finer group of young Americans than we have at the present time in our group. They are well behaved, they are interested, they are serious, responsible men, eager to learn. They are a smart group of young fellows, and we have no trouble with them whatsoever. In fact, it is a tremendous improvement over conditions we had in World War II, and I think it is a fine tribute to our American youth when in these days we hear so much about the carryings on of young people in various colleges and so forth.

We do not know how long we are going to be away. The Army and the Government determine how long we stay. It is hoped that war can be prevented, and that after a tour of duty over there the division may be returned to Pennsylvania. However, if an emergency should really arise greater than it is at the present time, of course we will be kept in indefinitely until that emergency is over.

I sort of feel that when I leave these parts in November to go overseas that I am serving as your representative because I love Pennsylvania. I like legislative work, having served in the House and in the Senate and I know so many of you people. I miss it, yet on the other hand somebody has to do it and if that is my lot, why so it will be. I do want to express my appreciation for the lovely gift that some of the Members of this Senate made to my wife when I was away. I have not previously had an opportunity to thank you for it. I know she has for herself and for me, and I shall always cherish it as one of the tokens of my association with one of the finest bodies of men in the world. Thank you.

The PRESIDENT. General Strickler, before you escape from the Chamber, I should like to say to you on behalf of myself and the Members of the Senate that you and your valiant men have our best wishes, and I might add that I may be calling upon you to explain to me in detail what the reactions are of an officer in this position dropping the gavel on a sine die adjournment, because it is commencing to look as though I will never have that experience.

BIRTHDAY FELICITATIONS EXTENDED TO SENATOR DIEHM

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I have lost the attention of my very distinguished colleague from Westmoreland. These remarks are really directed indirectly at him.

It so happens, Mr. President, that not only is this Monday, September 17, but this also happens to be a very distinguished day for one of our very distinguished Members of this very distinguished body. Mr. President, I would like to suggest at this time that the Senate take a ten minute recess to permit a Republican Caucus and a Democratic Caucus in the racket club to the rear of the Senate Chamber, in order to confer with the distinguished gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Graybill Diehm, who is today celebrating his birthday.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.
The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

HOUSE MESSAGES

TO HOUSE BILL No. 1370

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House has non-concurred in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1370, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 2004 of the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled "Third Class City Law," by limiting to forty hours the work week of police officers in certain cases.

SENATE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS NON-CONCURRED IN BY THE HOUSE TO
HOUSE BILL No. 1370

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insists upon its amendments non-concurred in by the House to House Bill No. 1370.

Mr. SCARLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. ROBINSON offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, September 17, 1951.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, September 24, 1951, at two o'clock, p. m., E. S. T.; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, September 24, 1951, at three-thirty o'clock, p. m., E. S. T.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. MALLERY read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 839, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to sell and convey a tract of land in Allegheny Township, Blair County, Pennsylvania with the approval of the Governor.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

SENATE RESOLUTION

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COM-MISSION TO MAKE A STUDY OF THE PROBLEMS
INVOLVED IN THE PHYSICAL EXPANSION OF CERTAIN UNIVERSITIES

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. NEFF, ROSENFELD, BARR, STIEFEL, DENT, HOLLAND, McGINNIS, FLEMING and LEADER, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, September 17, 1951.

Whereas, the University of Pittsburgh, Temple University and the University of Pennsylvania have furnished, and are continuing to furnish, educational facilities to tens of thousands of Pennsylvania youths and to many others from all over the world, and

Whereas, their reputations for scholarship attainment and quality of teachings have been acknowledged universally, and

Whereas, said Universities are located in the largest cities of our Commonwealth, where the possibilities of physical expansion have created serious problems, and constitute a serious threat to their normal growth and to their abilities to maintain their excellent standards, and

Whereas, the officials of these Universities have been, and are concerned with this problem, and are faced with the necessity of establishing a long range program with regard to physical expansion, and

Whereas, the citizens of this Commonwealth have a vital interest in the establishment and success of such program.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the Joint State Government Commission be authorized and directed, and is hereby authorized and directed to make a study of the problems involved in the physical expansion of the University of Pittsburgh, University of Pennsylvania, and Temple University, reporting and making such recommendations to the General Assembly at the next regular Session of the General Assembly, as the Commission may deem necessary, together with such legislation as it may propose to carry out such recommendations.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BARR read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 840, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and Section 1 of the act, approved the tenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. Act No. 265), entitled "An act regulating the appointment, promotion, suspension, reduction, removal and reinstatement of employes (except superintendents, assistant superintendents, inspectors and chief clerks) in bureaus of police in cities of the second class and defining the powers and duties of civil service commissions in such cities for such purposes," by excepting therefrom certain women police and school guards.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BERGER read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 841, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 2 of the act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1440), entitled "An act concerning notaries public and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating thereto," by making all members of the Senate ex officio notaries public.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 177, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections two hundred three and two hundred four of the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 624) entitled as amended "An act relating to the business of banking and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers and of banking corporations with or without fiduciary powers including the conversion of National banks into State banks and for the licensing of private bankers and employes' mutual banking associations defining the rights powers duties liabilities and immunities of such corporations of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business with or without fiduciary powers of private bankers and employes' mutual banking associations and of the officers directors trustees shareholders attorneys and other employes of all such corporations employes' mutual banking associations or private bankers or of affiliated corporations associations or persons restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation association or person and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts prothonotaries recorders of deeds and certain State departments commissions and officers imposing penalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts" by further restricting changes in location of principal places of business of banking institutions and by limiting the establishment and maintenance of branch banks to counties in which the principal places of business of banking institutions are located

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise to voice my protest against Senate Bill No. 177. I am calling the attention of the Members of the Senate to the bottom of page 4, where it states: "An institution may in the case of an incorporated institution in the regular manner provided by this Act for an amendment to its articles and in the case of a private bank with the prior written approval of the department change its principal place of business."

Mr. President, this bill provides that a bank cannot establish a branch bank in a county other than where the main bank is located. In other words, it eliminates banking in a contiguous county. Now, I know that it is important in the great western part of the State, and I presume the same thing is of great importance in the eastern part of the State where your main banks or principal banks that do any branch banking are located, either in the City of Pittsburgh or in the City of Philadelphia. The City of Pittsburgh is the focal point for business from probably seven southwestern counties. The City of Philadelphia is the focal business point, I would say, for probably four or five counties surrounding Philadelphia, and I am sure that probably the Girard Trust and many of the other banks have branch banks in Chester, Delaware, Bucks and Montgomery Counties, such as some of our large banks have branch banks in Washington, Westmoreland and other counties nearby. It is the opinion, Mr. President, that some members of the branch banks are better than some of these individual bankers, because I think the large institutions watch just a little closer, because in one town out in the western end of the State, in the last three weeks two banks have been pilfered for over a million dollars.

Mr. President, I have no personal ax to grind, but I would like to ask the proponent of this bill, why. Would Senator Probert be willing to be interrogated?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Probert, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PROBERT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Senator Probert, if it is not being too personal, why this bill?

Mr. PROBERT. Mr. President, first I would like to say that this bill is the result of a resolution passed by the Pennsylvania Bankers Association, covering just this subject, and the resolution, incidentally, passed by a vote of over six hundred thirty some to forty some votes in the Pennsylvania Bankers Association. Furthermore, Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, I would like to say that this bill does not affect any branch bank already established.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I read the bill, and I know that answer is correct, but I do know this, that when the Bankers Association have their convention, take for example, the People's of Pittsburgh which probably has twenty-eight or thirty branch banks connected with them, they only have one vote at this bankers convention. The same thing would be true of the Girard Trust and the rest of them, just one, and I could easily see where the tail would wag the dog at the bankers convention.

Mr. PROPERT. Well, Mr. President, again I say that this bill is the result of a comprehensive survey by the member banks of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association, and it was introduced at their request.

Mr. BARR. Well, Mr. President, I just want to go back to the time that Senator Becker was Chairman of the Banking Committee, and I thought he was one of the most able chairmen we ever had, and at that time the subject of branch banking came up and it was only after about four months of meetings and studies, and with the approval of the State Banking Department, that we passed bills allowing branch banking in the State banks in Pennsylvania. Now, Mr. President, I would like to further interrogate Senator Propert.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Propert, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. PROPERT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Senator Propert, has the State Banking Department put their o.k. on this bill or do you know that?

Mr. PROPERT. I would say, Mr. President, that I have received a letter from the Secretary of Banking opposing this legislation, but I am willing to be guided by a majority of the member banks in the Pennsylvania Bankers Association.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have great faith in a great many bankers, but some I have lost a heck of a lot of faith in just the last few weeks. If you have been reading the papers in the last few weeks, you would not have the faith in some of these bankers that you had at the time you introduced this bill.

Mr. President, I am going to ask as many as I can to vote Senate Bill No. 177 down.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, on this Senate Bill No. 177, as the gentleman from Allegheny has suggested, this is more or less of a geographic bill rather than a political bill or a partisan bill.

At the present time, under the present law, banks may extend branches not only into the county where the parent bank or the home office is located, but into counties that are contiguous to the home county. Under this present amendment which is reflected here in Senate Bill No. 177, the banks would be prohibited from further expansion into the contiguous counties. The Secretary of the State Banking Department is opposed to this bill. I appreciate the statement made by the gentleman from Montgomery. I think that it is very obvious that there are quite a number of banks in counties that are contiguous to the metropolitan areas of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia who are not enthusiastically in favor of branch banking, because they do not want large banks to spread on and on across the State. The present law would only permit the invasion of contiguous counties. Evidently, if I might use the word "rural" without being misunderstood, the rural banks are not happy about the extension of branch banks into contiguous counties, and they are trying to put an end to that expansion.

Mr. President, I do not want to deal in past history because we all have our eyes on the future, but, Mr. President, there was a time back in Western Pennsylvania when the banks in the contiguous counties were very very happy, and many people went to bed thanking the Lord that there were banks like the People's of Pittsburgh and the Mellon Banks that were willing to come in and take over these practically defunct institutions.

Mr. President, I think that this bill is harmful to the spread of the banking industry. I know it is looked upon with disfavor by the people of Allegheny County, who are certainly in favor of the present setup, and by the banks in Allegheny County that are in favor of it, and I, like my colleague, Senator Barr, propose to vote against this bill because I do not think at this time, especially in the light of the attitude taken by the Secretary of the Department of Banking, that there should be any interference in the banking setup in the Commonwealth.

Now, Mr. President, as I said on the threshold of my remarks, this is not a matter for either the Democratic or Republican Caucus. In fact, it is a geographic matter, and that is the reason for the position we have taken here as individuals and not reflecting any party leadership whatsoever.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. President, I should like to call the attention of the Members of the Senate to the fact that a survey was made, a questionnaire was distributed and action taken at the Pennsylvania Bankers Association. That resolution was passed at the Bankers Association by a vote of over six hundred thirty some to forty some, and one of the more serious aspects of the present law is its tie-up with the Federal Act. Although State banks may only establish branches in places where adequate banking facilities are not found to exist, there obviously can be no guarantee that the Federal authorities will place the same interpretation on the word "adequate" in any given place. This can result in discrimination against State banks, and in favor of National banks.

Therefore, Mr. President, I ask the membership to vote in favor of this bill.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the question of banking has become very important in Westmoreland County. It seems that we have had a couple of instances out there that are very interesting. Two banks within a very short period of time have had the officers arrested for embezzlement of sums ranging from $550,000 to $600,000 apiece. The only saving thing about it is that they both kept abreast of each other, and I was noticing in the paper that it was compared to the bank over in Washington County, in a little town called Cecil. It seems that in the town of Cecil, in Washington County, a bank officer took a million dollars, so that the question now is whether or not the bankers in Washington County are twice as—I don't like the word—twice as big thieves as they are in Westmoreland County, or whether Westmoreland County is supposed to have twice as many thieves. However, seriously, we are losing sight of the main issue of this particular bill, what is best for the public. Banks are service institutions. Which type of bank gives the best service? Is it the branch bank?

Mr. President, incidentally, in the City of New Kensington, there are three banks. Two of them have been victims of embezzlement and the third one is a branch bank. At least up to date, no one has been caught and that bank has a clean record. I know that my memory serves me right when I say that just as Senator Walker has pointed out, the large banking institutions did save the situation in many of the smaller communities of Pennsylvania when the small independent banks found themselves in a precarious position during the depression days. Banking institutions are service institutions to the people. I can easily understand the vote of the Bankers Association's meeting. You can easily see why they would vote to stop branch banking, but if it is wrong in the contiguous territories to a county, isn't it wrong within the county? What is the difference? Does geography make it right? Does the location make it a better service? The question then resolves itself into the proposition as to whether branch banking in itself is right or wrong. If it is wrong, it ought to be stopped entirely. If it is right, it ought to be allowed to expand.

Now, Mr. President, branch banking—this is the first instance. Next you will have a meeting of the Association of Retail Drug Dealers, or Retail Grocery Dealers, or Retail Milk Dealers, or retail dealers in any kind of a line of endeavor, and if this Legislature can act at the behest of one particular group to pass legislation in their behalf to stop expansion or competition, as it were, in that particular field, what is to stop the Legislature from passing anti-competitive bills in every field of endeavor in the Commonwealth? If the principle of chain store merchandising or branch banking, which is one and the same thing by a different name, if the principle is wrong, let us vote upon that principle, but let us not select one group and favor them with special legislation and then allow the other groups to come in later on and bludgeon the Members of the Legislature into a position where you will have legislation upon the books to strike out competition in every field of endeavor.

Mr. President, I say to all of the Members of the Senate that it is still a question of service, and I for one can testify to the fact that in industrial communities the services rendered by branch banks is at least on a par with the best of the independent banks. I see no harm in it, I see no wrong in it and I intend to vote against the bill.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I could not let a blanket indictment of the banking institutions of Washington County go unanswered. Maybe I should have said Westmoreland, too. We in Washington County had one failure in the past fifty years. Of course, that is very unfortunate. I believe that the bank is short to the tune of approximately a million dollars.

Mr. President, I see no harm in permitting branch banks to expand throughout the State of Pennsylvania, because it seems to me that maybe branch banking is a good method of banking, as Senator Dent has stated here. I do not believe we should legislate to regulate all of our economy. I believe that branch banks are a service to the people, and I know that during the black days of the depression those of us in Western Pennsylvania were thankful we had Mellon and a few others to come in and take over.

So therefore, Mr. President, I am in favor of voting this legislation down.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I am in favor of this bill. I am going to vote for it because, under the present law, if we continue permitting these large banks to come into the small communities and set up alongside of the present bank, we will find ourselves in the same position as we have found with chain stores, the A & P, and the American Stores coming in and wiping out the small corner grocery store. After all, the most important part in banking is service, as was stated here, and the ordinary man depends upon his local bank. I will say forty per cent of the loans made in a small town are made upon the merits and upon the honor of the applicant.

Mr. President, I am in the banking business, and I should know a little bit about it. I know many men who could not make a loan in a large bank unless they are well known. We know their background, we know their parents, we know their honesty, their sincerity, their ability to pay, and in many cases, in a great many cases, they procure a loan on that basis alone. They are unfortunate people, they have no collateral, they have no stocks and bonds, they must depend upon their own merits, and who knows better than the local bank?

Mr. President, I say a great injustice will be done to the people of this Commonwealth, the ordinary working man, by permitting branch banking to expand and finally wiping out the local banks.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong this debate. I just have one statement to make. I think Senator Haluska is in error because I know of no instance of branch banking in western Pennsylvania where the People's of Pittsburgh or the Mellon outfit went in and set up next door, across the street or in any neighborhood where there was a present bank. They have always gone in and negotiated and took over the existing facilities, and the securities and notes and everything as if it were an existing bank.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like to answer my colleague from Allegheny. He said they always come into a place where a bank was needed. Well, that statement is not true because during the Bank Holiday in my little town of Patton, unfortunately our bank folded up, and we plead with all the metropolitan banks to come in to give us a banking system. They all turned thumbs down and finally we, upon our own initiative, a group of ordinary men, including myself, gathered together enough money, and with the aid of R.F.C., opened up our own bank. So, if they were so gracious in helping out, they had the opportunity but they failed to do so.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, again the gentleman from Cambria is in error. I told him that the branch banking bills were passed when Senator Becker was Chairman of the Banking Committee, and in the days he is speaking about no branch banking was allowed in the State of Pennsylvania, and they could not go in and take over their banks.

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll the following occurred:)

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The PRESIDENT. Request has been made to have the roll verified.

The Clerk will call the names of those recorded as having voted in the affirmative.

The Clerk read the names of those recorded as having voted in the affirmative as follows:

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 361, as follows:

An Act to further amend section 6 of the act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 1055) entitled "An act authorizing the release on probation of certain convicts instead of imposing sentences the appointment of probation and parole officers and the payment of their salaries and expenses regulating the manner of sentencing convicts in certain cases and providing for their release on parole their conviction of crime during parole and their rearrest and reconviction for breach of parole and extending the powers and duties of boards of prison inspectors of penitentiaries" by further regulating the manner of sentencing of convicts in certain cases

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1 Section 6 of the act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 1055) entitled "An act authorizing the release on probation of certain convicts instead of imposing sentences the appointment of probation and parole officers and the payment of their salaries and expenses regulating the manner of sentencing convicts in certain cases and providing for their release on parole their conviction of crime during parole and their rearrest and reconviction for breach of parole and extending the powers and duties of boards of prison inspectors of penitentiaries" as amended by the act approved the twenty-ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 975) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 6 Whenever any person convicted in any court of this Commonwealth of any crime punishable by imprisonment in a State penitentiary shall be sentenced to imprisonment therefor in any penitentiary or other institution of this State or in any county or municipal institution the court instead of pronouncing upon such convict a definite or fixed term of imprisonment shall pronounce upon such convict a sentence of imprisonment for an indefinite term Stating in such sentence the minimum and maximum limits thereof and the maximum limit shall never exceed the maximum time now or hereafter prescribed as a penalty for such offense and the minimum limit shall never exceed one-half of the maximum sentence prescribed by any court

Whenever any person is convicted of any crime punishable by simple imprisonment the court may in its discretion pronounce a sentence either for a fixed term or for an indefinite term as may seem proper under the circumstances of the case but in no case to exceed the maximum term prescribed by law as a penalty for such offense.

Provided That nothing herein contained shall be construed to derogate from the power of the judges of the courts of quarter sessions and of the courts of oyer and terminer or other court of record having jurisdiction of the several judicial districts of the Commonwealth after due inquiry to release on parole any convict confined in the county jail house of correction or workhouse of their respective districts as provided in section one of an act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 1059) entitled "An act extending the powers of judges of courts of quarter sessions and of oyer and terminer in relation to releasing prisoners in jails and workhouses on parole" its amendments and supplements And provided further That no person sentenced for an indeterminate term shall be entitled to any benefits under the act entitled "An act providing for the commutation of sentences for good behavior of convicts in prisons penitentiaries workhouses and county jails in this State and regulations governing the same" approved the eleventh day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one

And provided further That before any parole shall be granted pursuant to the terms hereof notice of an intention so to do shall be given at least ten days prior thereto by the board of prison inspectors to the judge of the county who imposed the sentence if he be still in office but otherwise to the judge or judges of the court of oyer and terminer or the court of quarter sessions then in session or if there be no current term then the next ensuing term thereof and having jurisdiction of cases of the like character Similar notice shall also be given to the district attorney then in office in said county

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Arthur G. Marcell, guest Chaplain and Pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Transfiguration, Philadelphia, offered the following prayer:

Most Gracious God whose alone is the kingdom, and who hast ordained and sanctified human government for the temporal welfare of mankind; be pleased to bless, sanctify and hallow the deliberations of this Legislature of our Commonwealth that we may lead quiet and peaceable lives in all godliness and honesty.

Inspire this body with a firm purpose, fortitude and faith so that its labors may be to the common good of our State, to the happiness of the people and redound to Thy Glory. In the name of Him who said, render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's even Jesus Christ, Thy Son Our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

COMMANDER OF 28TH DIVISION WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is informed that General Daniel B. Strickler, former Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, now Commanding Officer of the 28th Division which will sail for Europe in approximately 30 days, is present.

The Chair appoints the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, and the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, to escort the General to the rostrum.

The Chair welcomes General Daniel B. Strickler, former Lieutenant Governor, now Commanding Officer of the 28th Division, and invites the General to address the House.

ADDRESS OF COMMANDING OFFICER OF 28TH DIVISION

GENERAL STRICKLER. Mr. Speaker, it is with fond recollection that I come here today to see a lot of my friends in Harrisburg, particularly the Members of the House.

My mind goes back twenty years when in May, 1931 I sat as a Member of this House over here among the Lancaster County delegation. Those were the closing days of the session in May, 1931. I see you are about to close now.

But I do want to come in to say "Hello" to you and to bring to you the greetings of thousands of Pennsylvania boys who are at Camp Atterbury, Indiana.

Just a little over a year ago when the government alerted the 28th Division we went to Camp Atterbury to start a year of intensive training. I know that you are anxious to know a little something about what we have done, because I am very proud of my state for the marvelous support it has given the National Guard and the military in the 28th Division and all the other units which are associated with the military of Pennsylvania.

When you look around and see other units from other sections of the country you appreciate what it means to have our great state support its own units as it has done.

We left here with about 11,000 Pennsylvanians and, we were given a program which meant that we were to train intensively for ten months and that we were to get in addition to the men we had an additional seven or eight thousand men to fill us up to war strength, some 18,000 officers and men. We got those officers and men last October and November with the idea that we would be prepared for some kind of a mission which the Department of the Army would give us about this time of the year.

Unfortunately the nation found itself in a perilous condition in Korea last December, January and February and so we were given the additional mission of providing six thousand of our boys to go directly to Korea after fourteen weeks' training and take part as replacements over there for the Korean affair. Those boys went to Korea and within two months a number of them came back to our very camp as wounded and injured men to be in our midst there after so short a time.

Along with the training of our own group of 18,000 we had to train an additional 6,000 in order to take the places of those we sent to Korea. So we pushed them along as rapidly as we could through day and night training, and we took part in the field maneuvers in North Carolina just several weeks ago. Now we have finished that and we feel that we are a very thoroughly trained outfit.

The Department of the Army has assigned us as one of the six divisions to go to Europe as part of the North Atlantic Training Command. We will leave in November, this year.

Going over there is quite an assignment, because the eyes of Europe will be upon the Sixth Division Army which we will have over there. We will be given a strategic mission, right near the Iron Curtain. In the event that any outbreak occurs we would be immediately thrown into action to stem the tide until such time that the rest of the armed forces of America and our allies can attend to the situation as best they can. You know as well as I do, from reading how we are borrowing time, and we are proud that we have been able to fulfill a mission such as we have been given—are able to go over to Europe, and we hope that our presence will lend something to prevent a war which may not break there.

I was just going to say a few words of personal tribute to the type of young Americans we have in the military forces today. As you know, I have been called out a good many times in my lifetime and I have dealt with thousands and thousands of young men, mostly Pennsylvanians. In all my career I have never had a finer, better behaved group of men than we have at the present time in our Division. It is really a tribute to the American youth—when you hear so much about the tendencies of our youth today—to find a group of young men who are earnest, sincere, and who respond well to training. They are interested tremendously in their assignment and they are eager to do a job. We have had less trouble and less misconduct than in any period of time that I have ever been in service. I think that augurs well for the attitude of our young Americans whom we have today.

The Pennsylvania boys think a lot of their state. It is an education for them—they go into a new State out in the Hoosier State of Indiana. We have been received well there. The people have been most hospitable and they are a proud lot. When we go to Europe we have enough of us who have been through this game, through the various battles in combat, I think, who know enough about it to inspire enough confidence in these boys that they will do a job for us if necessary. We do not know how long we are going to be there. Nobody knows. We hope we will return to you shortly—just how short that will be depends on, as we say in the army, the situation.

It is grand to be back here in Harrisburg. I have many fond memories of my service in the House and the Senate, as your Lieutenant Governor for four years, and I really miss them. But the world moves on, these military situations are created, and those of us who are trained for that sort of work are most anxious to go ahead and complete the job.

Thank you very much for the opportunity to be here just to say "hello."

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the General for his report from the 28th Division.

SERGEANT OF 25TH DIVISION WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is interested to note that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McNally, has as his guest, Sergeant William Dever, who has just returned from Korea. The Chair welcomes him to the Hall of the House.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. HALL asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Ways and Means to meet during the session of the House.

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 571) entitled "An act relating to assessment for taxation in counties of the fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes designating the subjects property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for county borough town township school except in cities and county institution district purposes and providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation thereof for such purposes creating in each such county a board for the assessment and revision of taxes defining the powers and duties of such boards providing for the acceptance of this act by cities regulating the office of ward borough town and township assessors abolishing the office of assistant triennial assessor in townships of the first class providing for the appointment of a chief assessor assistant assessor and other employes providing for their compensation payable by such counties prescribing certain duties of and certain fees to be collected by the recorder of deeds and eliminating the triennial assessment" by providing for a permanent record system uniform throughout the Commonwealth among boards for the assessment and revision of taxes providing for a committee to prepare such system and conferring powers and imposing duties upon the boards for the assessment and revision of taxes the chairman of the Local Government Commission and chief assessors

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. REAGAN offered the following amendment:

Amend Section 1, (Sec. 302), Page 5, line 3, by inserting the word "Establish" the following "in counties of the fourth, fifth and sixth classes."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, these amendments eliminate 7th and 8th Class Counties from the provisions of the bill. I feel, and a great many others do, that our counties do not need these bills and that they will be a bad thing for us, for the reason that they are going to add a considerable number of people to our employes in the Court House. In addition the local assessors, while they will be retained and paid, will not have any authority to make the assessments. That will be vested in the chief assessor at the Court House along with the assistant assessors, investigators, clerks and stenographers.

Our counties are in good shape. We do not need this change, and I think it is a bad thing for us, especially the fact that in Bill 655 power is given to the Board of Taxation and Tax Revision and to the chief assessor to remove the local assessors from the township and borough.

The idea is repugnant for the reason that the appointed officials of the boards and also the chief assessor and his assistants are appointed officers. It gives them power to remove men who are elected. This is a great change from anything we know of in our government. It would be almost the same thing as if a cabinet officer here in Harrisburg would have the power to remove one of us Legislators if we did not do as he wanted us to do.

It is centralization. For years now we have been talking about centralization—centralization is our national government, centralization in our state government. We all know it is going on; but right here and now we plan centralization right back in your counties. We have all agreed that it is a bad thing—it is a departure from the scheme of government which we adopted at the start, and it is just one of those little things that will finally lead to the breakdown of local government, state government and national government.

I ask the House to support these amendments.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I take this opportunity to rise to oppose the amendments offered, for the simple reason that this package of bills, 653 to 656 inclusive, is a package of bills which attempts, and I think succeeds, in the collection of county taxes and in making county taxes uniform throughout the state.

Taking out the 7th and 8th Class Counties immediately cripples the entire idea.

For the information of the House, these bills—653, 655 and 656—amend the Act of 1943 and have absolutely nothing to do with the local assessors, and in addition will not create additional jobs which the Act of 1943 has not already set up.

It would be rather foolish in my opinion to pass an amendment to an Act which is to fit that class counties and then attempt to take out of the amendment the 7th and 8th Class Counties. It would be a question in my mind as to whether or not it approaches class legislation.

I ask the House to vote down these amendments at this time.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if in order to secure uniformity in assessments it is necessary to centralize, it is our business to centralize.

For some twenty years now, at various times on this floor I have been protesting against the inequalities in our county assessments—inequalities that will continue as long as we have 20, 30, 50, 60, 75 different minds playing upon the subject.

I am not at all certain that the bills that we have are perfect bills, but as the gentleman from Delaware has said, they constitute a package—they represent an intelligent approach to the problem of equalizing assessments within the counties. And until we get equalized assessments within the counties we cannot equalize them within the state. And until we can equalize assessments within the state we never can get rid of that perennial problem—the distressed school district.

I am sorry to have to disagree with the gentleman from Union, but I hope that his amendments will fall.

Mr. FERSTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to support these amendments of the gentleman from Union. I feel that if these are good bills for the larger counties they are entitled to them. But I feel as a representative of a smaller county that we can get along very well without this particular bill.

Therefore, I would ask the House to support the amendments of the gentleman from Union, and then if the larger counties want this kind of assessment to start out with, they can have them after they are amended. I feel it is not going to help our smaller counties.

I do recognize the fact that this has been the work of the Commission on Joint State Government, that they have done a lot of splendid work, and I do not wish to condemn the work they have done in these bills, yet I would ask the Members of the House to go along with these amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman's remarks remind me of the incident of the lady who appeared before the judge with a baby in her arms and without a wedding ring upon her finger. The judge imposed the usual sentence, whereupon the lady said: "But, your Honor, it was such a little baby." So the gentleman asks for a continuation of these errors because it is such a little county.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I enjoyed the joke of the gentleman of the opposition, but I just do not know where it applies in this case.

He spoke of leading to centralization and to bring about an equalization of taxation. I want to call the attention of the House to this fact, that in making the chief assessor responsible for all the assessments of the county you are putting him into a position of great power. I have heard of this occurring in at least one city in Pennsylvania and I have heard it has occurred in other cities in other states. When one man has charge of assessments it is impossible to get him out of office, or his party. Certainly a man who has control of the assessments of a county is put in a position where he can do almost as he pleases with the vote of that county. It has been demonstrated that that is true. And while this argument is to the effect that it will be beneficial, I have never seen anything yet in our entire government that cannot be opened to some criticism. I do not believe we will have any equality in anything in this world until we get to Heaven.

Mr. FERSTER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to remind the gentleman from Union that "Big oaks from little acorns grow."

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Union, Mr. Reagan, withdraw his amendments to the other sections of the bill?

Mr. REAGAN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ROBERTSON offered the following amendment:

Amend Section 2, Sec. 306, page 7, line 7 by striking out the word "Committee" at the end of the line and inserting in lieu thereof: "commission".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is merely to take care of a typographical error to change the word "committee" to "commission".

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The third section and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 654, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the seventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1368) entitled "An act amending, revising and consolidating the laws relating to delinquent county, city, except of the first and second class and second class A, borough, town, township, school district, except of the first class and school districts within cities of the second class A, and institution district taxes, providing when, how and upon what property, and to what extent liens shall be allowed for such taxes, the return and entering of claims therefor; the collection and adjudication of such claims, sales of real property, including seated and unseated lands, subject to the lien of such tax claims; the disposition of the proceeds thereof, including State taxes and municipal claims recovered and the redemption of property; providing for the discharge and divestiture by certain tax sales of all estates in property and of mortgages and liens on such property, and the proceedings therefor; creating a Tax Claim Bureau in each county, except a county of the first class, to act as agent for taxing districts; defining its powers and duties, including sales of property, the management of property taken in sequestration, and the management, sale and disposition of property heretofore sold to the county commissioners, taxing districts and trustees at tax sales; providing a method for the service of process and notices; imposing duties on taxing districts and their officers and on tax collectors, and certain expenses on counties and for their reimbursement by taxing districts; and repealing existing laws," by providing for the collection and distribution of said taxes by the bureau; further regulating the sale of properties turned over to the bureau by county commissioners and taxing districts, and of properties purchased at tax sales by county commissioners under the provisions of said act; imposing certain costs upon the taxing districts, and further providing for the execution of deeds.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, I have amendments to offer to the two Senate bills following on the calendar, but since the sentiment of the House seems to be adverse to the amendments, I don't feel like taking up the time of the House and will not offer them.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask whoever is in charge of this package of bills what the purpose was in providing for the sale of property which the counties have purchased at either private or public sales without a court order. That is, do I understand that the properties the counties purchased can be sold as a matter of closed door procedure? Why are the changes made, if they are changes?

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question, I believe if he checks the bills, he will see that this bill puts into the hands of the Bureau the authority to sell certain properties at either public or private sale at the request of the taxing district only. The only way in which a taxing district will authorize or request a sale is if they have sufficient funds necessary to take care of the delinquent taxes.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second to seventh sections inclusive and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 655, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and act approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 571) entitled "An act relating to assessment for taxation in counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth classes; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for county, borough, town, township, school, except in cities and county institution district purposes; and providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation thereof for such purposes; creating in each county a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; defining the powers and duties of such boards; providing for the acceptance of this act by cities; regulating the office of ward, borough, town and township assessors; abolishing the office of assistant triennial assessor in townships of the first class; providing for the appointment of a chief assessor, assistant assessors and other employees; providing for their compensation payable by such counties; prescribing certain duties of and certain fees to be collected by the recorder of deeds; and eliminating the triennial assessment," by further regulating the assessment and valuation of real property for local taxation purposes; further defining the duties of assessors and chief assessors; changing the time for the preparation and inspection of the assessment roll and duplicate assessment roll, notice of appeal and hearings on appeals; prescribing duties of and fees to be collected by municipal officers who issue building permits; imposing duties on taxables, making improvements on land and grantees of land and prescribing penalties and changing procedure on appeals to court

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 656, entitled:

An Act to amend section 401 of the act, approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 571), entitled "An act relating to assessment for taxation in counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth classes; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for county, borough, town, township, school, except in cities and county institution district purposes; and providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation thereof for such purposes; creating in each county a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; defining the powers and duties of such boards; providing for the acceptance of this act by cities; regulating the office of ward, borough, town and township assessors; abolishing the office of assistant triennial assessor in townships of the first class; providing for the appointment of a chief assessor, assistant assessors and other employees; providing for their compensation payable by such counties; prescribing certain duties of and certain fees to be collected by the recorder of deeds; and eliminating the triennial assessment," by changing the provisions relating to the appointment of chief assessors; requiring that the chief assessor devote a major portion of his time to his office providing for examinations for chief assessors and creating a committee to prepare and supervise such examinations

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 680, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 928) entitled "An act relating to the annual salaries and compensation of certain county officers of counties of the sixth class" by increasing the salaries of certain county officers

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 681, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 971) entitled "An act relating to the annual salaries and compensation of certain county officers of counties of the eighth class" by increasing the salaries of certain county officers

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. BERKSTRESSER offered the following amendments:

Amend Section 1, (Sec. 1), page 2, lines 9, 10 and 11, by striking out the words "ten thousand (10,000) two" in line 9, all of lines 10 and 11 and inserting in lieu thereof "twelve thousand (12,000) two thousand two hundred dollars ($2,200), and in counties having a population of twelve thousand (12,000)".

Amend Section 1, (ec. 1), page 2, line 15, by striking out the words and figures "two thousand dollars ($2,000)" and inserting in lieu thereof "one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500)".

Amend Section 1, (Sec. 1), page 2, line 17, by inserting a bracket before the word "ten".

Amend Section 1, (Sec. 1), page 2, line 17, by striking out the bracket before the word "eight".

Amend Section 1, (Sec. 1), page 2, line 17, by inserting after the figures "($825)]" the following "twelve thousand (12,000)".

Amend Section 1, (Sec. 1), page 2, line 19, by inserting a bracket before the word "ten".

Amend Section 1, (Sec. 1), page 3, line 1, by inserting a bracket after the figures (10,000) and inserting immediately thereafter the following "twelve thousand (12,000)".

Amend Sec. (Sec. 1), page 3, by inserting between lines 3 and 4 the following:

(d) The county auditors shall each receive ten dollars (10) for each day necessarily employed in the discharge of their duties.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 3, line 4, by inserting before the word "The" the following: "(e)"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. BERKSTRESSER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the House's approval on these amendments.

The purpose of the amendments is this: Fulton county's population is 10,387. That throws us in the high bracket and raises the salaries in our county nearly double.

I have amended the bill to read instead of from 10,000 to 20,000 to 12,000 to 20,000. That will keep us back in the bracket with the ones under the 10,000 at the present time, and it will not affect any other county because the rest of the counties run from 15,000 to 20,000 and the others are around 8,000.

Also, I have amended the bill so that the Commissioners receive a salary of $1500 instead of $2,000, which with their institution district pay, will give them $1800 a year and they only meet twice a month. I think that is very good pay for two days a month.

Those are the amendments I have offered and I would appreciate the approval of the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

The second section and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 682, entitled

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 938) entitled "An act relating to the annual salaries and compensation of certain county officers of counties of the seventh class" by increasing the salaries of certain county officers

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 688, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 303 of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1017) entitled "An act creating in each county (except of the first class) as a separate corporation and in each city of the first and second class as a part of the city government an institution district for the care and maintenance of certain indigent persons and children prescribing the powers and duties of county commissioners county treasurers city departments of public welfare the State Department of Welfare and the State Department of Public Assistance in respect thereto abolishing certain poor districts and terminating the terms of directors overseers guardians and managers of the poor and poor district auditors and providing for the temporary employment of certain of them providing for the transfer vesting sale and disposition of the property of poor districts and the payment of their obligations imposing certain existing obligations on institution districts and on the Commonwealth regulating the affairs of poor districts until abolished revising amending changing and consolidating the law relating to the care of the poor and repealing existing laws" by directing that an allowance be paid to certain county controllers for the expenses pertaining to the institution district for a temporary period

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 729, Printer's No. 402 was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 738, entitled

An Act to further amend subsection (g) of Section 1110 of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333), entitled "An act concerning elections, including general, municipal, special and primary elections, the nomination of candidates, primary and election expenses and election contests; creating and defining membership of county boards of elections; imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth, courts, county boards of elections, county commissioners; imposing penalties for violation of the act, and codifying, revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections," by eliminating requirement that the form and arrangement of ballot labels on voting machines be approved by the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 742, entitled:

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is it too late to be recorded as voting against House Bill No. 1546, Printer's No. 902?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman, by unanimous consent of the House the gentleman may be recorded in the negative.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, had I been sufficiently alert I would have voted against that bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to permit the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews to be recorded in the negative on House Bill No. 1546, Printer's No. 902?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, am I to be permitted to explain the reasons why I would have voted against it?

The SPEAKER. Without objections the gentleman will proceed.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the bill substitutes for "audit" in the case of cafeteria books the word "examination." I believe that substitution is in the wrong direction, that the audit should be an audit rather than an examination.

Mr. SPEAKER. Without objections the gentleman will be recorded on the negative roll on House Bill 1546, Printer's Number 902.

The reason stated by the gentleman will be spread upon the record.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 1606, Printer's No. 893, and

House Bill No. 1607, Printer's No. 888,

were passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1637, as follows:

An Act to further amend sections two three and four of the act approved the eleventh day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 326) entitled "An act relating to counties of the first class defining deceased service persons providing for contributions by the county to the funeral expenses for such persons and their widows providing for the erection and care of markers headstones and flags and for the compilation of war records" by removing limitation regulating contributions made by county commissioners towards funeral expenses of deceased service persons and their widows

Section 1 Sections two three and four of the act approved the eleventh day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 326) entitled "An act relating to counties of the first class defining deceased service persons providing for contributions by the county to the funeral expenses for such persons and their widows providing for the erection and care of markers headstones and flags and for the compilation of war records" as last amended by the act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 974) are hereby further amended to read as follow

Section 2 Sum to be Spent The county commissioners of any county of the first class of this State are hereby authorized and directed to contribute the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) towards the funeral expenses of each deceased service person in the cases enumerated below where in each case application therefor is made within one year after the date of his or her death [and where the total expenses of the funeral does not exceed six hundred dollars ($600)] Provided That in the case of any deceased service person who died while in the service application need not be made within one year after the date of his or her death but may be made at any time thereafter if the reason for the delay is satisfactory to the county commissioners Payment shall be made under the following circumstances

(1) Where the deceased service person at the time of his or her death had his or her legal residence in the county whether or not he or she died in the county and whether or not he or she was buried in the county It is hereby declared to be the intent of the General Assembly that every deceased service person having a legal residence in any county of the first class in this Commonwealth at the time of his or her death shall be entitled to the benefits of this section regardless of where he or she may have died or where he or she may be buried and that the liability therefore shall be on the county where such deceased service person shall have had his or her legal residence at the time of his or her death

(2) Where the deceased service person died and was buried in the county but at the time of his death did not have a legal residence within this Commonwealth if the county commissioners of the county where he died shall be notified in writing by any organization of veterans that the body is unclaimed by relatives or friends and upon investigation shall find such condition to exist

(3) When a deceased service person has died while a member of the Pennsylvania Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Erie Pennsylvania and such home incurs all funeral expenses and buries such person in a cemetery in the City of Erie Pennsylvania or the home furnishes clothing casket and shipping case and ships the body to the county from which he was admitted to the home the county from which he was admitted shall reimburse and pay to the Pennsylvania Soldiers' and Sailors' Home the amount of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) or so much thereof as was actually expended by such home

Section 3 Burial of Widows of Deceased Service Persons Upon due application and proof the county commissioners of such county are hereby authorized and directed to contribute the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) from the county funds towards the funeral expenses of any widow of any male deceased service person who at the time of her death had a legal residence in the county whether or not she died in the county and whether or not she was buried in the county Provided however That the county commissioners shall not contribute any moneys toward the funeral expenses of any such widow of a deceased service person who had remarried after the death of such deceased service person [nor where the total expense of any such funeral shall exceed six hundred dollars ($600)] nor unless application for the payment of such moneys shall be made within one year after the date of the death of such widow of a deceased service person

Section 4 Payments It shall be the duty of the county commissioners of each such county in this State to draw a warrant upon the treasurer of their county in the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) for each body buried in accordance with the provisions of this act to be paid out of the funds of the county and such warrants shall be made payable to the applicant or applicants if the application shows that the funeral expenses have been paid otherwise to the undertaker performing the services with notice to the applicant

Applicant for such contribution shall be made by the personal representative of such deceased service person or deceased service person's widow if there be such personal representative if no such personal representative has qualified then by any next of kin individual or veterans' organization who or which assumes responsibility for the cost of burial of the body and shall be sustained by affidavit as to the facts

Such application shall be on forms prescribed by the Department of Military Affairs and shall set forth whether or not the funeral expenses have been paid The application shall have attached thereto a certified copy of the death certificate and an affidavit by the undertaker who had charge of the burial of the body to the effect that the undertaker did render such service [and that the cost of burial did not exceed the sum of six hundred dollars ($600)]

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor of the bill how much this increases the cost of a funeral?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson permit himself to be interrogated

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, I shall.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, in answer to that question I would say that it will not increase the cost of a funeral any. This merely removes the limitation, the six hundred dollar limitation that, is presently in the law.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if the limitation is wiped out, the sky would be the limit would not that be the case?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, by way of answering Mr. Andrew's question, I would just say that early in the session a number of veteran's groups came to me and said they thought it would be very desirable to remove the six hundred dollar limitation that is in the law. At the present time a veteran will not receive—that is a veteran's widow or estate will not receive the seventy-five dollar funeral fund contribution from the county if the funeral exceeds six hundred dollars. It was pointed out to me that in almost every case the seventy-five dollars is being paid and it is merely an amendment to the bill to really give effect to a condition that prevails at the present time.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1643, entitled:

An Act fixing the fees and mileage of the coroner in counties of the sixth class

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to inquire why coroners in sixth class counties should have their mileage fixed at fifteen cents a mile.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question I would say that this bill does not amend the present mileage for coroners. It is at the present time fifteen cents.

As I understand the bill, and as I requested to have it drafted, I am sure it provides merely that the viewing of the body has been increased from $7.50 to $10. That is the only increase in the bill. I believe the present law is fifteen cents.

Mr. ANDREWS. Will the gentleman let the bill go over until tomorrow until we have a chance to look into it?

Mr. JOHNSON. I will be glad to pass it over.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 708, Printer's No. 338 was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 723, as follows:

An Act to amend section 3 of the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 359) entitled "An act relating to recognizances and official bonds of present and future sheriffs and coroners and to their sureties thereon imposing the expense of corporate suretyships on such obligations upon the several counties and various duties upon the courts of common pleas and county officers thereof authorizing the substitution of approved surety companies for individual or corporate sureties upon such obligations and the release of any surety upon any such recognizance by such court upon certain conditions dispensing with sureties on such recognizances but providing for the acknowledgement recording and indexing of same as liens on certain real estate regulating such liens and releases therefrom providing for refunds to sheriffs and coroners of certain premiums paid to sureties on their official bonds and recognizances and repealing inconsistent laws except as to existing claims or pending suits thereunder subject to certain limitations" by fixing the time the lien of such recognizances shall run including those heretofore executed

Section 1 Section 3 of the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 359) entitled "An act relating to recognizances and official bonds of present and future sheriffs and coroners and to their sureties thereon imposing the expense of corporate suretyships on such obligations upon the several counties and various duties upon the courts of common pleas and county officers thereof authorizing the substitution of approved surety companies for individual or corporate sureties upon such obligations and the release of any surety upon any such recognizance by such court upon certain conditions dispensing with sureties on such recognizances but providing for the acknowledgment recording and indexing of same as liens on certain real estate regulating such liens and releases therefrom providing for refunds to sheriffs and coroners of certain premiums paid to sureties on their official bonds and recognizances and repealing inconsistent laws except as to existing claims or pending suits thereunder subject to certain limitations" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 Every sheriff whether elected or appointed to fill a vacancy not including any coroner temporarily acting as sheriff and every coroner before he is commissioned or executes any duties of his respective office shall execute and duly acknowledge before the recorder of deeds of the proper county a proper recognizance without any surety to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the faithful discharge of all his official duties in like amount as that of his official bond required by existing law and in a form containing like conditions as such bond which recognizance shall be immediately recorded in said county at the expense of said sheriff or coroner and when so recorded shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Commonwealth with said recorder's certificate endorsed thereon of its having been duly recorded and with a reference to the place of record thereof Every such recognizance thereafter executed shall continue to be a lien on the real estate owned by the sheriff or coroner at the date of such acknowledgement for a period of six years that date Every recognizance heretofore executed by any sheriff or coroner shall continue to be a lien on the real estate owned by the sheriff or coroner at the time the recognizance was dated for a period of six years after that date but in every case where the period of six years has already expired the lien of such recognizance shall continue for a period of two years after the effective date of this amendment or to the end of the lien term fixed by law at the time the recognizance was executed whichever date shall first occur The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall have and keep the custody of every such recognizance and any copy thereof and of said endorsements certified to by said Secretary of the Commonwealth shall be competent evidence of the execution delivery and recording thereof in any judicial proceedings and may be relied upon by any public officer to the same extent as he original recognizance would be The proper recorder of deeds may also certify copies of such recognizance and the time and place of record thereof for like purposes upon receipt of his proper fees therefor according to existing laws Such recognizances or any duly certified copy thereof may likewise be recorded and indexed like a judgment in any other county of this Commonwealth by any person or public officer upon payment of the usual fees to the recorder of deeds and prothonotary of such county respectively for the purpose of creating a lien on any real estate of the sheriff or coroner obligated thereby lying in such other county. It shall be the duty of the recorder of deeds of the county for which a sheriff or coroner is elected or appointed as soon as said sheriff or coroner is commissioned to certify the date amount and place of record of his recognizance with the name and address of said sheriff or coroner to the prothonotary of said county who shall enter such information upon his dockets and index the lien of such recognizance like a judgment obtained in the court of common pleas of said county. Every sheriff's or coroner's recognizance hereafter given shall inure to the benefit of any surety on his official bond entitled to subrogation to the rights of any person or corporation including any county intended to be benefited thereby injured by any official misconduct or neglect of the sheriff or coroner who executed such recognizance to the extent of any payments by such surety for any damages for which such sheriff or coroner may be held to be liable in any suit or proceedings against such sheriff or coroner on his official bond or recognizance. And a similar right of subrogation may be enforced with respect to any such recognizance heretofore given to the extent permitted by law or equity.

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts are hereby repealed in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this act

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(d) On the first Monday of [November] September the board shall meet for the hearing of appeals and shall continue to meet for such purpose from time to time until all appeals have been heard and acted upon All appeals shall be heard and acted upon not later than the first day of [January] October The board shall notify each person who has filed an appeal of the time and place of hearing on said appeal by depositing such notice in the mail addressed to such person at the address designated in the appeal not later than the tenth day preceding the day designated in the notice for such appearance Any person who shall fail to appear for hearing at the time fixed shall be conclusively presumed to have abandoned his appeal

(e) When the board has completed the hearing of appeals and has in each case entered its order it shall make such changes in the assessment roll as will make it conform to such orders When such corrections have been made the board shall prepare three copies of the assessment roll and deliver them on or before the first day of December with its certificate that they are a true copy of the original assessment roll to the following

(1) One copy to the chief clerk of the county commissioners

(2) One copy of such portion of the roll as contains the assessment of persons or property within each school district to the secretary of the board of school directors of the respective school district and

(3) One copy of such portion of the roll as contains the assessment of persons or property within each city accepting the provisions of this act borough town or township to the respective city clerk borough secretary town clerk or secretary or township secretary All copies of such roll so furnished shall for all purposes be considered as originals The said copies in addition to the information required to be shown on the original assessment roll shall provide space to the right of each assessment for the entry of all taxes which may be levied thereon by the respective political subdivisions. The original assessment roll as corrected after appeals shall be preserved in the office of the chief assessor or of the board and shall be open to public inspection subject to such regulations as the board may prescribe for the preservation and safe-keeping of such roll.

(f) On or before the fifteenth day of [January] October the board shall certify to the clerk or secretary of each political subdivision coming within the scope of this act within the county the value of real property the value of occupations and the number of persons subject to personal taxes appearing in the assessment roll and taxable by the respective political subdivisions.

Section 3 Section 9 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 9 After action on such assessments by said board and dissatisfied taxable may within thirty days from the final fixing of his assessment and valuation appeal therefrom to the court of common pleas of the said county in the manner provided by law for appeals from assessments and it shall be the duty of the court at once to hear and determine said appeal and if necessary to make such changes therein as may be right and proper in the case of real property the courts shall determine from the evidence submitted at the hearing what ratio was used generally in the taxing district and the court shall direct the application of the ratio so found to the value of the property which is the subject matter of the appeal and such shall be the assessment from the decision of the court of appeal may be taken to the superior or supreme court as now provided by law.

Section 4 Said act is hereby amended by adding after Section 9 thereof three new sections to read as follows:

Section 10 The board may change the assessed valuation on real property when (1) a parcel of land is divided and conveyed away in smaller parcels or (2) when the economy of the county or any portion thereof has depreciated or appreciated to such extent that real estate values generally in that area are affected and (3) when improvements are made to real property or existing improvements removed from real property. The painting of a building or the normal regular repairs to a building aggregating one thousand dollars ($1.00) or less in value annually shall not be deemed cause for a change in valuation.

Section 10.1 (a) The office issuing building permits in every political subdivision of the county shall keep a daily record separate and apart from all other records of every building permit issued which shall set forth the following information: the date of issuance, the names and addresses of the persons owning and a description sufficient to identify the property for which the permit was issued, the nature of the improvements and the amount in dollars in which issued. On or before the first Monday of each month such office shall file the daily record in the office of the board together with a certificate of the head of such office that its contents are correct. Such office shall charge and collect from each person to whom a building permit is issued the sum of fifteen cents which sum shall be in full compensation for its services under the provisions of this act.

(b) Whenever any person makes improvements other than the painting of or normal regular repairs to a building aggregating one thousand dollars ($1,000) or less in value annually to any real property in any political subdivision in the county and he is not required to obtain a building permit therefor by any political subdivision within thirty days of commencing the improvements he shall furnish the following information to the board: the name and address of the person owning and a description sufficient to identify the property involved, the nature of the improvements made or to be made and the amount in dollars of the value of the improvements.

Any person who wilfully fails to comply with the provisions of this subsection or who in furnishing such information wilfully falsifies the same shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than fifty dollars ($50).

(c) At least once every three months the board shall forward copies of such improvement records to the subordinate assessors for the districts in which such improvements are made or contemplated. The subordinate assessors shall visit the site of the improvements and secure any information the board requests which may include the description and measurements, type of construction, degree of completion cost and probable value of the improvements.

Section 10.2 (a) It shall be the duty of every grantee of real property to register the deed of conveyance in the office of the board within thirty days from the date of conveyance unless such deed shall have been previously recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds.

(b) Any person who wilfully fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) and not more than one hundred dollars ($100).

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the first time,
Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. DALRYMPLE asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, several weeks ago the Minority Leader entrusted to my trusteeship a bill which would raise the salaries of the Members of the Legislature—not the present Members, of course, that cannot be done, but the future Legislators.

I told him at that time I was sure that there would be sponsorship with him for this bill. He and I have gone over it and we have prepared what we think is a fair and honest bill for future Legislators. I would like to go on record with him and with the Members that as of now I am putting in a salary increase for Members of future Legislatures.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the classical reference is harked from the tombs, a doleful sound. It is with exceeding joy that I see that we can amend the traditional reference and say at long last "Hark from the mausoleum a joyous note."

I am sure that the Members of the House appreciate the strain upon the Majority Leader while he has been making up his mind whether there were enough men on his side of the House who believed that they were worth $5,000 for a legislative session. We never were under any misapprehensions on that point, Mr. Speaker, we always knew we were worth $5,000 for a session. If there are annual sessions, we are worth $5,000 for every one of them. We are exceedingly glad and we do not believe that on a showdown, Mr. Speaker, there will be a single dissenting vote. If there is we will murder him.

Mr. Speaker, the tax package has been introduced and given a first reading. I would request that prior to the consideration of the tax package on second reading the Majority leader, or someone speaking for him, give us a detailed statement for the record concerning what the various bills in the tax package do.

We desire this information because following that we will probably ask the privilege of holding a caucus and we would like to enter that caucus having had the benefit of a technical explanation of what the tax package accomplishes.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I will assure the Minority Leader that I will do my best in my humble way to answer his question and to definitely state what each and every tax bill does and how it operates. I am not a technical expert but I will provide him with as much information as I am able to provide within my ability.

SENATE MESSAGE

SENATE INSISTS ON AMENDMENTS NON-CONCURRED IN BY HOUSE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has insisted upon its amendments, non-concurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 1102, entitled:

An Act to provide for liens for the cost of hospital care and treatment of persons wilfully or negligently injured the liens to exist on rights of action and on counterclaims and on verdicts and judgments recovered as the result of such injuries and on moneys paid in settlement of such actions and counterclaims and providing rights of action to recover such liens if not paid.

And has appointed Messrs. Wade, Mallery and Neff a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives already appointed on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mrs. COYLE asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by her.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mrs. COYLE, Messrs. WARGO, MULDOWNNEY, Mrs. MONROE, Messrs. GRANVILLE E. JONES, HOGGARD, CONWAY, MUSTO, McGEE, DUFFY, SCANLON, NEEDHAM and Mrs. VARALLO offered a resolution which was read considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, September 17, 1951.

Of the fruits of a long legislative session, the most pleasant is that of extending birthday greetings to members who happen to have birthdays after the usual closing date of the General Assembly.

The happy occasion this time is that of felicitating Marion L. Munley of the fifth Legislative District, upon her birthday, which was Sunday, August 19.

It is true she is past nineteen, but old friends fondly remember when some fifteen years ago she was "celebrated as the beauty—"Miss Anthracite."

And, then as now, beauty was not her only attribute—for she is of the most happy disposition, inspiring affection from all sides of the House—and as she passes down the aisle the wolf calls rise—"Choo-choo" "choo-choo" which means to the callers—"Oh you beautiful doll, we love you in spite of your love of the old iron horse." (She has been vigorously opposed to the commonly called "Big Truck Bill"), therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby wishes Marion L. Munley a very, very happy birthday and wishes she may have many, many more of them.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the lady from Lackawanna, Mrs. Munley.

Mrs. MUNLEY. Mr. Speaker, this certainly was a surprise, and I want to thank Josephine for her kindness.

Yes, I have always been against the truck bill, and I have been named "Choo Choo"—no reflection on the Members from Philadelphia but I can take it.

For the benefit of Mr. Costa, if he is in the House at present—yes Frank, I am 21 plus. You know a few months ago Frank tried to look up my age in the manual but it was not there. I am a little too wise, Frank, for that.

At this time I wish to thank all the Members of the House for their kindness.

COMMITTEE MEETING

Public Health and Sanitation, Mr. Frost, Chairman, Room 329, Tuesday, September 18, at 9:30 a. m. EST.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. DUFFY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Tuesday, September 18, 1951 at 11 a. m. EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 5:50 p. m. EST) the House adjourned.

HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1951.

No. 82.

SENATE

TUESDAY, September 18, 1951.

The Senate met at 12:00 o'clock, m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. WILLIAM D. McLEAN, Pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Butler, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

O God, our fountain of wisdom, Whose statutes are good and gracious and Whose law is truth, we humbly ask Thee at this time so to guide and bless the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania now assembled. Direct and prosper all their consultations and decisions, so that all things may be so ordered and settled by their endeavors that justice and truth may be established among us for all generations.

Grant that we may all do the work which Thou givest us to do with singleness of heart as Thy servants, and to the benefit of our fellow men. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. SCARLETT, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. Hare asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. KEPHART, for the week because of illness.

L. 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" by further regulating publication of notice of land subdivision ordinances.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I certainly do not want to be placed in the position of quarreling with one of the greatest professions known to mankind, the medical profession, but yesterday in the City of Pittsburgh a very distinguished member of the medical profession saw fit to make a few remarks at a convention being held by the medical profession there regarding the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Now, Mr. President, among other things Doctor Gardner said—I am quoting from the newspaper—"Our efforts during the past year," Doctor Gardner declared, "have forced me to conclude that the average legislator is primarily a politician and not a statesman, that his vote is determined by the number of letters he receives and not by his own convictions."

Now, Mr. President, Doctor Gardner knows a lot more about the extraction of an appendix than I do, but I think, in all due respect to Doctor Gardner, that I know a lot more about the problems of legislation in Harrisburg than he does. I do not know whether Doctor Gardner considers the term "politician" an insult or a disparaging remark, but I think he used it in that sense.

Mr. President, I would like to say for Doctor Gardner's benefit that it is no disgrace to be a politician, and it certainly is not speaking in a disparaging tone to say that the Members of the General Assembly or the average legislator is primarily a politician. I know Doctor Gardner would resent it if somebody would get up on the Senate floor and suggest that the average member of the medical profession was a "quack" and not a physician, and am assuming that Doctor Gardner thought he was casting a disparaging remark upon the Members of the General Assembly when he said that the average legislator is a politician and not a statesman. Mr. President, maybe Doctor Gardner will take the trouble to explain to his breathless public the difference between a politician and a statesman. Maybe he will explain why he thinks there should be two hundred fifty-eight statesmen down here and no politicians. Maybe Doctor Gardner would like to explain why he prefers to be represented by statesmen and not politicians, and Doctor Gardner says that we are convinced and our vote is determined by the number of letters we receive.

Now, Mr. President, in the last several days I have received hundreds of letters from doctors all over Pennsylvania regarding a bill that is in a committee of which, incidentally, Mr. President, I am not a member, and the letters were sent to me at the direction of the chief lobbyist for the medical profession in the hope that, perhaps, whatever influence I might have would be brought to bear to help get the bill out of committee. Now, Mr. President, those letters were sent to me because I am a politician and not with any idea that I am a statesman. Those letters were sent to me to deliberately influence me. Those letters were sent to me in the hope that by their overwhelming number I would be convinced that the vast majority of people in my district were for that bill. Doctor Gardner and his medical profession were doing the very identical thing that Doctor Gardner now suggests breathes of the essence of politics. If Doctor Gardner and men like him would take more interest in public life and would take more interest in politics, we would not have so much trouble with statesmen.

Mr. President, I am not ashamed of the fact that I am associated with fifty men who in my opinion are good politicians, who are placing public service above private aggrandizement, and am I glad that Doctor Gardner is willing to say that the average legislator is a politician. The thing I do not like, Mr. President, is the fact that he thought he was insulting us when he called us that. I think the medical profession would do a fine thing if they would send a few more doctors down here to become Members of the General Assembly. I think Doctor Chapman, for example, who is the Dean of the Senate, is one of the finest public officials and one of the finest politicians Pennsylvania has ever had. He is far above average, and he is still a good politician. I think we should have more doctors in the General Assembly, and I think that the doctors should send a committee down here, Doctor Gardner should come down here, and find out how the problems of ten million people are solved or at least attempted to be solved by two hundred fifty-eight average citizens. There are very few of the two hundred fifty-eight Members of this General Assembly that even desire to lay claim to being exceptional, outstanding individuals. We are all willing to be just an average guy, and two hundred fifty-eight average guys are trying to solve problems that would worry somebody comparable to the high mental standing of Doctor Gardner, and I think Doctor Gardner, before he starts to sow disunity and distrust and make disparaging remarks about people who are dedicating some of their time, effort and money to solving public problems, should come down here and voluntarily try to understand what we are trying to do for the ten million people that he is discussing in his paper before his own group at a convention.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. STIEFEL asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I find myself in a peculiar position, but it is in my opinion a pleasurable position that I will be paying a tribute to members of the opposition.

Mr. President, recently a book made an appearance in Pennsylvania and throughout the United States which has been hailed by many critics as a fine contribution to American History. This book deals with the history of Montgomery County, and has been published under the auspices of the County Commissioners of Montgomery County, Mr. Peters, Mr. Hillegas and Mr. Mensch. Now, in my opinion this book sets an example for emulation throughout Pennsylvania, because it paints a vivid picture of the evolution, development and progress of Montgomery County, and I felt impelled to pay tribute to this fine publication. In connection therewith I am offering, on behalf of Senator Chapman and myself, the following resolution and ask for its immediate adoption.

SENATE RESOLUTION

"THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY STORY"

Messrs. STIEFEL and CHAPMAN offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, September 18, 1951.

Whereas The recent publication of "The Montgomery County Story" describing the history of Montgomery County, under the auspices of The Commissioners of Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, is an example for emulation throughout the Keystone State, and

Whereas "The Montgomery County Story" marks an inspiring adventure in education, namely the collaboration between the County Government and the County School System, demonstrating the responsibility which a county as a whole can and should feel towards its youth and our priceless American heritage and its cultural treasures, and

Whereas "The Montgomery County Story" written by E. Gordon Alderfer with a pen dipped in historical data collected by Edward W. Hooker over long years of toil and moil, relates the dramatic passage of history on the county scene to the currents of national life and the emergence of America's culture and civilization, and

Whereas our public schools are now required by law to provide a mandatory course on Pennsylvania history at the ninth grade level, and

Whereas the County Commissioners of Montgomery County have forged a weapon that is a valuable addition to the Arsenal of American Ideology and is a step in the right direction towards the inculcation in our youth of patriotism and appreciation of America's creative genius, now therefore be it

Resolved that the Senate of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania express its commendation of "The Montgomery County Story" and congratulate Frederick C. Peters, Foster C. Hillegas and Raymond K. Mensch, the County Commissioners of Montgomery County for their vision in setting an example for emulation in the sister counties of Pennsylvania, and be it further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate forward a copy of the instant resolution, upon its passage to the County Commissioners of Montgomery County.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. STIEFEL asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, in offering this resolution I hope I did not make a faux pas in not inviting the illustrious Senator from Montgomery to join me, but I felt it would be awkward if a Member hailing from Montgomery County would be paying tribute to the Commissioners of Montgomery County, and this is the reason I did not dare to ask him to join in the resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. I think it is very fine for the Senator from the sister county of Philadelphia to blow the horn for Montgomery County.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, during the recess period I had occasion to visit Seattle, Washington, and while I was there the Japanese Peace Treaty Conference was taking place in San Francisco, and since it was only about three hours ride by plane, I thought it would be a good experience to go down to San Francisco and if possible attend the Conference. I had a hard time getting in, but I finally got a pass to get in, and there I witnessed the proceedings which were very very impressive. I witnessed how the Soviet Delegation and the Soviet Satellites made every effort and every attempt to delay and cause confusion among the delegates present to bring about dissension to defeat the signing of the Peace Treaty.

Mr. President, while I was there I witnessed the manner in which the Secretary of State, Dean Acheson, who was elected President of the Conference, disposed of the various maneuvers that were attempted by the Soviet Delegation and her Satellites. I witnessed and heard the arguments that were presented by Mr. Foster Dulles, the Special Representative of the President, who worked on this Treaty for eleven months and did the greater portion of the drafting. I was so impressed with the unity between the forty-eight nations of the world which signed this Treaty that I sort of made up my mind, while I was sitting there, that when I got back I was going to draft and present a resolution commending the nations of the world for the unity they displayed and their desire for world peace, and for the manner in which Dean Acheson conducted the Conference and for the splendid work done by Foster Dulles.

Accordingly, Mr. President, I offer the following resolution and move its immediate adoption.

COMMENDING DEAN ACHESON AND JOHN FOSTER DULLES FOR THEIR UNTIRING EFFORTS IN THE PREPARATION ON THE JAPANESE PEACE TREATY

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, September 18, 1951.

Whereas, Fifty-one nations of the world met in San Francisco, California, from September 4th, 1951 to September 8th, 1951 for the purpose of concluding and signing a Peace Treaty with Japan, and

Whereas, The U.S.S.R. and her two satellites, Poland and Czechoslovakia, not only refused to sign said Peace Treaty but also failed to make an appearance at the signing ceremonies on Saturday, September 8th. In addition the U.S.S.R. and her same two satellites, Poland and Czechoslovakia maneuvered in every possible way to prolong, delay and cause confusion with the hope of bringing about dissension between the participating nations, and

Whereas, the U.S.S.R. and her two satellites were defeated in their attempts to cause said delay and confusion due to the efficient manner in which the Secretary of State, Dean Acheson, presided over the meeting and the efficient manner in which he disposed of motions and maneuvers attempted by the representatives of these disruptive countries, and

Whereas, the Peace Treaty with Japan was prepared by the special representative of the President, Foster W. Dulles, after eleven months of negotiation and study in a manner and form which was highly instrumental in its approval by the forty-eight nations of the world without amendment or objection to its final provisions, and

Whereas, Mr. Dulles in explaining the terms of the treaty did so in simple and concise language and effectively and successfully answered all arguments and defeated all objections presented by the representatives of these disruptive nations,

Therefore, Be It Resolved That the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, hereby, commend the forty-eight nations of the World signing the Japanese Peace Treaty for their expression of unity as well as their desire for peace between the nations of the world, and

Be It Further Resolved that the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, hereby, commends Secretary of State, Dean Acheson, and special representative of the President, John Foster Dulles, for their untiring efforts in the negotiation and preparation of the Japanese Peace Treaty and for the manner in which they conducted themselves at the San Francisco Conference, all of which was instrumental and directly responsible for the success of said conference, and

Be It Finally Resolved that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States, Harry S. Truman, to The Secretary of State, Dean Acheson, and to the Special Representative to the President, Foster W. Dulles, with the compliments of the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WAGNER, from the Committee on Education, reported as committed, House Bill No. 589, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand one hundred forty-four of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled, "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by further providing for additional increments for holders of college certificates or Masters' Degrees

He also, from the Committee on Education, reported as committed, House Bill No. 590, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand one hundred forty-four of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by further providing for increments for professional employees holding a Masters Degree or its equivalent.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WAGNER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, I am about to report three bills from the Committee on Education, and I would like to be very careful to make a clarifying statement in regard to these bills which I am directed to report. I have in my hand House Bills Nos. 333, 334 and 714. House Bill No. 333 deals with the proposed increase in increments for schoolteachers. House Bill No. 334 deals with increased subsidies to school districts to help pay for those increments, and House Bill No. 714 is a salary scale for teachers in State Teachers Colleges, which the Committee feels is long past due and to which they are fully entitled.

Mr. President, the Education Committee approved these bills in principle, and since they are approved in principle and since they are quite involved in their provisions, the committee is eager that the Senators be able to study them in detail at their leisure, rather than in the closing hours of this Session, but it must be thoroughly understood that the Education Committee does not want the teachers of the public schools or the teachers of the teachers colleges in Pennsylvania to assume that the reporting out of these bills means that they are in the clear and that they are going to get increases. That is not necessarily the case.

Mr. President, House Bills Nos. 333, 334, 714 cannot be passed by the Senate unless or until adequate tax measures are passed to provide the necessary money. It would be a breach of faith on our part and it would be placing the Governor of the Commonwealth in an impossible position if we were to pass these bills without revenue measures adequate to take care of them. So, I am announcing to the Senate, and I am announcing to the school directors of the Commonwealth through the press, I hope, that these bills may be subject to amendment. They may be subject to recall to the committee if we find that our economy is not quite in step with our sympathies and our hearts.

Mr. President, with that understanding, I present to the Chair House Bill No. 333, as amended, House Bill No. 334 as committed, and House Bill No. 714 as committed.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WAGNER, from the Committee on Education reported as amended, House Bill No. 333, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the tenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by further providing for the payment of minimum salaries and increments for county and district superintendents, assistant county and district superintendents, teachers, supervisors, principals, supervising principals and other employees.

He also, from the Committee on Education reported as committed, House Bill No. 334, entitled:

An Act to amend subsections 5 and 6 of section two thousand five hundred one and section two thousand five hundred two of the act, approved the tenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by further providing for reimbursement by the Commonwealth to school districts and vocational school districts.

He also, from the Committee on Education reported as committed, House Bill No. 714, entitled:

An Act to provide for minimum compensation and increments for administrators and members of the faculty of State Teachers Colleges providing for leaves of absence imposing certain duties upon the Boards of Trustees and Presidents of State Teachers Colleges and the Superintendent of Public Instruction and repealing inconsistent laws

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 823, as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" by providing for the payment of service increments to such employees in addition to their retirement allowances

Section 1 Sections 4301 and 4303 of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" as reenacted and amended by the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (Act No. 164) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 4301 Police Pension Fund Direction of Cities shall establish by ordinance a police pension fund to be maintained by an equal and proportionate monthly charge against each member of the police force which shall not exceed annually three per centum of the pay of such member which fund shall at all times be under the direction and control of council but may be committed to the custody and management of such officers of the city or citizens thereof or corporations located therein as may be designated by council and applied under such regulations as council may by ordinance prescribe for the benefit of such members of the police force as shall receive honorable discharge therefrom by reason of age or disability and the families of such as may be injured or killed in the service but such allowances as shall be made to those who are retired by reason of the disabilities of age shall be in conformity with a uniform scale together with service increments as hereinafter provided

Any compensation paid to a corporate custodian of the police pension fund shall be paid from the general fund of the city

Section 4303 Allowances and Service Increments (a) Payments for allowances shall not be a charge on any other fund in the treasury of the city or under its control save the police pension fund herein provided for. The basis of the apportionment of the pension shall be determined by the rate of the monthly pay of the member at the date of injury death honorable discharge or retirement and except as to service increments provided for in subsection (b) of this section shall not in any case exceed in any year one-half the annual pay of such member computed at such monthly rate

(b) In addition to the retirement allowance which is authorized to be paid from the police pension fund by this act and notwithstanding the limitations therein placed upon such retirement allowances and upon contributions every contributor who shall become entitled to the retirement allowance shall also be entitled to the payment of a "service increment" in accordance with and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth

(1) Service increment shall be the sum obtained by computing the number of whole years after having served the minimum required by ordinance during which a contributor has been employed by such city and paid out of the city treasury and multiplying the said number of years so computed by an amount equal to one-fortieth of the retirement allowance which has become payable to such contributor in accordance with the provisions of this act. In computing the service increment no employment after the contributor has reached the age of sixty-five years shall be included and no service increment shall be paid in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per month

(2) Each contributor from and after the effective date of this amendment shall pay into the retirement fund a monthly sum in addition to his or her retirement contribution which shall be equal to one-half of one per centum of his or her salary. Provided That such payment shall not exceed the sum of one dollar ($1.00) per month. And provided That such service increment contribution shall not be paid after a contributor has reached the age of sixty-five years

(3) Persons who are contributors on the effective date of this amendment who have already reached the age of sixty-five years shall have his or her service increment computed on the years of employment prior to the date of reaching his or her sixty-fifth birthday

(4) Service increment contributions shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as retirement contributions and may be withdrawn in full without interest by persons who leave the employment of such city subject to the same conditions by which retirement contributions may be withdrawn

(5) All members of the police force who are now contributors to the retirement fund and all those employed by the city after the effective date of this amendment if required to become contributors to the retirement fund shall be subject to the provisions of this act

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective the first day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to, as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 542, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1120) entitled "An act to promote the safety of employes and travelers upon railroads by compelling common carriers by railroad to man locomotive trains and other self propelled engines or machines with competent employes to provide the least number of men that may be employed on locomotive trains and other self propelled engines or machines to provide the qualifications of certain employes and to provide a penalty for the violation thereof and the enforcement thereof by the Public Utility Commission" by further regulating the size of locomotive crews

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL ON SECOND READING, AMENDMENTS OFFERED

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1356, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one eight and thirteen of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 940) entitled "An act relating to boarding houses for children providing for the licensing and inspection thereof and the adoption of rules and regulations for the maintenance operation and conduct thereof by the Department of Welfare defining offenses and prescribing penalties" by redefining "boarding houses for children" providing for an advisory committee with which the department shall confer in adopting rules and regulations and increasing penalties

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. DENT (by request) offered the following amendment:

Amend Section I, page 3, line 15, by inserting after the word "Commonwealth," the following: "(7)" Any place maintained conducted and supervised by a recognized religious organization."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

(HOUSE BILL No. 1356)

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I object to the amendments and ask that they be voted down.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I would very much like to vote for this bill. However, there are those in Pennsylvania who have for years been connected with the question of foster children and neglected children. The consensus of opinion of those whom I have talked to is that religious organizations as a whole have performed an excellent service in Pennsylvania in the placement of neglected children. There is a need in Pennsylvania for some supervision and examination by the Department of Welfare, and I have always held that that need should be filled at some time. However, the fear that arises in the passage of this bill in its present form, without the amendments, is that bonafide church organizations will no longer have the right of selection and placement of that child who belongs to a certain religious faith. Many churches believe that that is part and parcel of their religious duty, and feel that this bill would injure the operation of their organizations.

Mr. President, if the amendment is rejected, I personally cannot vote for the bill, much as I want to. I think that the original start ought to be made by the Department of Welfare in looking into the management of the foster homes that do not come under the direct supervision of religious organizations. I think you will find upon investigation that the weaknesses in our systems to the care of foster children and neglected children lie in the direct contacts made and the direct contracts made with the private homes and some professional homes. The care usually given, after religious placement, is the kind of care that prepares children in the long run for a useful life along civic and religious lines, and I do not think that we ought to upset at this time that program that has gone on for many many years.

Mr. President, we talk about bureaucracy and we talk about centralization. This bill specifically does these two things, and I for one believe that every man in this Senate, unless he wants to directly insult the management of the homes under the religious groups, ought to give very serious consideration to the amendments just handed in. I would ask my colleagues to vote for the amendments.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, one of the legislative hazards in not having a joint Democratic and Republican Caucus is the fact that it is sometimes difficult for the one Caucus to find out what the other one is doing, and usually the newspaper men find out before the gentlemen in caucus, but they seem to be reluctant to tell the Democratic Caucus what the Republican Caucus decided today.

Mr. President, I would like to suggest to the gentleman from Westmoreland that he would withdraw his amendments until tomorrow. The Republican Caucus today had as a guest the Secretary of the Department of Welfare to discuss these bills, and the Republican Caucus has requested the Attorney General of the Commonwealth to come in tomorrow so that these bills can be discussed with him.

Mr. President, the thought conveyed in Senator Dent's amendments has been discussed favorably by some of the Members of our caucus, and we would like to clarify some matters before the bills are acted on. It was my intention when the bills were called up to ask that they go over in order, pending the action of the early morning caucus, as a matter of fact, the nine o'clock Wednesday morning caucus. If the gentleman will hold his fire until we can get finished with this nine o'clock caucus tomorrow, we might have what is so often termed statesmanship in the Senate Chamber. We might be in accord, novel as that may seem.

AMENDMENT LAID ON THE TABLE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in view of the statement just made by the Majority Leader, I ask that the amendment be laid on the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment will be laid on the table.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 1356, on second reading, go over in its order.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 1357, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the fourteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (P. L. 234) entitled "An act relating to Boarding Houses for Infants providing for the licensing thereof and the adoption of rules and regulations for the maintenance operation and conduct thereof by the Department of Welfare and fixing penalties by redefining "boarding houses for infants" eliminating license fees providing for an advisory committee with which the department shall confer in adopting rules and regulations and increasing penalties"

NAYS—0

NOT VOTING—3

Goodling,	Lafore,	Reidenbach,
-----------	---------	-------------

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1606, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 2681) entitled "An act relating to and regulating the manufacture storing and possession of explosives requiring permits for magazines and prescribing permit fees and providing penalties" by regulating the transportation of explosives requiring permits for blasting including prosecution by the Pennsylvania State Police and otherwise extending the regulation of explosives and increasing fees

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. White, has amendments to offer at this time.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I was going to move to recommit.

The SPEAKER. The Chair must rule that the motion of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, to recommit takes precedence.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in view of the apparent necessity of reconciling various provisions of this bill which would seem to be in conflict, I move that the bill be recommitted to Committee on Labor Relations for the purposes of clarification.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WHITE. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that this bill has been instigated by the Department of Mines and Mining and they feel there is great need for this bill, I would like to ask, if there are any objections, that the bill be passed over rather than be recommitted.

I do not believe that the inconsistencies are such that it requires a prolonged debate in one of our Committees. Since it has gone through that procedure, and in light of the fact that all objections that have been voiced to me and to my co-sponsor have been answered to the best of our ability, and that seemingly opposition to the bill has quieted down, I feel that that procedure can be handled without sending the bill back where it will be buried and never come out again.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, it will require prolonged discussion on the floor of the House to resolve the matters at issue, whereas in committee the matters could be resolved in a very short time.

The matter at issue is a clarification of the provisions relating to the exemptions of agriculture, the farmer. There is one section the says "everybody" who employs explosives must do so and so—must get this one dollar license. Then another provision says there is an exemption for agriculture; you have another provision saying that anybody who wants to blast a stump must get a one dollar license from the Department. The two sections are in conflict, and the way to resolve it is to send it back to committee and get a bill that has internal integrity. We have no intention of sending the bill back to die.

Mr. WHITE. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that there is inconsistency that cannot be cleared up by just holding the bill over. The first section proviso that the exemption is an application to the agricultural people is very clear in its control; and the other section applies to all people who are not covered by the bill. I think that can be made clear by holding the bill over and letting it out on the floor of the House until another day without any need for further debate on the floor of the House on that point.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT WITHDRAWN

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will between now and tomorrow make the bill clear—take steps to make it clear—so far as I am concerned, I will withdraw my motion to recommit. I still think it is the easiest way to solve the matter. We have had more debate now than would have been necessary if it had gone back to committee and put in proper form. I will withdraw my motion and if the bill is not clear we will kill it on the floor of the House.

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 1606, Printer's No. 893 and

House Bill No. 1607, Printer's No. 888,

were passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1626, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 644) entitled "An act relating to and regulating the solicitation of moneys and property for charitable religious benevolent humane and patriotic purposes" by extending its provisions to additional activities agencies and purposes requiring accounting limiting administration costs and use of moneys collected and further regulating solicitation and exemptions.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. RAY L. RILEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 3, Page 6, line 8, by inserting after the figures "474)" the following: "and the act approved the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifty-one (P. L. —), Act No. 174."

Amend Section 3, (Sec. 7), Page 7, line 3, by striking out the word "Welfare" and inserting in lieu thereof "Public Instruction."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1640, as follows:

An Act to amend subsection (b) of Section 1403 of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" by further providing for the composition of the return board

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Subsection (b) of Section 1403 of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1403 Place of Meeting for Computation of Votes Notice Papers to Be Prepared Assistants to Be Sworn

(b) If any member of the county board of any county shall be a candidate for any nomination or election to public office he shall not act as a member of said board for the computation and canvassing of returns but the other members if qualified shall act and in case in any county there are not at least a majority of the members of said board so qualified two (2) or more judges of the court of common pleas shall be designated by said court to act as a return board provided that neither of them is a candidate for any nomination or election to public office and if there shall be only one judge of such court in such county or if less than two (2) judges are qualified and able to act in such county any judge who is qualified may act alone and if there be none qualified the prothonotary of such county shall act as the return board and if the prothonotary shall be a candidate for any nomination or election to any public office then the sheriff of the county shall act as the return board and if the sheriff shall be a candidate for any nomination or election to any public office then the president judge of the court of common pleas in such county shall make a written request to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court for the assignment of a judge from another judicial district who shall act as the return board

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 708, Printer's No. 338 was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 738, as follows:

An Act to further amend subsection (g) of Section 1110 of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" by eliminating requirement that the form and arrangement of ballot labels on voting machines be approved by the Secretary of the Commonwealth

Section 1 Subsection (g) of Section 1110 of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" as amended by the act approved the twenty-fourth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 68) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1110 Form of Ballot Labels on Voting Machines

(g) The form and arrangement of ballot labels shall be prepared by the county election board [and submitted by said board to the Secretary of the Commonwealth for approval. If the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall approve the form and arrangement submitted the county election board shall procure such further copies of the same as may be necessary at the cost of the county. If the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall disapprove the form and arrangement of ballot labels submitted he shall indicate the changes to be made and the county election board after having made the changes indicated by the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall procure further copies of the same as may be necessary at the cost of the county]

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1416, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the eighteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 512) entitled "An act relating to the administration and distribution of decedents' estates trust estates minors' estates and absentees' estates both as to real and personal property and the procedure relating thereto including the disposition of such estates or portions thereof and the determination of title thereto without the appointment of a fiduciary in certain cases the appointment bond removal and discharge of fiduciaries of such estates their powers duties and liabilities the rights of persons dealing with such fiduciaries and the rights of persons claiming an interest in such estates or in property distributed therefrom whether as claimants or distributees and containing provisions concerning guardians of the person of minors the powers duties and liabilities of sureties and of foreign fiduciaries the abatement survival and control of actions and rights of action and the presumption of death and also generally dealing with the jurisdiction powers and procedure of the orphans' court and of the register of wills in all matters relating to fiduciaries" by providing for the examination of safe deposit boxes rented in the names of decedents by an appraiser appointed by the Secretary of Revenue

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this is the day and this is the hour when by agreement with the Majority Leader we will discuss the broad outlines of the tax program which the House is about to consider on second reading.

It is I believe, understood that Members of the House, if there are matters that they do not understand, will be privileged to interrogate the Majority Leader, not for the purpose of controversy today, not for the purpose of debate, but simply for the purpose of obtaining information concerning any feature of any particular measure concerning which they may be in doubt.

And so the Minority awaits with interest the advent of the Majority Leader with his message concerning this latest attempt to resolve an increasingly difficult fiscal and political situation.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, first of all I must thank the Minority Leader for the very gracious fanfare I just had. I hope I will be able to answer the Members' questions that are asked me.

Not being a lawyer, I had prepared by the Attorney General's office a brief on all of these bills. I hope they are on all the Members' desks at this time—is that right?

In that brief you have a legal interpretation from the Attorney General's office. I will try to break down some of our committees' thinking, as far as a practical layman's interpretation is concerned, in the order the bills are on the calendar.

I would first like to say that tax programs are not things that someone comes up and slaps you on the back and congratulates you for.

The committee that worked on this program in the House sincerely and honestly put forth the best substitute tax program that we know of. We tried to make it just as painless as possible. We tried to clear up a lot of unfairness that is in the present law today, and one of the things we tried to do was to eliminate exclusions which are in the present laws of today.

There are some laws that have loop-holes in them. We tried to close those loop-holes because we did not think it was fair for one group to be paying a tax and another group, because of good legal advice or because of a law being loosely written, be eliminated from paying the same tax on the same subject.

Now to get $138 million, which we say we need, and present a tax package that really has only one new tax in it, is doing something, and I do not say this as complimentary to myself as Chairman because I happen to be Chairman of the committee only because of my position as Majority Leader, nor because of any special ability or any other reason, I think this committee has come up with just about the fairest and best tax program that I have ever seen in this House.

Under the exclusions of loop-holes, bill No. 1 which has a different number than the package because it was in prior to the package, is Bill 1416.

If you will refer to the list on your desk you will see that it is bill No. 1. That is a legal interpretation on the brief in front of you. I will try to tell you as much as I am able to tell you as to what the present law is and how we have changed it.

Under the present law, all valuables are part of the gross estate and are appraised as part of that estate. The present law does not seal safe deposit boxes.

Some of the things that can happen under the law today are these. A dishonest executor—and we have them—can rob the state of taxes. That is important. But it is not nearly as important as the fact that a dishonest executor can also rob the heirs and creditors of that estate. Nobody is there to watch that executor open the safe deposit box. If that man is dishonest, he today, can open that box and as far as the state is concerned, he can pass on to the heirs taxable property without paying taxes. If no one is there to watch him and no one knows what is in that box, he can steal from that box and put in his pocket those things that rightfully belong to the heirs of that estate.

Under this bill, this is what we do. We do not change the law; we do not create any new taxation. We are only asking for what is rightfully ours under the present law by the sealing of a safe deposit box at death. At that time an appraiser from the Revenue Department must be present at the opening of the box. That is protection to us in being interested in getting the taxes that are due us; it is protection to the heirs and creditors of an estate.

I do not believe anyone could honestly say that that is not good legislation. Sealing safe deposit boxes is protecting the state, getting what is due it, and protecting the heirs and creditors of an estate. The sealing of a safe deposit box would take care of those things.

Bill 1692 which is the first bill of the package in numerical order is a little bit complicated. It applies to the corporate net income of corporations. We have given it the term of an acceleration clause.

This bill is divided into two parts. The bill affects the acceleration of the corporate net income tax payable to the state. We speeded it up. It also affects exemptions of dividends by which some companies today profit.

I am not a tax lawyer, and in all of these decisions I will talk about these bills on a broad lay basis. This is strictly a tax lawyers' job, but I know, thank God, that there are more laymen in this House than lawyers, and I am going to try to make it just as understandable for them as I can to the best of my ability.

Under the present law, a corporation on a calendar year basis files a tax return three and a half months after the end of the year. An example of that would be a corporation operating on a calendar year, files on the 15th of April of the following year one half of the tax due under corporate net income to the State of Pennsylvania.

Under the present law, the balance of that tax is paid May 15th. These features remain the same.

As an example, the 1950 tax that is paid to the State of Pennsylvania is paid this year, in 1951, on that basis. The 1951 tax is paid in 1952, on exactly the same basis. The 1952 tax is paid exactly that same way in 1953.

But now here is where the modification comes in. In 1953 we will collect part of the 1953 taxes. 1953 would be the schedule under this act to work on.

The 1953 schedule would be this way: April 15th, of 1953, one half of 1952 taxes would be paid. That is exactly the same as it is today. This is the new part—April 30th, of 1953, one half of the estimated tax for 1953 would be paid. May 15th, the balance of the 1952 tax would be paid.

Now, as you can see, what we have done on this acceleration is to put in an additional payment on April 30th.

This estimation for the additional payment is based on two things—it is based really on one, the Federal government report. They have the choice of basing it on the last report filed with the Federal government, or on the earnings of the first three months of that year. In other words, a corporation can say we made so much money in 1952. We assume we will make that much money in 1953 so we will estimate our tax on that basis.

If a corporation would be on a fiscal year and not have its complete return from 1952, they would then have the choice of saying during January, February and March, or the first three months, we made so much money. We assume we are going to make that much money the rest of this year. They pay their tax on that basis.

Now this is very important. This does not cost any corporation any additional tax money. All this does is credit payment for 1953 taxes.

There has been misinformation passed around evidently by people who do not understand this tax and they make use of the statement of "robbing Peter to pay Paul." That is not true. The person who makes that statement does not understand what he is saying. This does not "Rob Peter to pay Paul," because this bill, if it were re-enacted by the next legislature would not take one cent of tax money from the 1953-1954 biennium. It would give the corporations the privilege of doing the same thing we are asking them to do now—moving tax payments up a six-month period. It is exactly the same thing, in a little bit more common language, as going into a hotel on a Monday and paying your bill on a Friday when you leave. That is what we are doing in Pennsylvania today.

This is saying, you go into the hotel on Monday, but pay your bill on Monday, before you leave Friday you take credit for what you paid Monday. It does not cost the corporation one penny more to do that in tax money.

I would like to carry it just a little but further by saying that you and I as individuals pay to our Federal Government on exactly that same basis. A man who is working for a salary pays on a withholding basis on the estimated money that will be earned by him that year. At the end of the year when filing his tax return, if he earns less money he gets a credit from the Government. If he earns more money, at the end of the year he catches up and makes that payment and a little bit larger payment to catch up.

A businessman who is in an unincorporated business, such as I, and I may have to refer sometimes to myself because it is an example that I can state, I am part of the partnership, I pay my taxes to the Federal government for the following year on an estimated basis. We ordinarily estimate our taxes on what we made the preceding year. We pay our taxes on that basis.

In other words if we think we are going to make a few extra dollars, we add a few extra dollars in tax; if we think we are not going to make as much, we deduct it. But we pay it on an estimated basis and we are paying, I am paying, and everyone in this House, if he is working for a salary, is paying on a cash-as-you-go basis. There is no reason why corporations cannot do the same thing. It is not costing them any more than it is costing you and I.

The second part of Bill 1692 considers removal of exemptions of dividends. Again I want to quote the present law. The present law exempts from the Pennsylvania Corporate Net Income Tax all dividends received by corporations. But Pennsylvania is unique in this, and is one of the very few states in this nation that has this law. Today if a corporation pays a dividend to another corporation that dividend is not included in income in computing corporate net income tax that is paid to the state.

This bill that we are proposing makes all dividends paid from corporations not subject to the Pennsylvania Corporate Net Income Tax taxable. It is a fair bill for the corporation that pays a corporate net income tax in Pennsylvania. If that same corporation pays a dividend to another corporation, that dividend is not taxable by the other corporation under the Corporate Net Income Tax. There is no double taxation here.

Again let me go back to the individual so that we know what we are talking about. I as an individual today receive a dividend from a corporation. That corporation pays an income tax to the Federal government. I received a dividend, I include it in my income and I pay tax to the Federal government on the same dividend. This is double taxation.

Again we are putting the corporation of nearly the same basis as you and I. Any dividend that we receive from any corporation, from any company, is included in our computation of our federal income tax. Again we are plugging loopholes. We are not making new taxes.

Bill 1693 comes under the elimination of exclusions. Today under the present law there is an eight mill tax on Transportation Companies. This applies only to companies using public highways. It does not apply to trolley car companies or to railroads. I have seen some statements in the papers or heard some statements whereby if we impose this tax, it is going to make all trolley fares go up. This does not apply to trolley cars or railroads. Another mistake that has been called to our attention by the papers. This applies only to transportation companies using public highways.

Under the present law license fees, and excise taxes paid to cities or municipalities for use of roads are deducted from the tax payable to the State. Now, what that means is this. A transportation company today, and that would be a company that is a common carrier, it does not affect a private carrier that does not work for hire, it does not affect any one that the present law does not affect. Under the law today a company figures its gross receipts tax, and if that figure is a thousand dollars, for example, they immediately deduct from that thousand dollars, which is the amount on which tax should be paid to the State of Pennsylvania, they immediately deduct from that all excise taxes paid to any municipality for highway purposes. They deduct that—say $200—and they bring that thousand dollars down to eight hundred dollars. From that eight hundred dollars they then deduct all license and registration fees on the vehicles they own. As we all know, any big group deducts a tremendous amount of money in license fees. So instead of a thousand, or eight hundred dollars, from which license fees and excise taxes are deducted, they owe us probably two dollars and eighty-nine cents which we get. And that is all we do get.

Again we are not making a new tax law. This Bill, 1693, does only one thing. It removes those exclusions and does not allow transportation companies hauling for public hire to deduct from their gross receipts tax any license fees or any excise taxes paid to municipalities.

Incidentally this is an eight mill tax under the present law. It remains an eight mill tax under this change. And eight mills amounts to eight dollars on a thousand.

Bill 1694 which is the next one is for the removal of exemptions from the gross premium taxes of insurance companies. Again this comes under the heading of elimination of exclusions.

Under the present law it exempts life insurance companies and domestic mutuals from premium taxes. This bill that we are submitting today provides for the removal of those companies from that exemption. Other insurance companies pay it. But certain types of companies do not pay it. What this does is to put these companies on a comparative, and an equitable basis with other types of insurance companies, who now pay state taxes and who operate in our state.

Under this law domestics, mutuals and foreign companies would pay a two percent net premium tax. Companies operating today, similar companies selling the same product, because of having a different title, a "mutual" title, are exempted from taxes. This is not a new tax. Again we are plugging loopholes and putting the business on a more equitable basis.

The next bill is 1695 which is a similar bill, if you remember Bill 1303. In fact it includes all of H. B. 1303. That bill is exactly the same as the bill on the calendar today, 1692. This bill actually reenacts House Bill 1303 which passed during this session, if you will remember. This Bill changes the payment of dividends, and puts in the acceleration clause for those companies that did come under the recently decided Specter case, which was a legal device of getting out of paying corporate net income taxes. It does nothing more than that. It is exactly the same as our 1692, and puts corporations that have been, in plain words, ducking paying the tax, under the same tax basis. It applies to foreign corporations outside of our state which have sales offices in our state. We have already passed 1303; this reenacts it with the acceleration clause and the dividend exemption removed.

House Bill 1696 is the next bill. This comes under the plugging of loopholes again. The present law today places the valuation of a stock on the market value of the stock. It classes it at two cents per hundred dollars of value. This bill changes only two words. It changes the words "market value" to "face value."

Prior to 1945 the words "face value" were used in the act. In 1945 somebody slipped it through and changed the words back to "market value."

I may not be exact on these figures, but I am near enough to cite an example. Prior to the words being "face value" we collected in this state almost a million dollars on stock transfers. After the introduction of those words it was cut down to $250,000. We are putting it back to the 1945 law by changing those two words. It is not a new law; we are just changing the wording and putting it in the original form, the way it was in 1945.

The next bill is 1697 which again is exactly the same law except that we are making an increase here in the amount of taxes collected by the percentage being increased. Bill 1697 raises the collateral inheritance tax from ten percent to twenty percent. Now, I am perfectly willing to admit that, not being a lawyer, I had to look around and see what collateral meant. I did not admit it in the committee but I did look around.

This change from 10 percent to 20 percent does not affect widows, does not affect children, does not affect grandchildren, or surviving heirs.

I am going to read to you who this does not affect. The increase of this tax will have no effect whatsoever on a father, a mother, a husband, a wife, children, lineal descendants born in lawful wedlock, legally adopted children, children of a former husband or wife, or the mother of an illegitimate child; it does not affect any of those individuals. It affects brothers and sisters, if affects John Jones, or John Doe, if he is given money.

One of the things it could affect—and I am perfectly willing to admit it—is charity. I personally cannot see why charity should be affected; but nevertheless our laws today have to be written that way, and that is the way they are. But when we look at it in another light, if a charity or I receives money as an inheritance other than as a lineal descendant, we receive it really as a gift; it almost could be included as booty—it is being given to you and you did not expect to get it. We are only increasing that 10 percent.

House Bill 1698 is a new tax. It is a new tax which was given to us by the Senate in their package. It is the only tax we have in this package which is a new tax.

What this does is this: it puts a one percent transfer tax on real estate sales, paid by the seller and collected by a documentary stamp by agents of the Department of Revenue or the Recorder of Deeds. This tax, if it were passed, would only be a temporary tax. It would only last until our fiscal year ends in 1953. If the next Legislature saw fit to remove it prior to 1953 they would have the right to do so.

There is one more. Bill 1699 which is the freezing of bank accounts at death. One thing that I would like to make very very clear here is that this does not affect any joint bank account held by husband and wife. It affects only bank accounts held by persons other than husband and wife. The bank account that would be frozen could be released almost immediately by a Tax Waiver which could be secured from the Secretary of Revenue. Again this is the plugging of a loophole. Today there is evasion of taxes only because accounts are not frozen, and by the time the state gets to them the money is spent. There is not much we can do when the money is gone.

That about gives you a layman's opinion on these bills. I, as I said before, tried to get a lawyer's opinion into your hands. I tried to give you my personal opinion, my honest viewpoint on the bills. Maybe I am wrong in the interpretation, but I tried to get the best interpretations from everyone concerned. I hope, Mr. Andrews, that I have made it clear to not only the Members on your side but also the Members on this side of the House what our tax package is.

I think it is painless. I think it is a tax package that could get us out of a lot of trouble. When we consider that most of the departments are set up to collect taxes it will not cause any increased collection cost. I think it is a tax package that if we pass it, we can go home and say to the people who voted for us, who put us up here, that we passed the appropriation bills; we gave you all the money you asked for and we had the guts to pass a tax package to get that money. I wish we could say that about some other groups.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank the Majority Leader for his able presentation of the tax program which has been submitted to the House.

I would suggest, since undoubtedly he has the information there available, that he just lists the amounts to be raised from the various taxes so the Members who have the mimeographed sheets can put down the amounts that he expects will be raised from the various taxes.

Mr. SMITH. I do have those available, Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman would like them now.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I think the Members of the House would like to note on their mimeographed sheets the various amounts which would be obtained from the various taxes.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I will be only too glad, Mr. Andrews, if you want them at this moment.

Mr. ANDREWS. Yes, if you please.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, 1692 will bring in approximately $61,000,000.

1693, the removal of exemptions from the gross receipts tax on transportation, will bring in approximately $19,000,000.

1694, the removal of exemptions from the gross premium tax on insurance companies, will bring in approximately $5,000,000.

Now—do not put this figure down—Bill 1303 which we passed in the middle of the session, several months ago—we assumed would bring in approximately $5,000,000 on a conservative estimate. Senator Dent in the Senate went as high as $40,000,000. Some people go as low as $2,- 000,000. We took $5,000,000 as a fair and honest estimate, because the Revenue Department told us they assumed that is what it would bring.

That bill would really be bill 1695 on your list.

The sealing of safe deposit boxes, which is Bill 1416, the Department of Revenue estimates would bring in approximately $1,500,000.

Bill 1699 is the bill freezing bank accounts in the name of several persons not husband and wife, would bring in approximately $1,000,000.

The removal of exemptions on the Corporate Net Income on dividends received from corporations, which is in Bill 1692 would bring in an additional $1,500,000. That should be added really to the $61,000,000.

The removal of the word "market value" and the stock transfer tax in Bill 1696 would bring in $250,000.

The increase in the collateral inheritance tax from 10 percent to 20 percent would bring in approximately $20,000,000.

The real estate tax of one percent would bring in approximately $24,000,000.

I might mention at this time, Mr. Andrews, that these figures are not our figures in the drawing of these taxes. We consulted with the Revenue Department and with the Budget Office, although I will say we consulted more with the Revenue Department because they have practically set up departments for almost all of these taxes, and those figures are the figures that were given to us by that Department at that time. Some of them, particularly the corporate net income, would be on a biannual basis; some we have figured from a November 1st deadline. Anything that could be made retroactive that was collectible we made it that way because we needed the money.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman a question?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SMITH. I hope I can answer the gentleman's questions, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman give us the names of the men on the Committee that set up this tax program.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I have no reason not to tell the gentleman the names. I hope I can remember them all. I was Chairman of the committee. The Speaker was on the committee. Mr. Johnson, the Whip; Mr. Helm; Mr. Bower; Mr. Yeakel; the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, Mr. Hall; and the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, Mr. Wood. I do not believe I have missed any.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, that committee was appointed by whom?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, that committee was appointed by the Republican Caucus to make a study for them to submit a tax program to this House.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I further ask the gentleman if there was any consideration given to having a committee in the Senate meet at the same time on a tax program?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I can answer that in this way. The Committee of the Senate submitted to us a tax program several weeks ago, and I am going to answer that question with a broad statement, by saying this, and I mean it very, very sincerely—this committee did what they thought the House wanted them to do. We went in there and honestly, sincerely worked long hours into the night. We did not ask any vested interest, we did not ask any corporation, we did not ask any company or individuals what their opinion of any particular tax was, nor did we ask the Senate. We did not ask any individual as individuals or members of the committee, nor did the committee call any groups in before it—we have seen enough of that happen in the past. We went in there trying to do an honest-to-God, sincere job so that the House could say the committee did a job.

I think the House has been doing a job all session and we wanted to keep that 100 percent record so that we could come back here and say, "Members, this is the program you asked us to get. It is the best we can get for you and it is the most honest and sincere of which we know."

I hope that answers the gentleman's question. It was a little lengthy, but I had to answer it that way, Mr. Lovett.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to make an inquiry of the Majority Floor Leader.

The SPEAKER. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SMITH. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman procure from the Department of Revenue for tomorrow's session some information concerning the total amount of charitable gifts made by wills during the past several years on which the rate is about to be changed from ten to twenty percent under House Bill 1697? I would like that information available tomorrow.

Mr. SMITH. I will try, Mr. Speaker. It is available I will have it for the gentleman.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, since we have interrupted the regular procedure for explanation of the tax program and the inquiries, I was wondering whether or not it might be well to inquire concerning the probable program that the House faces this week. Are we likely to be here tomorrow, or the next day? Is it possible for the leadership in the House to arrive at any decision as to how much time Members must arrange to devote to the consideration of the public business here in the Hall of the House?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say in answer to the gentleman that we have in front of us today a tax program, and I hope it is the last tax program of this session. It will probably come up tomorrow for third reading.

We in the House, not only on this side, but on both sides, I think have been very, very lenient with some of the happenings that have been going on in this Capitol. We are honestly and sincerely shooting to close this session just as soon as we can close it. We have been here too long, we admit it. It is not through any fault of our own. This House, I honestly feel and I want to take the Minority in too, has done a job for the people of Pennsylvania. We have put up with a lot of tomfoolery, as we might call it, we have put up with a few individuals depriving the people of this Commonwealth of the needs of their hospitals, their colleges, their welfare institutions.

We can go back to our people as a House and say that we have passed, as I said before, every appropriation bill that we have thought honest and sincere. We have given the teachers of Pennsylvania the things they have asked for, we have given them a good education program. We have given them a program that we can be proud of. There is no use in giving them a program if you do not give them the money to pay for it. Let us not try to kid ourselves and let us not try to kid them. We are doing everything, Mr. Andrews, to close this session and to bring it to a successful close. If it means that we will have to stay even into Thursday or Friday of this week to do it, and next week we will have to stay five or six days to do it, we are going to make a sincere effort to close the session successfully for the people of Pennsylvania, and we are going to do everything in our power to bring it to a close as soon as we possibly can do it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I was not inquiring concerning the excellence of the performance, I was more concerned about the duration. The gentleman unfortunately informed me no farther than that he considers a remarkable job has been done. He did not say whether we will be in session three days this week, four days this week or five days.

I have no way of anticipating what this House will do tomorrow so far as this tax program is concerned, but what I am interested in learning, if possible, is in the event we sent the tax program to the Senate, are we then at liberty to go about our proper business until such a time as there has been some action upon the part of the other Chamber that will indicate whether it is digging in for Christmas or whether there is some likelihood that it is reaching a decision? Will we return when the Senate has made up its mind—if any?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I like the way the gentleman ended, when he said when the Senate can make up its mind—if any—I like that.

I would say this, Mr. Speaker, that I have just been informed that there is a deficiency appropriation bill coming over from the Senate for public assistance, and that it will probably be necessary to stay Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

In answer to the attitude of the Senate on our tax program, the House's program, I cannot answer the gentleman. But I can answer the gentleman by saying we are giving them the best program that I know of and there will not be any need for us to stay at least much longer.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LOVETT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, as you recall when the original tax program came on the floor of this House I delayed the passage of that tax program somewhat. I feel the same about this tax program as I did about that one.

We are dealing with the people of Pennsylvania. There are many things in this particular tax program that we do not know how they will affect different people throughout the state of Pennsylvania. I have always been of the opinion that we should not rush legislation; the people of Pennsylvania should have an opportunity to know what this tax program is. They should be heard, and although we have stayed here many months, that is no reason why we in one week's time should pass a tax program in Pennsylvania without the people of Pennsylvania having had an opportunity to be heard.

I, therefore, do not agree with passing this entire tax program this week.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, fully realizing that one of the biggest hitches in the delay of sine die adjournment of this session was the controversy and the difference of opinion by certain groups on the budget as proposed by the Governor, I would like to know from the gentleman from Philadelphia as to whether there is today agreement by those certain groups that did not agree with the budget that $138 million is necessary in order to balance the budget?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, let me answer again—and I do not mean to take a vindictive attitude, but I can not answer that question day from day. One minute we are informed by those very same individuals that they will support the program which they sent us saying that we need $138 millions; they are all agree on that. That was two weeks ago.

The other day in the paper I saw where a certain Senator said "This is rhubarb."

That very same Senator was one of the Senators that agreed that we needed the $138 million two weeks prior. So I can only say that as of last report they agreed on the $138 million, and because they sent us the $138 million program we accepted their figure.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, there have been other groups that have disagreed with the budget and had differences of opinion with the various requests that the department heads have made. Now in the event that we pass another tax program through this House, assuming $138 million is needed, can we have public scrutiny of the budget? By that I mean not the bills we have passed for additional aid to education or the health and welfare programs, but the various requests of the department heads, to see whether the budget could not be pruned in the various departments where there is a possibility of pruning their budget. Are we going to pass this program without considering the necessity for the amount that is called for in this tax program, or are we going to get a public viewing of the budget?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, we have been around here, I believe now pretty close to nine months. Certainly there has been enough time and I do not like the word "public viewing," it sort of sends shivers up my spine. I think there has been enough time for the public to have completely audited the budget in any way they saw fit.

I think, Mr. Speaker, there has been almost unanimous agreement in the House here that $138 million including the money we passed in appropriations is probably the amount of money we need.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. PETROSKY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, very briefly, I do not agree with the gentleman that there is a unanimous opinion in the House of Representatives that $138 million is necessary. Of course if the debate on this tax program that will be shown, and in the event that we cannot hold hearings and question the department heads on their requests, we will have to revert to our original position on the amount of money necessary for the various departments in the budget.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I would like to answer that, Mr. Speaker, by a very short statement. Our Appropriations Committee—and again I want to say that I have complete faith in it—has representation from the majority and the minority sides of the House. I have been assured, and I know that they have called in the department heads. I know that they have examined the budget, and I know that everything that they have been asked for that the committee felt was unfair or unneeded was not given to us to vote upon.

The heads of the schools and colleges were brought in and questioned. In many, many cases their requests were turned down. I know that because many of them have been to see me to “up” those requests. I have had very poor success with that committee in doing that, believe me.

It is a good committee; they have reviewed all of these things and I think the bills they have given us to vote on are honest, good bills, and the money is needed by all of the departments, by all of the colleges up to the amounts that have been presented to us on this floor.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. WOOD asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order on page 18 of today's calendar, House Bill No. 1566.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1566, as follows:

An Act to further amend subsection C of Section 1 of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1145) entitled "An act empowering cities of the second class cities of the second class A cities of the third class boroughs towns townships of the first class school districts of the second class school districts of the third class and school districts of the fourth class to levy assess and collect or to provide for the levying assessment and collection of certain additional taxes subject to maximum limitations for general revenue purposes authorizing the establishment of bureaus and the appointment and compensation of officers and employes to assess and collect such taxes and permitting penalties to be imposed and enforced providing an appeal from the ordinance or resolution levy such taxes to the court of quarter sessions and to the Supreme Court and Superior Court" by authorizing financially handicapped and distressed school districts to levy additional taxes with certain limitations

Section 1 Subsection C of Section 1 of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1145) entitled "An act empowering cities of the second class cities of the second class A cities of the third class boroughs towns townships of the first class school districts of the second class school districts of the third class and school districts of the fourth class to levy assess and collect or to provide for the levying assessment and collection of certain additional taxes subject to maximum limitations for general revenue purposes authorizing the establishment of bureaus and the appointment and compensation of officers and employes to assess and collect such taxes and permitting penalties to be imposed and enforced providing an appeal from the ordinance or resolution levying such taxes to the court of quarter sessions and to the Supreme Court and Superior Court" as amended by the act approved the ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 898) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1 * * * * *
C Over-all Limit of Tax Revenues The aggregate amount of taxes imposed by enactment of an ordinance or resolution by any political subdivision under this section and in effect during any fiscal year shall not exceed an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying the total assessed valuation of real estate in such political subdivision at the time of the said enactment by ten (10) mills in cases of cities of the second class cities of the second class A cities of the third class boroughs towns and townships of the first class and by fifteen (15) mills in cases of school districts of the second class third class and fourth class Provided That the aggregate amount of taxes imposed by any financially handicapped or distressed school district under this section and in effect during any fiscal year shall not exceed an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying fifteen (15) mills by the latest total market valuation of real estate in such school district as certified by the State Tax Equalization Board

Section 2 The provision of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?
Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, as I understnad this particular bill it allows an additional levy of taxes for school purposes in distressed school districts. I do not think that this is good legislation. There was a bill passed this morning which I was recorded as voting for, that had I not been entertained by some one else at the time I would have spoken against, because that allowed an increase of taxation for school purposes.

Taxation on real estate in this state has always been too high. It is too high today, and you are now allowing the school districts to increase taxes in some districts and especially in distressed school districts.

I think the Members of this House should give consideration before they vote for an increase of taxation for school purposes. I just wanted to call the attention of the House to the bill that they are now voting on.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, September 19, 1951.

The Senate met at 9:30 o'clock, a.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Fred P. Hare) in the Chair.

PRAYER

In the absence of the Chaplain, the prayer was offered by the Senator from Berks, DOCTOR RUTH.

Almighty God, our Father, we come to Thee this morning in the spirit of humility because Thou hast shown Thyself in our life as a dear Friend. We pray that we may have that friendly spirit toward those of our own household and for those of the world. As we go along life's highway, we pray for the spirit of him who said:

Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
Where the race of men go by;
The men that are good and the men that are bad,
As good and as bad as I;
I would not sit in the scorner's seat,
Nor hurl the cynic's ban;
Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

We ask it in Thy Holy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. SCARLET, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.
